NOTHING

BUT MADE-TO-MEASURE CLOTHES.

No ready-made, consequently, no stock to carry; no large upkeep, and, consequently, we are making clothes to order. Fit, quality and workmanship fully guaranteed. Same quality for less money than you can buy ready-mades. The large line comprising 500 styles of all wool suitings for Spring and Summer is ready for inspection—$12.60 the suit, gradually leading up to the finest imported fabrics. Ask some of the large number we clothed last year about this service and the price.

Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY, Chestertown, Md.,

Special Representative of the International Tailoring Co., of New York, Chicago and London.

Office under the Voshell House, next to Robert McWhorther's.

MISS LOUISE ARMSTRONG WINS PIANO.

One of the Most Spirited Contests Ever Waged in Chestertown Closed at A. L. Sparks' Store April 1.

For six months or more the young folks of the town and two counties, as well as the grownups have been greatly interested in the contest to secure the valuable piano and other prizes offered by Mr. Arlington L. Sparks, one of our most progressive merchants. Friends of the contestants have been busy day and night in securing votes for their respective friends, and while the contest has been at times exciting, it has been conducted in a most excellent manner by Mr. Sparks, and the utmost fairness has been exhibited by the proprietor of the big department store. Every one is perfectly satisfied, and Mr. Sparks deserves the greatest commendation for his efforts to improve trade conditions in Chestertown. He had the valuable assistance of the hustling clothing firm of Vansant & Newsome, and of the live grocery and provision store of Mr. Jas. P. DeCorse, each of whom "drove" the scheme for all it was worth by advertising inducements. And we take pleasure in saying that the contest has been profitable to those merchants who engaged in it. The contest closed on Wednesday, and the interest all over the county was so great that the telephones were kept busy answering the question, "Who got the piano?" Miss Louise Armstrong was the winner, her total vote being 18,141,600. She was 8,658,210 votes ahead of her nearest competitor, Miss Dora Wilkins, who made a most excellent showing. The following are the winners and their prizes:

No. 72—Miss Louise Armstrong, 18,141,600, Piano.
No. 36—Miss Dora Wilkins, 9,483,390, 20-year Gold Filled Watch.
No. 25—Miss Rachel Willis, 8,318,085, 10-year Gold Filled Watch.
No. 21—Miss Regina Rasin, 6,265,050, Gold Lavaliere with Diamond Studded Pendant.
No. 94—Miss Isabelle Beck, 5,620,320, Gold Filled Bracelet.
No. 18—Mrs. Marguerite Fowler, 3,778,950, Silver Comb and Brush Set.
No. 52—Miss Carrie Bolton, 3,625,130, Silver Comb and Brush Set.
No. 30—Miss Clara Coleman, 3,325,305, Silver Comb and Brush Set.

While it was originally intended to give only one comb and brush set, the last three contestants were so close, and they worked so loyally that Mr. Sparks very generously donated two of the sets. The piano, which of course was the great prize, is a Claxton, one of the standard makes, and sells for $350. Mr. Sparks will continue to offer premiums, etc., and he will tell you about it next week in the TRANSCRIPT. We congratulate Miss Armstrong upon her success, and we are quite sure that the piano has fallen into excellent hands, as Miss Armstrong has splendid musical talent.
