CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

I desire to express my appreciation to those who have favored me with their patronage since I have been engaged in the mercantile business at Fairlee. Without their assistance it would have been impossible for me to have succeeded. Now that I have sold out, I hope the general public will be as liberal with the new firm of Bramble, Kilbourn & Noland, to whom I have sold the business, as they have been with me.

All accounts due Kilbourn & Bramble and T. B. Kilbourn are payable to me. I must have prompt settlement, as it is necessary that the business of both firms be closed up.

T. B. KILBOURN,

The Presbyterian supper and festival held at Worton last Saturday evening was attended by a big crowd and the gross proceeds were $65.

Hog cholera is playing havoc with the farmers' hogs in many sections of the county, and many will be forced to buy their season's supply of pork.

The firm of W. S. & A. M. Culp, of this town, has been awarded the contract for the erection of the new High School building at Townsend, Del.

Mr. Harvey Hall, now tenanting the Massey farm, near Goose Hill, will till Mr. Nelson Stevens' farm, in Baltimore county, next year.

Mr. Scott Beck has purchased the residence on Princess street now occupied by himself and family, and which belonged to the estate of the late Henry C. Chase.

Mr. Granville S. Lewis, fireman on the Kent train, has been transferred to Georgetown, Del., and Mr. Marvel takes Mr. Lewis' place. The change was made on Wednesday.

The Grand Army of the Republic has been in possession of the city of Washington during the week. Col. Wm. J. Vannort was one of the leading figures at the encampment.

La Tena's circus gave the best performances seen here in many years on Tuesday. The trained animal features, especially the trained seals, are wonders, and the acting and riding are fine.

Mr. Enoch King, living on the Welch farm, near Millington, will offer a lot of fine stock and farming implements for sale next Thursday, October 7th. This is some fine stock and will pay you to invest.

Mr. J. T. Ireland will sell a lot of valuable personalty on his Coleman farm, on Moneay, October 11th. Fine lot of stock and farm implements as well as household furniture will be offered.

Mrs. Rachel Gale has rented Mrs. Anna Rickey's residence on Maple avenue, now occupied by Mr. Benjamin Brown and family. Mr. Brown has rented one of Mr. A. M. Culp's new houses on Mt. Vernon Place.

Millions of fish were killed in Corsica river last week by an unknown cause. It is believed that the fish were killed by tomato acid coming from the canning factories. The drains lead into the stream running into the river.

The Chestertown Choral Club will meet in the Assembly Hall of the High School on Tuesday evening next, at 7.30 o'clock, to prepare for the rendition of a new cantata. The cantata of Ruth will be the selection.

Two of Chestertown's, Isaac Walton's found a new fishing ground up the river on Monday and they caught a peach basket full of fine cull perch, rock and big white catfish, and they won't tell a sole where the spot is.

The new Kennedyville High School will be ready for occupancy on or about October 15. The assembly hall, which occupies the second floor, will be lighted by the Kennedyville Grange which will use the hall as its place of meeting.

The Tomato crop throughout the county is said to have been a dismal failure, and we also understaed that the grape crop is also very short. There is one thing encouraging, however, and that is that Thanksgiving turkey promises to be on the job quite extensively.

Mr. W. C. Dempsey, son of Mr. Theodore Dempsey, of Galena, has purchased the stock and good will of the mercantile business recently conducted by Mr. Wm. A. Pote, at Kennedyville. Mr. Dempsey took charge of the business October 1st.

Mrs. Carolene L. Hynson has awarded to Mr. Frank E. Duyer the contract for the erection of a pretty home on the lot on Front street opposite her home, which will be occupied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Emma Hynson, and family when completed.

A well-known breeder of the spendid Buff Rock chicken in Chestertown has pullets that were hatched April 14, which have been laying for two weeks. They were just five months old Sept. 14th.

The Ten-Pinnett bowling alleys, conducted during the summer on the lot adjoining Adams Express office, have been removed to the room over the Enterprise office and are daily open to the public. It's clean, moral, healthy sport for ladies and gentlemen.

The Walbert farm, near Lankford, will be tenanded next year by Mr. James Walbert. The Barnett farm, near Pomona, has been rented by Mr. Jack Newnam, Mr. Blackiston going to the Kratzer place. Mr. Allie Simpler will remove to the Crow-Jrrrell farm, near town.

The Chestertown Postoffice did a landoffice business on Monday in the money order department. 57 orders were issued from 7 A. M. to 2.30 P. M., and close to 75 were issued during the day. This is the safest and most convenient way in which to forward money. Try it.

Sunday last, Sept. 26th, was the fifth anniversary of Chestertown's big fire, which occurred on Monday night, Sept. 26, 1910. There has been a wonderful improvement in the burned district in five years. Some of the finest store properties on the peninsula now occupy the sites of old mansions which were burned.

We went to press this week before we discovered that H. Sachs & Son had not changed their advertisement. Mr. Sachs is too busy this week unpacking his great stock of fall and winter goods, but the store is open day and night, and they are selling goods right and left. If you don't believe it go in to-night and see for yourself.

Mr. Edward Armstrong was awakened early Sunday morning by a noise of some one in his chickens. Hastily arising he went down into his yard and found a man trying to open his hen house door. He called to the fellow, who drew a pistol and fired in the direction of Mr. Armstrong, but fortunately missed his man. Mr. Armstrong was unable to discover the identity of the man.

A yacht belonging to a Mr. McQuay, of Philadelphia, has been anchored in Chester river harbor during the week. The yacht is on a long voyage. She will go from here to Florida, thence into the Gulf of Mexico to the Mississippi, up the Mississippi to the Great Lakes, thence to Albany and down the Hudson into the Ocean and Delaware bay and home. The yacht is a member of the Philadelphia Yacht Club

Mrs. Frank Coleman was taken to Easton hospital on Thursday afternoon in Mr. Wm. T. Nicholson's car, accompanied by her husband and her physician, Dr. F. W. Smith. Her condition was critical. No need for a hospital in Chestertown? What a reflection on the progress of the town that ill patients have to be carried right through our town to the up-to-date town of Easton for emergency treatment.

The play "Within The Law" was given before a fair audience in the Lyceum Theatre on Monday night by a good company. The play has a powerful moral, and is a good dramatization of the only book which has ever received Presidential endorsement. It is a mighty strong defence of the dignity of labor and portrays in the most vivid manner the temptations and trials of the average shop girl, who is not given the wage to which she is entitled.

The pretty home of Mr. G. F. Clark on Kent Circle is nearly ready for occupancy, and is a decided improvement to the Circle. Mr. G. Harry Cannon was the builder. Other improvements nearing completion are the new high school on Washington avenue, being built by W. S. & A. M. Culp; Mr. Raymond Simpers' new residence on Queen street, G. H. Cannon, builder, and Mr. Thomas W. Eliason, Jr's., new home on Spring avenue, being erected by Mr. A. M. Kendall.

It is now about certain that "Peter Stevens," who holds the world's record in a race, will be here at the two-days meet at Radcliffe Park in November, to try for a world's pacing record. Mr. John Mallalieu, who returned this week from Allentown, says that a large number of horsemen who were at that track will be here in November. It is possible that a world's record may be made at the fast Radcliffe track, which, in its present condition, is probably the fastest in the country.

Messrs. M. Wilbur Thomas, R. Snowden Thomas, James Dunbracco and Polk T. Bramble visited the large poultry plant of Mr. S. W. Granberry, near Crumpton, on Sunday afternoon. This is one of the largest poultry plants on the peninsula, and Mr. Granberry had nearly 2,000 beautiful White Leghorn chickens, which are a most excellent strain of layers. Most of them were sold at his big public sale on Wednesday and brought good prices. Here is a most excellent chance for some live poultry man to make a success, as Mr. Granberry will rent the property which is equipped with the most convenient and modern appliances for raising poultry.
