THE Bull Moosers will nominate a full ticket in the presidential campaign and President Roosevelt is being urged to accept first position on the ticket.

IT WOULD not be a bad idea if the Goodnow commission would recommend a constitutional amendment providing for a session of the Maryland Legislature only once in four years. This would save the State some $200,000 every other two years.

MR. R. HYNS[illegible] ROYERS, one of our prominent yo[illegible] lawyers, is being strongly men[illegible]ed as the next Police Justice. His [illegible]election will be an eminently wise o[illegible]e because of his fitness for the positi[illegible], and his ability to discharge the du[illegible]es of the office.

HON. WIL[illegible]AM CABELL BRUCE, accompanied b[illegible] his secretary, Mr. Gorma[illegible] [illegible] Chestertown on Wednes[illegible]erest of his candidacy for [illegible] States Senate. Mr. Bruce [illegible]ber of leading Democrats, [illegible] encouragingly of his pros[illegible]

[illegible]d of death has smitten our [illegible] this week. Two of our [illegible]minent citizens, William E [illegible]d J. B. Burchinal, have been [illegible] their long home, and Mrs. [illegible]. Wright, a former resident of [illegible]n, has answered the summons [illegible]rnia.

[illegible]R 18 consecutive years of faith[illegible]l honorable service in the office of [illegible] of the circuit court, Mr. James T. [illegible] retired to private life on Tues[illegible] Mr. Dixon has made one of the [illegible]best officials the county has ever [illegible] He retires with the respect and [illegible]n of everyone, and his faithful [illegible] service has surely earned for him [illegible]py and contented private life.

[illegible] Baltim[illegible] City News quoted [illegible] on Monday evening [illegible] Hope H. Barroll, [illegible]RT last Saturday, [illegible]rroll dealt some [illegible] "But," con[illegible] "it seems that [illegible]nt in Kent [illegible] the ser[illegible]ervants [illegible] the commis[illegible] with the respect, esteem [illegible]e of every one and leave for [illegible]olican successors a legacy of [illegible]ent administration. Likewise [illegible]he Judges of the Orphans' Court, [illegible]e Register of Wills, the Clerk of the [illegible]ircuit Court, the Treasurer and Sheriff, Every official has done his full duty to his constituents and leave their respective offices with the satisfaction of having done their duty. We wish for their successors the very most successful administration. They are all men of the highest character and fitness, and they will no doubt administer the affairs of their offices in the interest of the people at large regardless of party. We look for the same care and economy in the administration of the county's affairs as has characterized the past administration.

THE Maryland Legislature should play fair with the interests of Baltimore city, and give the people of the city what they are demanding. Baltimore is the largest and most important asset in our body politic. Its development and progress, due to the sagacity and business ability of Mayor Preston and his administration, require an enlargement of its boundaries, and the Maryland Legislature should not allow politics to interfere with the development of the great city which should be a source of pride to every man in the State.

OF LAND, more or less, being the same land which was conveyed to the said Simon Grollman by Angeline S. Skirven by deed dated July 24, 1905, recorded in Liber J. T. D., No. 11, folio 495, except ten acres conveyed by said Grollman to Perry Barroll, et al.

Three-Story Dwelling

in good condition. HOUSE and LARGE OUTBUILDINGS sufficient for purposes of the farm. Also, by NEW AND UP-TO-DATE CANNING FACTORY on water's edge, with deep water at hand.

The soil is good, of medium quality and well-adapted to the growth of fruits and vegetables as well as grain and hay.
