Unusual Showing of Suits & Coats

Styles of Suits and Coats this season are very pleasing to the customer.

The Fur-Trimmed Garments are much in evidence and all are buttoned high to the neck. This makes the light weight, fine quality Suits, found exclusively at Jefferson's, all the more dedesirable. It is really a pleasure for us to sell these Suits and Coats made by STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER, Philadelphia, and we know it will be a satisfac- to own them. We freely guarantee them in every respect.

Our stock is quite complete now for the rush which this cooler weather will bring on and we invite you to inspect our line before buying elsewhere. Competent judges of material and workmanship tell us that our prices are much more attractive than city prices.

We have some specials that are being sold at much reduced prices. One lot of this season's Black Coats at $5.00 each.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

J. BURTON BURCHINAL.

Another of our prominent business men, Mr. J. Burton Burchinal, was called to his long home on Monday evening, death being due to a complication of diseases. The deceased was 68 years of age. Mr. Burchinal was one of the most prominent men in this county. He was a member of one of the county's oldest and most highly respected families, and for years he occupied a position in the business life of this community second to no man. For fifteen years he conducted one of the best dry goods and notion stores in the corner property now occupied by the Candy Kitchen and Mr. Arlington L. Sparks, and the reputation of his store extended beyond the confines of Kent county. For 15 years he conducted this business most successfully, retiring because of failing health. Of late years he has devoted his attention to different phases of business, for the past several years serving as Notary Public under Goverl nor Goldsborough. Mr. Burchinal was a life-long Republican, and was severa times a candidate for office. He was born in Odessa, Del., having moved first to Millington, thence to Chestertown. Mr. Burchinal was a man of strong convictions of right and wrong. He was also a man of equally strong prejudice, but with a heart so large that he never turned a deaf ear to the appeals of those in need. He was one of the most interesting men in this community, and possessed such a fund of knowledge of men and events that he was a most entertaining conversationalist. He has been a most familiar figure on our streets for years, and we shall miss his genial smile and cordial good humor. He leaves a widow, who before marriage was Miss Alice Lambert, and no one could have been more devoted to her husband than was Mrs. Burchinal in the last days of his illness, and two children, Mrs. Merrick Clements, of this town, and Mr. Joseph Burchinal, of Chicago. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Marion deK. Smith, of Chestertown, and Mrs. Elizabeth Hines, of Baltimore. Funeral services were held from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Clements, on Kent Circle, on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. The deceased was a great lover of flowers, and the casket was a mass of beautiful flowers, among which was a desgin from the Patriotic Order Sons of America, with which the deceased was connected. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Arthur M. Brown, John C. Davis, James Dunbracco, Geo. B. Westcott, J. H. Simpers and Philip G. Wilmer.

WILLIAM E. MOODY.

Mr. William E. Moody, one of the town's most prominent business men, died at his home on Washington avenue early Monday morning, of heart failure, aged 57 years. Mr. Moody had not been in good health for some time, but his condition had not become serious until recently. The deceased was born in Still Pond, but when quite young he removed to Chestertown and associated himself with the Hubbard Fertilizer Company as salesman. In 1895 he engaged in partnership with Mr. Walter U. Lusby for conducting the clothing business, and until a few years ago the firm conducted a most successful business and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of every one. Both gentlemen retired from active business several years ago, and until recently Mr. Moody had represented the International Tailoring Company in the made-to-measure clothing business only.

The deceased was a man of fine business ability. He was popular with a host of friends who regret most seriously his death. He leaves a widow and one son, Prof. W. Raymond Moody, who is in the employ of the Federal Government. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Ruth A. Cahall and Mrs. A. J. Hynson, of this town, and one brother, Mr. S. Q. Moody. Funeral services were held at his late residence on Washington avenue on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. The remains were taken to Baltimore on Wednesday morning for interment in Greenmount cemetery. Undertaker C. L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements. The pallbearers were: Messrs. W. B. Copper, Gilbert B. Taylor, Curtis E. Crane, Frank E. Duyer, Chas. W. Kibler and Samuel Hicks.

MRS. MARY L. HUEY.

Mrs. Mary L. Huey, wife of Mr. James A. Huey, died at her home in Seaford, Del., last Friday, of a complication of diseases, aged 59 years. The deceased was for 41 years a devoted and active member of the Methodist Protestant Church, she and her husband having united with the church in Salisbury together. After Mrs. Huey's health prevented her attendance upon the church services she studied the Sunday school lessons at her home and discussed them with the scholars and members of her church in a most intelligent manner. Mrs. Huey was a woman of the most beautiful christian character, and surrounded by her entire family, her passing to the great beyond was like the whisper of an evening vesper. She will be a great loss to her church and community. She leaves, besides her husband, four children—Mrs. A.H. Sloop, of Bellefonte, Pa.; W. Robert Huey, book-keeper in the Third National Bank, of Chestertown; Mr. I. Frank Huey, of Massey, and Miss Pauline Huey, of Seaford. Funeral services were held on Monday at Mt. Olivet M. P. Church, Seaford, conducted by Rev. C. O. Dryden, assisted by Revs. A. W. Mather and Mr. Bunting. Interment was made in Odd Fellows' cemetery, Seaford.

MRS. SAMUEL L. WRIGHT.

Mr. Walter Wright, of Chestertown, received a telegram Monday morning conveying the sad announcement of the death of his mother, Mrs. Samuel L. Wright, at Berkley, Cal., Sunday about midnight. Funeral was held on Tuesday and the body cremated. The deceased was well-known and greatly esteemed by a host of friends in this town, where for years she lived with her husband. She enjoyed the confidence and affection of everyone who knew her.

EMERSON N. HYLAND.

Emerson N. Hyland, infant son of Lewin B. Hyland and Mary E. Hyland, died at the home of his parents, Chestertown, Dec. 1, aged 2 years 6 months. Funeral Friday at 2 P. M., Dr. L. E. Barrett officiating. Interment in Chester cemetery. Charles L. Dodd, undertaker in charge.
