Machine Case From Caroline County Removed.

A case which was on trial nearly three days in the circuit court last week and which attracted much interest on the part of our farmers, was compromised on Saturday last. It was the suit of the International Harvester Co. vs. Thomas S. Holt, of Federalsburg, Caroline county, removed from there to Queen Annes and then to Kent. The International Harvester Co. claimed that Holt owed them about $1000 for five manure spreaders and other machinery. Holt's defense was that the spreaders would not work as guaranteed. During the trial the attorneys met and agreed upon a compromise, whereby the International Harvester Co. allowed Holt what he had paid for five of the manure spreaders and Holt paid the balance of the bill in cash, about $600. The lawyers engaged in the case were: James T. Gary, of Denton; J. F. Harper, of Centreville, and Hope H. Barroll and L. Wethered Barroll, of Chestertown, for the International Harvester Co.; T. Alan Goldsborough, of Denton, and Wm. W. Beck, of Chestertown, appeared for Holt.

The case in court last week of Joseph Brice vs. Robert J. McWhorter, for mill feed, was settled without going to trial. Mr. Brice's bill and costs, amounting to some $250, was paid by Mr. McWhorter and the suit dismissed. Hope H. Barroll appeared for Brice, and H. W. Vickers, Esq., for McWhorter.

What promised to be a long term of court suddenly ended to the surprise of the court, and to the public generally, but much to the satisfaction of our tax-payers.

Title to the McWhorter Estate Settled.

The litigation in reference to whether the sale of the George B. McWhorter house and lot on Washington avenue made by Hope H. Barroll, Executor, to James Brice and to A. Parks Rasin, was valid, was determind by the Court last Saturday before it adjourned. Mr. Wm. M. Slay, representing A. Parks Rasin, claimed that no title could be given by the Executor under the will and that as Mr. Rasin could not get a title, the Executor must pay back one third of the purchase price which he had received from Mr. Rasin. Suit was accordingly entered against Mr. Barroll by Mr. Rasin for this purchase price. The Court held that after a careful examination of the authorities it believed the Orphans' Court had full power and authority to authorize the Executor to sell the property and as no appeal had been taken the title in its opinion, was a good and valid one. Mr. Slay thereupon went to trial stating that the money paid could be recovered in such suit. Mr. Barroll stated that as he had been sued in his individual capacity and not as Executor of Mr. McWhorter the suit should be dismissed. The Court so decided and this question which has been interesting a large number of people in the town for some months has at last been settled and Mr. Rasin and Mr. Brice assured in the title of their property.

Fish Pulled Him Overboard.

"Hersplash!" This was the noise made by William Tinsman, tax collector at Richardson Park, Delaware, when he fell in a creek at Millington, Md., while on a fishing trip last Friday. The story has just leaked out, despite Mr. Tinsman's sensitiveness about it, and the real facts are that he mistook his own stability in trying to land a "whopper." The fish, a huge bass, proved to be more at home in the water than did his would-be captor on the slippery bank. With Mr. Tinsman at the time were his wife and baby and Leslie Woodall. They motored to the place on the morning of that day and were entertained at Millington by Mrs. Woodall and her daughter, Elizabeth. A source of regret to the unhappy fisherman was the fact that he was forced to stay in bed while his cloths were drying out. Upon the return of the sojourners it was found that their trip was not so bad after all. In addition to Mr. Tinsman, 30 black bass, the largest weighing 35 ounces, had been pulled out of the water.

Paint Now

If your property needs it; don't wait.
There are two parts of a job; the paint and the work; the work is more than the paint.
The cost of paint is about two-fifths; the work three-fifths.
Paint won't come-down in a hurry; too-many jobs put-off.
Men are waiting for $2 or $3; they don't know it; they think they are waiting for $20 or $25.
Why don't men use their heads?
DEVOE
