F. JEFFERSON & BRO.

TO OUR PATRONS!

At this season of the year fellowship has its deserved place among all people.

The employees and owners of this store wish to express their gratitude to their good friends who have made it possible for us to progress year after year, in which progress we hope you have shared.

May we have an ever increasing friendship to our lasting good.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year is our wish for you.

Respectfully yours,

F. Jefferson & Bro.

A FEW SUGGESTIONS FOR THE NEW YEAR!

Handkerchiefs Plain and Fancy—Prices 5c to $1.50 a piece. Special box lots. Initial Handkerchiefs for Men, Women and Children. Our assortments were never larger in Linen, Lawn, Crepe de Chine and Silk.

Coats and Suits The mother or daughter would be delighted to receive a nice Coat or Suit. Come in and select a nice one. We have that kind.

Underwear and Hosiery These are good fill-in gifts that are always appreciated. The family gifts usually include these articles, and a pair of Silk Hose has become one of the standard gifts.

Shoes and House Slippers We have an excellent line of Horse Slippers—Felt, trimmed with ribbon or fur, at $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50. Bondoir Slippers, in all colors, with or without heel.

A pair of Shoes for Xmas in another family gift. By all means give a pair of dependable quality. We sell that kind.

Kimonas A new lot of Crepe and Flannellette Kimonas have just arrived, and their variegated colors make them attractive and beautiful. All sizes. 50c and $1.25 each.

Fancy Goods, Doilies, Etc. It is impossible to tell you here what a variety of Fancy Goods we have. They include Doilies, Scarfs, Shams, Tray Covers, Work Bags, Etc., Etc.

Table Linens and Napkins If you are puzzled about what to give, make it Table Linen or Napkins, or both. The designs are exclusive and lined the best quality.

Cases and Hand-Bags You can greatly please the man by giving him a Suit Case or Travelling Bag. We have TRUNKS, too. We have fine selections in this department.

Blankets and Quilts No better gift can be given than Blankets and Quilts, and defy competition in these goods.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

MR. J. FRANK BARWICK.

Mr. J. Frank Barwick, one of the best known and most prominent citizens of Sudlersville, died at the Wilmington Hospital on Wednesday night of last week after an operation for gland trouble, aged 68 years. Mr. Barwick was born near Ingleside, on October 17th, 1847. He was educated at the public school at Sudlersville, and was the proprietor of the Sudlersville Hotel for thirty-four years, retiring a few years ago. In politics Mr. Barwick was an ardent Republican and filled the position of election supervisor under Gov. Lowndes and two years later became chairman of the County Republican State Central Committee. Mr. Barwick was a son of the late Wm. A. and Rebecca Barwick. He is survived by the following children: J. S. Barwick, Wm. A. Barwick and J. Walters Paynter, all of Sudlersville. The funeral took place from the home of his daughter, in Sudlersville, on Saturday morning, Rev. Dr. Corkran, of the M. E. Church, officiating, the interment in the Sudlersville cemetery.

MISS MARTHA R. COLEMAN.

Miss Martha R. Coleman, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Coleman, of Rock Hall, died Saturday, Jan. 1st, at the home of her sister, in Baltimore, where she, with her parents, had gone to spend the winter, age 19 years, 6 months and 19 days. The deceased had a very amiable disposition, thus gaining a host of friends who will miss her greatly.

A blessed hope to mourners given—
The hope of union sweet in Heaven;
No more to part, no more to weep;
No more to sleep death's silence sleep.

The body was brought to Rock Hall Tuesday. Funeral services were held at the Seventh-day Adventist Church by the pastor, S. T. Shadel. The bearers were six young ladies, members of her class in the Young People's Missionary Volunteer Society of the Rock Hall Seventh-day Adventist Church—Mamie Hartman, Hazel Shadel, Grace Hyland, Lillia Coleman, Avis Carter and Jessie Sewell.

MR. JOHN G. ROLAND.

The sudden death of Mr. John G. Roland, formerly of Chestertown, occurred in Wilmington Friday evening, of heart failure. It is said his sudden death was brought about by the excessive use of cigarettes. He was 51 years of age. Mr. Roland had been making his home in Queen Annes, farming with Mr. Bennett until a few months ago, when the Bennett family moved to Wilmington, Mr. Roland going with them and securing a position there. The funeral was held Sunday morning from Christ Meth. Prot Church, interment in St. Paul's, Dr. L. E. Barrett, officiating. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. F. G. Usilton, George Burk, Walter Lusby and J. H. Denny. Undertaker Dodd had charge of funeral.

MRS. AMANDA COURSEY.

Mrs Amanda Coursey, of Centreville, died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Miss Rose T. Coursey, in Jacksonville, Fla., after an illness of 10 weeks. Mrs. Coursey was born in Caroline county, Md., in 1839. She was the daughter of James and Purnelia Clerdenmive Pipper, and the widow of Samuel W. Coursey, of Queen Annes county. She is survived by two children—Miss Coursey, supervisor of schools of Jacksonville, and S. Chester Coursey, of Centreville, one sister, Mrs. Stephen R. Doune, of Queen Annes county, and four brothers, Thomas Pippin, of New York; Levi Pippin, Church Hill, Md., and James and Joel Pippin, Centreville.

MISS IDA SULIVAN.

Miss Ida Sullivan, aged 60 years, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Walls on Chesterfield avenue, Centreville, Dec. 26, at 11 o'clock, after an illness of two hours of acute Bright's disease. She had been in poor health for several months. The deceased was a daughter of the late Samuel E. Sullivan, of this county, who was first a printer and later one of the editors of the CHESTERTOWN TRANSCRIPT. He died 34 years ago. Funeral services were held at her late home on the following Tuesday morning, Rev. J. R. Bicking, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, officiating. Interment was in Chesterfield cemetery.

MRS. ROSE STRONG.

Mrs. Rose Strong, widow of the late Edgar Strong, of the Fifth District, died at Mercy hospital, Baltimore, between 10 and 11 o'clock yesterday morning, Jan. 7, 1916. Mrs. Strong was taken sick last summer, and gradually grew worse until the fall when her condition became alarming, and she went to the hospital in Baltimore for treatment. For a time she improved, but during the past week her condition became critical. She leaves eleven children and several grandchildren. At the hour of going to press no funeral arrangements had been made.

MISS ANGELINE SMITH.

Miss Angeline Smith died at her home near Edesville, on Friday, December 31, 1915. She had been sick about six weeks. She was 65 years of age and leaves seven brothers: Benjamin, Joel H., George W., Lewis F., Eugene R., Percival C. and Adam U. Smith; and three sisters, Ellen C., Agnes M., and Martha H. Smith, all of Kent, except Benjamin Smith, who lives in Pennsylvania. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon, with interment at St. Paul's, Rev. Mr. Johnson, officiating. The bearers were five brothers and a cousin. Casey Bros., undertakers.

MR. OLIVER H. CLEAVER.

Mr. Oliver H. Cleaver died at his home, the "Roeder" farm, near Turner's Creek, Monday evening, of pneumonia, aged 54. He leaves a wife, who was, before marriage, Mattie Webb, and three daughters, Mrs. M. Smith and Mable and Florence Cleaver. The funeral was held Thursday, interment in Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.
