Mr. and Mrs. Miller will dispose of their goods and remove to Philadelphia. We regret very much to lose Mr. and Mrs. Miller from the county. They are splendid citizens, and Mr. Miller has made a capable postmaster. His successor will be appointed shortly.

Asks $40,000 Damages.—Christ Alevizatos, proprietor of the Chestertown Candy Kitchen, and a friend, of Baltimore, who were injured last September when the big autobus of Graham, Clements & Sutton turned over on the road from Betterton to Chestertown, have docketed a suit against Messrs. Barroll, and Barroll & Gill are their attorneys.

New Year's Party.—Miss Hazel Crew gave a most delightful New Year's Party at her home in Betterton, to a few of her friends. The large plate glass window in Mr. Charles S. Smith's garage, on Cross street, was broken Sunday when an auto backed into it.

One of Col. John H. Evans' granaries at Rolph's Wharf burst last week and 500 bushels of corn went overboard. It has not yet been recovered.

The first of a series of dances to be given during the winter by the Washington College Cotillion Club, was held last night in the College Gymnasium.

We are in receipt of beautiful calendars from Mr. R. G. Nicholson, Mr. J. D. Bacchus and A. Cohen this week. They are among the prettiest we have.

Mr. J. Frank Leaverton has moved from the Jump-Wroth farm, near Fairlee, to Hill Top. Mr. Howard D. Reese moved to the farm left by Mr. Leaverton.

Lester Johnson, colored, was arrested one night this week by Officer Hyland for stealing a top blanket from a team standing on High street. He was given a hearing before Justice Kendall and held for court.

It was reported that Bill Waters had died in the House of Correction last week. Waters showed up in Chestertown on Wednesday night, coming by train, and appeared to be in his usual health and spirits.

Mr. George Faulkner, who for years has made his home in Kent county, has removed to the McWhorter farm in Queen Annes, which he will till next year. We regret very much to lose Mr. Faulkner from Kent.

Mr. Albaugh, who is visiting Mr. John S. Vandegrift, is exceedingly fond of walking. One day last week he made the trip to Church Hill and return afoot in four hours, and this week he did the distance to Kennedyville and return in 4½ hours. That's walking some, isn't it?

Mr. Frank V. Simpers and family have moved into the newly completed house of Mr. J. Raymond Simpers, on Queen street, while Mr. Louis Wood and family have moved into the house occupied by Mrs. R. D. Hynson and family. Mr. D. B. Ford and family have moved into the house on Queen street left vacant by Mr. Simpers.

The State Live Stock Commission has ordered a thorough disinfection of all farms in Rich Neck section of Queen Anne's county, as a result of the outbreak of anthrax among the live stock. The disease was discovered last July. The epidemic has been stamped out and the authorities are anxious to prevent any possibility of its further appearance.

Mr. James E. Weer's sale of personalty on Tuesday, in Kennedyville, was attended by a big crowd and Auctioneer John T. Jester got good prices for everything sold. One of the horses sold for $70, and the best automobile sold well. The house and lot, one of the most desirable properties in Kennedyville, was held up on a bid of $1,000.

The rural carriers from the Chestertown postoffice deserve great credit for the successful manner in which they have handled their mails during the week. After the first day's experience on Monday, Messrs. Weer, Willis and Kendall, each of whose route is over 30 miles in length, have made excellent time and delivered their mail satisfactorily. Carrier Fred S. Russell's route is nearly 26 miles in length, and he is making fine time on his route.

Mrs. C. M. V. Follett, representative of the National Florence Crittenton Mission, is in Chestertown. She is authorized to present the work, organize circles and receive subscriptions. This is a great undenominational missionary society for the uplifting of fallen girls, making away of escape through the open doors of Florence Crittenton homes. It also maintains departments where young unprotected girls are sheltered, and from which they are placed in positions.

Sheriff Hadaway, Deputy Perkins and Officer Hyland raided the crap shooters Saturday night, arresting 11. Among the number was Jim Davis, well-known in court circles for slipperiness in tight places. When the officers reached the jail, Jim had disappeared, simply "faded away."

A big auto moving van, filled with furniture and weighing eight tons, bound from Philadelphia to Denton, was halted at Chester bridge last Sunday by Keeper Wheat. The driver was compelled to unload and take his load in two wagons across the bridge and reload the van on the Queen Anne's side. It required four hours to transfer the goods. The State Road Law permits only a four-ton load to be carried over at a time, and don't say the driver wasn't mad. But Keeper Wheat did his duty.

WHAT MAKES PROSPERITY?

Professor William Howard Taft gave an amusing instance of Republican logic, or lack of it, when he remarked in an address at Chicago that "present prosperity is no reason for continuing the present national administration in power. The Wilson administration was not an agency in bringing on this prosperity." This is the line of reasoning usually followed by G. O. P. spellbinders. When the Republicans are in power and the country is prosperous, that prosperity is exclusively due to the authorities at Washington. If business troubles come, the Democrats are to blame for them. This argument does not apply to Democrats, however. When they are in power and the country is exceedingly prosperous, as at present, that prosperity is in spite of them, and they must receive no credit for it. In a word, all prosperity is Republican and all depression Democratic. It is the simplest thing in the world when you once grasp it.

The weak point in this theory is that there is nothing in the history of the United States during the last half century to support it. During that time there have been three tremendous financial panics here—more than any other country in the world has had—and they all came under Republican tariffs. The panics of 1873, under Grant, and 1907—under Roosevelt, were exceptionally severe. That of 1893 came under the McKinley tariff of uniamented memory.

As a matter of fact, the Wilson Administration is entitled to a great deal of credit for the present exuberant prosperity. It gave the country a sound financial system, which has been of inestimable value in enabling it to meet the crisis caused by the European war. By moderate legislation it has put an end to the Trust agitation, which so long disturbed the nation, and by a careful revision of the tariff it has put all parts of the country upon an equality. The Administration has fostered American shipping, which is now more numerous than ever, and in many other ways it has given aid to the American business man.

The old G. O. P. yarn that the sun shines only for Republicans, and that nature gives bountiful crops only when high tariffs prevail, is an argument fit only for idiots. Mr. Taft ought to be above such nonsense. His occasional reversion to it shows that he is still narrowly partisan when the painful memories of 1912 are evoked.—Philadelphia Record.
