Western Marylane Railroad.

Up to the period of putting our paper to press we have not learned the action of Mayor Swann on our Railroad bill.

School Opening

The regular, Summer session of the Westminster male and female School, P. R. Buel, Principal, will commence on the 30th inst. The perfect satisfaction expressed by its former patrons will ensure for it a additional friends and more extended patronage.

Corporation of Westminster.

The Mayor and Council have been engaged at intervals for a week or two past, in revising the old and adopting new laws for the future government of the town. We are almost disposed to boast a little of the good conduct of our town of late, exhibiting an elevated and healthful tone of morals which is really refreshing, and trust may be continued in all time to come.

Accidental Drowning.

Joshua Vaughan, (an uncle of F. A. Sharer, of Westminster,) an old citizen of Liberty District, Frederick County, was found drowned in a spring about a mile and a half west of Liberty, on Sunday evening the 1st of July. The Banner says that the deceased had gone to this spring, about a quarter of a mile from his house, for a bucket of water, fell in, and being old and feeble, was unable to get out, although the water was not ten inches deep.

Say Boys, Pitch In!

Now is your chance. See advertisement in another column of A. J. Alexander.—He informs us now "that the good times have come at last." If you risk a dollar with Mr. A., you may draw something very handsome—perhaps $800 in gold, or a horse and buggy. He refers you to a number of persons regarding his honesty, &c. Will you try a dollar's worth for a "starter?"

Death by Drowning

It is our painful duty to announce the death of Charles, son of Levi Hoover, a promising lad of 15 years, on the evening of the 11th instant. As was customary during the season, he repaired to Winters' dam, whose mill his father operates, situated about 1½ miles from town, to bathe, and whilst in the act was drowned. Information of the fact was communicated to his father by one of Airhart Winters' boys, who was with him at the time of the occurrence, who immediately repaired to the dam in company with others, and on being shown the place where the boy went down, William Stevenson commenced diving for him, and on the eleventh dive, assisted by his brother Samuel, brought his lifeless corpse to the shore. The water at this spot is between 12 and 15 feet deep. Young Heiner, we learn, was a very good swimmer, and must have been seized with cramp at the time, and the boys who were with him were too small to render him any assistance. We deeply sympathize with his parents in this heavy and afflictive stroke of Providence, and commend them to Him for succor, support and resignation.

☞ A fine family horse belonging to Rev. D. Evans Reese, pastor in charge of the Methodist Protestant Churches comprising Westminster Circuit, died in Uniontown on Saturday evening last. Of course the pecuniary loss to Mr. Reese will not be felt, as his tread will be glad to contribute their share.

☞ Some 30 or 40 wooden dwellings in New York, were destroyed by fire on Monday. They were mostly occupied by negroes, when horses were at work at the time, and thus escaped. One hundred and fifty families are made houseless by the disaster. Loss estimated at $100,000.

Methodist Secession.

About thirty members of Wesley Chapel in Washington have seceded and joined the Church South. The origin, it is said, was a local difficulty, brought about by the stationing authority of the Baltimore Conference, and the stewards of the Wesley Chapel, in the removal of a former pastor from the pastoral care of that station before he had served the customary term.

Got Us This Time.

Eggs down here sell for about a levy a dozen, (important information, that,) but our brother of the Press has had one egg presented him by John Hafleigh, residing near New Windsor, which measures 7¼ by 8 inches, two or three dozen of which we make application for first, to be paid in Sentinel subscription, as we intend to use them for the "common good," interjingled in familiar association with Chestnut Grove, sassafras bark, ginger root, and old Greely's cane-brake simmered, on the night Mayor Swann gives us money enough to build our Railroad to ——— name of a town long since finished, and from thence to disturb the peaceful slumbers of antiquated sour-crout headed republicans all along the mountains and vallies until we reach within sight of a city that can be seen through an italicised microscope, as Mayor Swormstedt has promised to grant us room to spread.

We haven't another word to say about eggs, but our neighbor needn't think he'll scare us off by saying he has something rich for next week, and will "plank it down so thick that the big dog will be nowhere." Slide along, but be careful of breakers, as a neighbor of ours has something growing which we are almost apprehensive you will be compelled to enlarge the chapel door before you can place it on exhibition.—Now mind, it's for you, and we've already engaged the express line to wagon it up!

The Union Saved.

One object at least, which the Democrats have professed to have very much at heart, they have accomplished by their disruption at Baltimore. They have saved the Union. Paradoxical as it may seem, the party which has professed that in its union and supremacy lay the only hope of preserving our confederacy, have put an end to all clamor about disunion by simply dissolving their organization. For since the split at Baltimore, the two factions vie with each other in extravagant expressions of devotion to the Union. The burden of the speeches of Breckinridge and Lane at Washington the other night was devotion to the Union. The Republicans, the Union men, and the Douglas men had constantly expressed their determination to frown upon all scheme for disunion, and now the most ultra southern party, which includes in its ranks the whole band of fire-eaters, takes especial pains to emphasize its professions of attachment to the Union.

We congratulate the Democrats upon having accomplished the great and patriotic work of saving us from that destruction, which, according to their accounts, had been so imminent for the last few months. To be sure, they have paid rather dearly for it.

Maryland State Bible Society.

The 20th annual report of this society has been issued. There have been seven colporteurs in active operation, who, for the past year, visited over 24,000 adults. The total supply of books to minors reaches 1,645. Of the year's issue there were distributed—

	Bibles.	Testaments.
To Sabbath Schools,	817	555
" Shipping,	688	68
" Aux Bodies,	1,001	788
" Institutions,	262	"
Total,	2,768	1,418

The total issues of books for the past year has been 19,304, being an excess of 2,263 volumes over the issue of the preceding year.

The Treasurer's report shows the gross receipts of the year, exclusive of the balance on hand at the date of last report, to be $11,694.36, out of which there is a balance of $946.36.

Wyoming Tribe Red Men

We learn from the Press that at a regular meeting of Wyoming Tribe, No. 37, I. O. R. M., of Uniontown, held on the 29th ult., the following gentlemen were elected officers for the next six months: D. Segafoose, S.; E. Shapley, S. S.; I. Wright, J. S.; H. H. Hechaugh, C. R.; Chas. Devilbiss, K. W.; D. Cookson, P. These officers were then installed by Dr. B. Mills, installing chief.

This tribe continues in a highly flourishing condition. Though instituted but a little over a year ago, it now numbers upwards of 50 members, in good standing, comprising some of the most prominent citizens of our community. The meetings are largely attended and much interesting them is manifested by the membership generally.

District and County Meetings

The divided Democracy of Carroll are invited in the Democrat of last week to assemble in District meetings on the 4th of August to select ten delegates each, to send to a County Convention at Westminster on the 6th, to elect four delegates to represent the County in the State Convention to be held in Baltimore on the 9th. This Baltimore Convention is the creature of Brad. Johnson, and designed to declare Breckinridge to be the choice of Maryland for the Presidency. If the Douglas boys are smart they will not go to sleep at this critical juncture. A word to the wise, &c.

☞ Why is James Buchanan like the Apostle Paul? Because he holds (buys) the clothes of those who stoned Stephen!

☞ Hicks, the pirate and murderer, was executed at New York on Friday.

Buchanan Makes a Speech.

President Buchanan and Secretary Cobb made formal speeches on Monday night week, at Washington, endorsing Breckinridge and Lane. More in sorrow than in anger we deprecate the course of the present incumbent of the office of Chief Magistrate of the republic in addressing a purely partisan speech—essentially a stump harangue—to the promiscuous crowd that waited upon him on Monday evening.—We rejoice that it is the only instance in which a President of the United States has so far forgotten the dignities and proprieties of his station, but we grieve that such an exhibition has been even once made before the country and the world. In this feeling there is no admixture of any party considerations whatever. The sentiment that prompts these remarks, if we are capable of analyzing and determining our own feelings and motives, is simply one of regret and pain that any President of the United States should thus demean himself and disgrace his high office. Had the offender against propriety and good taste been of our own political faith or party, we should have employed stronger terms of disapproval and disgust. As it is, we content ourselves with saying that President Buchanan, after doing many things unworthy of his high station, has in this voluntarily coming down into the arena of political and personal feuds and conflicts, done, the utmost in his power to bring the Presidential office into disrepute and contempt. It is well for the country, and for the cause of representative government, that his tenure of office is so near its close. The memories that will accompany him into retirement will be no enviable position.

Fire Near Manchester.

The barn and entire crop of grain and hay of John Shaffer, of John, about three-quarters of a mile above Manchester, this County, was destroyed by fire on Monday night last under the following circumstances: Mr. Shaffer had retired for the night leaving two wagon loads of grain, one in and the other outside the barn, and his father-in law, apprehensive of rain, roused him from bed for the purpose of unloading the one and pulling the other wagon in the barn. A lantern was placed on a windmill, and it is supposed a straw fell through the top and immediately communicated to the loaded wagon, covering it with an instantaneous blaze. All efforts to suppress it were fruitless, and the energies of the men were directed to running the stock from the barn, which was accomplished. So rapid was the progress of the flames that the loaded wagon outside was also consumed. Loss about $2,000. There was an annual insurance on the crops and barn of $5,000, but neglect to pay the interest thereon at the proper time, of course it is forfeited, rendering the loss a dead one.

Fine Specimens of Fruit.

We have on exhibition at our office some splendid specimens of Gooseberries, beautiful in appearance, and measuring from 3 to 3¾ inches in circumference, from the Nursery of Joseph Stout, near town.—They are of a new species lately introduced in this section, and are the finest we have ever inspected. Mr. S. has on sale for planting this Fall every variety of fruit and ornamental trees, shrubbery, flowers, &c., which can be purchased on more liberal terms than at any other Nursery in the country. Whilst most other persons' fruit trees have failed this season, Mr. S.'s are flourishing and in full bearing condition. Make him a call and examine personally before purchasing elsewhere.

The Capture of Miramon.

According to the New Orleans papers the Liberals and Reactionists have had a great battle at a place called Salamanca, and there the redoubtable Miramon has met his Waterloo. Not only was his army defeated, but he himself fell into the hands of his enemies. The victor on this occasion was Gen. Zaragoza, who will doubtless, by virtue of his success, step into the place of the late ruler, and add another to the almost numberless Presidents of Mexico. What effect this will have on Juarez, who is still cooped up in Vera Cruz, remains to be seen.

The Union Party in Florida

News from Florida gives flattering accounts of the success of the Constitutional Union ticket in that State—The people seem to be very enthusiastic in the Bell and Everett cause. The following papers have hoisted the names of Bell and Everett, and will give their support to these gentlemen during the approaching Presidential campaign, Talahassee Sentinel, the Lake city Independent Press, the Pensacola Gazette, the Milton Courier, and the West Florida Enterprise.

Beginning of the End.

A Mr. Hochaugh, who has been publishing a neutral newspaper at Lexington, Missouri, for three years, in his edition of last week inserted at the mast-head the names of the Black Republican candidates for President and Vice President. For this he was driven out of town and the printing office tossed in the river.

Behind Again!

Hezekiah Yingling, of Uniontown, has presented our brother of the Press with some stalks of Oats, measuring 5 feet 10 inches. That's nothing! Why, we beat it last week by 6 inches, and Augustus Shriver, of Farm Content, told us on our publication morning that he had stalks of Oats measuring 6 feet 8 inches, and well headed. Climb down, neighbor, and go up in the garret, for you're too late for church.

Visit of the Prince of Wales.

The Washington Constitution says, we understand that the President has received an autograph letter from her majesty Queen Victoria, announcing the intention of her son, the Prince of Wales, under the name of Lord Renfrew, to come to Washington during his contemplated visit to the British provinces.

New Publications.

Godey's Lady's Book, for August, tastefully embellished and exceedingly a tractive in its literary department, has already been received. This old and popular champion of literature retains all the friends it has ever won, and it wins every person who makes a fair examination of the issue for any month in the year. We will furnish the Book and Sentinel one year for $2.

Peterson's Magazine.—The July number contains 43 articles and 46 embellishments, comparing favorably with any Magazine in the country. It is a neat and useful periodical, and almost indispensable in a well regulated family. Any person can have the Magazine and Sentinel one year for $2 50.

New Candidate for Vice President

The Columbia Democrat endorses the nomination of Breckinridge but ignores that of Lane. The editor publishes the proceedings of the two Baltimore conventions without comment, but runs up the following ticket: "For President—John C. Breckinridge; for Vice President—Charles R. Buckalew." How many more candidates will the double-headed Democracy present? The more the merrier—there is nothing like variety.

The Frederick Encampment.

The most active preparations are on foot to render the military encampment, which is to take place in Frederick, in the early part of next September, a grand affair, and we have the best reasons for believing that it will come up fully to the public expectations.

☞ "Under which king, Bezonian?—Speak or die!" We insist upon it that every Democrat shall pluck his red or white rose, and wear it in his cap to denote to which of the rival factions he belongs.

Later From Mexico.

By the steamer Philadelphia, at New York, we are in receipt of later news from Mexico. The Liberal cause is looking up again. Gen. Ortega having severely thrashed the forces of Ramirez, one of Miramon's partisans, taking a large number of prisoners, artillery, and a quantity of war material Miramon himself, after having endeavored to draw his enemy into the open field, is reported to have retreated to Guadalajara, closely followed by a detachment of Liberals. The latter were concentrating, and another attack upon Guadalajara may be expected. General Uraga is said to be very weak. Miramon has refused to exchange him.

☞ The Catholic Mirror of last week contains a pastoral letter signed by Archbishop Kendrick, of Baltimore, and the Bishops of Wheeling, Richmond, Erie, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Charleston, Florida and Savannah, expressing their "devoted attachment to the See of the Apostle Peter, and to the illustrious Pontiff who now occupies it," recognizing it "as the centre of unity, the rock upon which Christ our Lord built His Church, and against which the gates of Hell cannot prevail."

The letter concludes by appointing the first Sunday in September as the day for taking up collections and contributions for the "treasury of the Church," made necessary "in consequence of the loss of the revolted province," the revenues of which "enables the Pontiff to meet the expenses of his ecclesiastical administration."

☞ The United States Senate will stand at the opening of the next session, if Oregon fills her vacancy, and no one dies or resigns, 38 Democrats to 27 Republicans and 1 American. On and after the 4th of March next, provided Kansas is admitted, and there is no change whatever in certain of the slave States, that now look as though they are going for Bell, and admitting that Green, of Mo., and Gwin, of California, will be succeeded by Democrats, that body will stand 34 Democrats to 33 Republicans and 1 American. But the chances are in favor of Union Senators from North Carolina and Louisiana, and Republican Senators from Missouri and California, in which event, the Republican party will be in a majority of two over all.

☞ By the steamer Vanderbilt at New York, we have later advices from Europe. Among the passengers is Colonel Cipriani, who comes to make arrangements for the visit of Prince Napoleon to America, which is the first intimation we have received of this proposed visit. Fresh disturbances have taken place at Naples, resulting in the sacking of the Police Stations by the populace, and the calling out of the National Guard. Many of the police were killed. We have but little additional intelligence from Sicily, except a rumor of some disturbances growing out of the unpopularity of Garibaldi's ministry.

The Great Holland Remedy!

BŒRHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.—Persons subject to nervous or sick headache, will find in Boerhave's Holland Bitters a sure, safe and pleasant remedy. It soothes the throbbing head, corrects acidity of the stomach, assists digestion, and creates a healthy appetite. It is, without doubt, a most delightful preparation, and an effectual remedy. The fact that it is now a very popular medicine throughout all the Holland settlements in Wisconsin, New York, Michigan, Illinois and Indiana, speaks much in its favor. See advertisement in another column.

☞ A disastrous conflagration occurred at New York on the night of the 13th, involving the destruction of West Washington Market, and property to an almost incalculable amount. The fire broke out about ten o'clock, at the dock of the New York and Hamburg line of steamers, among the sheds on the river, covering altogether nearly three acres of ground. These were in less than twenty minutes completely in flames, and the light caused was so intense as to illumine nearly the entire city. Loss $100,000.

☞ Douglas' friends at Washington, after full consultation, have determined to put him in nomination as a candidate for the Presidency in 1864, immediately after the November election, be the result what it may. They are resolved that his competitor shall not have control of the Democratic organization, to which the contest is now mainly directed, but intend to continue the fight to the bitter end. As Messrs. Breckinridge and Douglas are both young, they may indulge the gratification of a protracted rivalry.

☞ A brutal series of murders was committed on the evening of the 11th, at Brownsville, Minnesota, by a man named Jake Riley. He killed his mother-in-law and sister-in-law, and attempted also to kill his father-in-law with a large bowie-knife. He made his escape. Great numbers have gone in pursuit. No cause is assigned for the terrible act except intoxication.

☞ The editor of the Democrat, who has been engaged in taking the census in Brazoria county, Texas, says that he found six planters whose landed interest in the State amounts to 360,658 acres of land; they together own 27,981 head of cattle, and last year raised 74,500 bushels of corn; the aggregate wealth of the six amounts to $2,200,323.

☞ Hon. Reverdy Johnson has written to the Douglas men of Philadelphia, denouncing the causes and motives which induced the late secession in Baltimore—declaring the course of the secessionists to be one of folly and madness, and exhorting the Douglas men to stick to their cause and their candidates.

☞ The Shrewsbury Camp Meeting on the line of the Northern Central Railroad, which is annually attended by large numbers of our citizens, will commence this season on Friday the 17th of August. The camp will be under the direction of Rev. Henry Slicer, presiding elder of the district.

☞ The two steamers which which left New York for Europe on Saturday, took a large amount of specie and many passengers. The Edinburgh had on freight $160,579 in specie, and 295 passengers for Liverpool. The Adriatic had 315 cabin passengers and $1,122,000 in specie for Havre and Southampton.

☞ Emigrants continue to pour into New York. The number of arrivals for the week ending the 11th inst., was 3,853, making a total of 53,191 since the commencement of the year, against 40,003 for a corresponding period in 1859.

☞ Not less than 50,000 guns were fired in the United States for the nomination of Douglas and Fitzpatrick. And then Fitz. declined without even forking over a dollar to pay for the powder.

☞ The Baltimore Camp Meeting will commence on "Tyson's Ground," Baltimore county, on Thursday, August 16th, and close on Saturday the 24th of August.

☞ John C. Breckinridge, the Institute candidate of the double-headed democracy, left Baltimore on Saturday for his home in the West.

☞ The Steamer North Star, from Aspinwall, arrived at New York on the 12th, bringing $1,500,000 in gold.

☞ Dunham & Franklin's shawl and table-cover mill was burnt at Newark, N. J., last week. Loss $100,000.

A Year of Plenty.

From all parts of the country we receive the most satisfactory accounts of the harvest. The extent of ground under cultivation is greater than in any previous year, and the husbandman's labor is promised a rich reward. The great cereal crops, wheat, rye, oats and corn, are generally in a flourishing condition; and even orchard fruits are more abundant than they have been for many past seasons. When, in connection with this liberal harvest, it is recollected that the season has been unpropitious in many parts Europe, and that especially in Great Britain a dearth is beginning to be apprehended, it will be seen that the prospects of a most prosperous season for our agricultural and commercial classes, and through them for all classes of the community, were never better than they are now.

Only For 1860.

Some of the leading friends of Mr Breckinridge are frank to say while claiming a larger vote than Mr. Douglas, that one has no more chance of election than the other. They do not pretend that it is a serious contest for the Presidency on either side. They are making the fight in good earnest, and with as much efficiency and zeal as if success was probable, but only for the purpose of securing the organization in 1864. That is the true object of the struggle now. They intend to terminate all internal divisions hereafter, by leaving Mr Douglas and his followers outride the so called national party, and purifying it in other respects.

Statistics of Public Lands.

The proceeds of the sales of public lands during the past year were less than in any year, with one exception, the year 1841, since the year 1833. The amount received last year was $1,756,667, and of this Arkansas yielded $467,894, Missouri $388,526, Louisiana $283,186, and California $127,666.

Military Encampment at York.

It appears by an order of Adjutant General Wilson, that York, Pa., has been decided upon as the place for the holding of the Pennsylvania State military encampment, from the 31st to the 8th of September next, both days inclusive.

The Oregon Election.

By the Overland Mail we learn that the official vote of Oregon elects Mr. Shiel, the Democratic candidate for Congress, by 78 votes. The Legislature is from 8 to 10 Opposition majority on joint ballot, which defeats Gen. Lane's return to the United States Senate.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.

A protection against counterfeits exists in the water-mark, "Holloway, New York and London," which appears in semi-transparent letters in every leaf of the book of directions. If this is not seen when the paper is held to the light the same is spurious.

In tribulation—Sundry office hunters who don't know whether Douglas or Breckenridge represents the true democracy. We suspect there is little of the article about either.

"The victory now is obtained,
She's gone to her dear Saviour to see;
Her toils are all fully ha[illegible]d,—
She's now where [illegible]ain cannot be.
Then let us forbear to complain,
That she has now gone from our sight;
We soon shall behold her again
With new and redoubled delight.
No sickness, or sorrow, or pain,
Shall ever disquiet her now;
For death to her spirit was gain,
Since Christ was her life when below
Her soul has now taken its flight,
To mansions of glory above;
To mingle with angels of light,
And dwell in the kingdom of love.
Sister thou hast left our number,
We no more shall see thy face;
Till in heaven we hope to meet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed. M. H.

EVERY SUMMER the demand for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters increases. It is found to be the only certain preservation of bodily strength during a period when the atmosphere is calculated to induce a feeling of lassitude and indigestion. The worst cases of Diarrhœa and Dysentery give way to its potent influence. Innumerable persons, who are now alive and well, must thank the discoverer of this preparation that they have not been swept away in the harvest of death. The bitters is recommended by the best physicians in the land. This is the best evidence of its real value, because as a general thing they will not speak a word in favor of advertised preparations. They have been compelled to acknowledge the claims of the Bitters upon the community. Sold by all druggists.

BALTIMORE MARKET.

July 19.—Flour.—Flour was again dull to-day, and nothing whatever was done in it. Super was freely offered at $5 25 ₱ bbl. for all descriptions, but there were no buyers at this, or indeed at any other price, and we quote it as closing dull and heavy at the above rate. New flour could not have been sold over $5, at that figure.—Extra as well as Super flour is very dull, and we quote it at 5 75@6 for Howard-street and Ohio, and $6 for standard City Mills, and 7@7 50 for fancy brands.

Rye Flour and Corn Meal.—We quote Rye Flour at $4, and Corn Meal at 3 37@3 50 per bbl., market extremely dull.

Grain.—There was a heavy receipt of Wheat at market to-day for the first time since the new crop began to come forward, the offerings at the Corn Exchange amounting to about 40,000 bushels, which is more than was received in all last week. There was a fair inquiry for it both from millers and shippers, and the greater part of the offerings were sold, but prices were very irregular, the same grades varying in price 10 to 15 cents ₱ bushel. Red sold at from 80 to 100 cents, for inferior, 110@118 cts. for good, and 120@125 cents for prime, and White at from 80 to 110 cents for inferior to ordinary; 115@120 cents for fair; 125@140 cents for good, and 145@155 cents for prime. Only a few parcels brought, however, the outside quotations, and all varieties closed dull and heavy.—Corn, of which there were about 8,500 bushels received, sold at 70@73 cents for white, and 62@66 cents, for yellow, but the market for it was dull. POSITIVELY

THE LAST NOTICE TO Delinquent Tax Payers!

HAVING already indulged the delinquent Tax Payers of Carroll County to an extent greatly injurious to my personal interests, and finding it extremely inconvenient to go through the County again, I have placed all Tax Bills, both State and County, which were due in 1854, '55, '56, and '57, (except those for Freedom District,) into the hands of John F. Diffenbaugh, who is authorized to collect and receipt for the same. Those who may find it more convenient to do so, can pay to Jacob Reese, Cashier, or Edwin F. Reese, at the Farmer's and Mechanic's Bank, Westminster, who are also authorized to receive and receipt for Taxes.

The collection of the Taxes due, as above stated, in Freedom District, I have reserved to myself, but will also receive and receipt for other Districts of the County, and I hereby notify all persons interested, that further indulgence cannot and will not be given. Necessity compels the measure—and if, in the collection of these Tax Bills, it should be found necessary to enforce the Law with all the rigor and energy of which it is capable, those who suffer by it must only blame themselves.
