LOCAL MATTERS

A Happy and Prosperous New Year for all our friends, patrons and citizens is the wish of the TRANSCRIPT.

Lucky Number 150.—The coaster sled given by Medders & Co. was drawn by Master George Sutton, Locust Grove. The winning number being 150. Master George can now coast on the first snow of the new year.

Christmas Remembrances. — The TRANSCRIPT office force is very grateful to Wm. Medders & Co., the big Still Pond merchant, and Abe Cohen, the hustling Sandy Bottom merchant, for boxes of confections and oranges. These firms are ever mindful of the printer and his ink, and their immense trade is due in no small measure to their friendship for both. The TRANSCRIPT wishes them even a more prosperous year than they report for the one just closed.

Little Girl Falls Three Stories.—The little daughter of Mr. Geo. H. Camp fell from the third-story window of the home where she is visiting in Wilmington, and escaped fatal injury only by landing on her stomach in a pool of mud. The little girl and her brother were playing in the third story room, when the little boy playfully pushed his sister toward the open window, through which she fell to the ground. The little girl was rushed to a hospital, where she remained for several days, when she was sent home. No bones were broken, but the little girl was badly bruised and shocked by the fall.

New Books.—The following books which are by good authors and are well worth reading, have been added to the Chestertown Public Library: Religion and Medicine, Worcester, McComb and Coriat; When a Man Comes to Himself, Woodrow Wilson; Prudence of the Parsonage, Ethel Hueston; The Golden Road, L.M. Montgomery; Rose O'Paradise, Grace Miller White; Making Money, Owen Johnson; Emma McChesney and Co., Edna Ferber; Over Paradise Ridge, Maria Thompson Davies; Rags, Edith Delano; Tom Sawyer, Mark Twain; Huckeberry Finn, Mark Twain.

Thrown From Motorcycle.—Mr. Allie Elliott was quite painfully hurt on Christmas day by being thrown from his motorcycle while enroute from Baltimore to Chestertown to spend the day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Elliott. When just this side of Bohemia bridge in Cecil county, Mr. Elliott lost control of the motorcycle which slipped from under him on the icy road. He was thrown with great force and it was feared that he had broken a limb. He crawled to a nearby farm house and phoned to his parents here. Mr. Walter Lusby's automobile was sent for Mr. Elliott and he reached home. No bones were broken but he was badly bruised about the body and limbs.

Old Kris purchased five Victrolas at W. F. Newnam's music store on Christmas Eve, and had Mr. Newnam deliver them for him. He also ordered a large number of records from Mr. Newnam.

One of the handsomest and most unique Christmas trees in Chestertown was the gift of Old Kris to little Miss Ida Spielberger. The tree is beautifully decorated and lighted with different colored electric lights, and stands in the centre of a large garden in which there are all kinds of electric toys, and a trolley road with the block signals, etc. It is a splendid thing, and little Miss Ida is tickled with her prize.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

HINES—SACHS.

The first Jewish wedding ever solemnized in Chestertown took place on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Sachs on High street, when their accomplished daughter, Minnye, became the bride of Mr. Gabriel L. Hines, director of music at Swarthmore College, Pa. The spacious home was beautifully decorated with palms and carnations, with electric lighted arches in the rooms and halls which added very much of beauty to the impressive scene. Promptly at the appointed hour to the strains of the wedding marches from Mendelssohn and Lohengrin, skillfully rendered by Miss Mabel Toulson on the piano, accompanied by Mr. T. Kemp Bordley, violinist, the bridal party proceeded from the second floor of the home down the stairway to the parlor in the following order: Little Misses Helen and Gertrude Hines, of New York, daintily dressed in pink and white dresses with elaborate trimmings, as ribbon bearers; Mr. Wm. Sachs, best man, in evening dress; the groom, in conventional black, with high silk hat, on the arm of his mother, followed by his father; the bride's maid, Miss Etta Newman, of Baltimore, wearing a handsome gown of yellow flowered taffeta silk heavily trimmed in gold and carrying a huge bouquet of American Beauty roses; the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, followed by her mother and sister, Miss Sophie Sachs, as the bride's attendant. Under a canopy held by the four brothers of the bride in front of a beautiful arch from which was suspended a large pure white wedding bell, the beautiful Hebrew ceremony was solemnly and impressively performed by the Rev. Shuman, Rabbi of Eutaw Place Temple, Baltimore. The ceremony consisted of a chant in Hebrew, the breaking of bread and drinking of wine, a solemn address to the contracting parties in English, and the plighting of troth in Hebrew. It was beautiful in its simplicity and impressiveness.

The bride's gown was a beautiful creation of white crepe meteor trimmed in pearls and silver lace with tulle veile, caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a mammoth bouquet of orchids and lillies of the valley. Following the ceremony the bride and groom marched to the dining room where they were seated at the head of a table beautifully decorated with carnations and ferns, in the center of which was a large wedding cake, while the guests stood and partook of a fine collation, consisting of assorted ices and fancy cakes, Roman punch, block ice cream, chicken salad, Maryland biscuits, coffee, chocolate, etc., prepared by Caterer Fiedderman, of Baltimore, and served by Chestertown waiters. Many telegrams were received from friends from all parts of the country and were read during the reception. At 10.30 P. M. Mr. and Mrs. Hines left by auto for a honeymoon tour to Wilmington, New York, Niagara Falls and other points of interest. The presents were numerous and beautiful, consisting of silverware, cut glass, linens, ornaments, etc.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Hines, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Hines and two daughters, New York; Mr. and Mrs. H. Nieman, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Abe Nieman, Baltimore; Mr. Harris Sachs, Culpeper, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. I. Hollins, Millington, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Abe Cohen, Sandy Bottom, Md.; Mr. Dave Kauffman, Baltimore; Miss Etta Newman, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Abe Sachs and son, Seymour, Baltimore; Miss Helen Heller, Baltimore.

From Chestertown: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Parks Rasin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jarrell, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Toulson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sachs, Mr. and Mrs. Hydie Thompson, Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Simpers, Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rote, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gale Usilton, Mr. W. Balliett, Mr. Dan Hall, Mr. Kemp Bordley, Dr. H. L. Dodd, Mr. I. Heller, Mr. B. Heller, Mr. Wm. Miller, Mr. I. Sachs, Mrs. T. S. Bordley, Mrs. Lee Price, Mrs. M. L. Miller, Misses Marion Horn, Mabel Toulson, Rebecca Toulson, Ida Smith, Helen Boyd, Sue Dunbracco, Isabelle Beck, Nannie Bordley, Mamie Thompson, Flora Wheatley, Alice Rote, Alice Copper, Lillian Sachs, Sophia Sachs.
