TRIBUTE TO THE LATE JUDGE WICKES.

Following will be found the resolutions on the death of the late Judge Joseph A. Wickes, prepared by the committee whose names are subscribed, and which were presented and adopted by the court at Elkton at the memorial session on December 13:

IN MEMORIAM.

The Honorable Joseph A. Wickes, who was an Associate Judge of the Second Judicial Circuit, and who presided over this court for a period of thirty years, departed this life on the 18th day of May, 1915, in the 89th year of his age.

He was a son of Joseph Wickes and Elizabeth Chambers Wickes, who was a sister of Judge Ezekiel F. Chambers, who was born at Chestertown, Kent county, Md., on the 27th day of Sept., 1826. He was educated at Washington College, in Chestertown, and at Princeton College, in the State of New Jersey.

After his graduation he studied medicine and engaged in the practice of that profession for a number of years. Afterwards he studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1855, when he was about 29 years of age.

He was also a member of the Constitutional Convention in 1867, and was, in the same year, elected Associate Judge of this Circuit, and at the expiration of his term was re-elected for another term of fifteen years.

His distinguished service as a jurist is worthy of more than passing notice, and we, the members of the Cecil County Bar Association, feel that it is pre-eminently proper that some record of his eminent services, not only to the people of this circuit but to the whole State, should be made a matter of record in order that our appreciation of his life and character should be perpetuated by placing upon the records of this court this memorial.

We who had the privilege of practicing law and were brought into contact with him for a period of thirty years and knew him well, unhesitatingly say that he was probably the peer of any nisi prius judge in the State; conscientious, indefatigable in the search for the truth, imbued with a strong desire to do justice in each case that came before him, learned in all the branches of his profession, he was a model judge and an honor to the judiciary of Maryland.

The records of this court, as well as of other courts in this Circuit, stand as testimonials to the wisdom and the spirit of justice that distinguished him as a learned and able judge, and by reference to the reported cases in the Court of Appeals, it will be found that few, very few, of his decisions have been reversed by that learned court.

He was a man of kindly impulses, and if he discovered that he, in any of his rulings on either the law or the evidence in a case, had committed an error, he had the manliness to acknowledge the same by reversing himself.

We believe that the last case in which he presided in this court was the trial of James Harry Truss, for the murder of Captain Camp, at the old Dry Dock, in Chesapeake City, in this county. He was the only judge on the Bench and the defendant elected to be tried before him rather than submit his case to a jury. During that portracted case he listened attentively to the testimony offered, and after a most careful review of the evidence, found a verdict of murder in the first degree.

Those who witnessed that trial were impressed with the kindness of heart displayed by this eminent judge, by the painstaking care that he exercised under the consciousness that a human life depended upon his conclusion, and by the fortitude with which he discharged his solemn duty to the State in the verdict of guilty he pronounced.

Therefore, be it Resolved, That while Judge Wickes had been from the Bench for upwards of eighteen years before his death, it was with deep regret and sorrow that we learned of his passing away.

Resolved, That while he lived far beyond the years usually allotted to man, and that while most of his contemporaries have passed away, yet we who knew him in the prime and vigor of his manhood, when he was at his best, regret his demise and remember with pleasure that when he sat as judge on this Bench he administered with even handed justice the laws of this State, and that, therefore, his eminent services should not be forgotten.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread at length upon the minutes of this court and an engrossed copy thereof be forwarded by the Clerk to the family of the deceased, and, as a further mark of respect to his memory, that this court now adjourn.

WILLIAM S. EVANS,
W. T. WARBURTON,
R. C. THACKERY.

Grange Notes.

Fairlee Grange held its last special meeting for 1915 on Wednesday, Dec. 29. Notwithstanding the downpour of rain until long past noon, there was a good attendance at the business meeting before supper. Committee to purchase flag—Miss Ida C. Crew, reported having bought the beautiful flag for the Grange at the Exposition in San Francisco. Appropriate remarks on the flag were made by Mr. J. T. Anthony.

Miss Ida Crew also reported on the banner made of the premium ribbons won by Fairlee Grange at the Horticultural Show in 1914. 118 ribbons formed into a banner and hung from a staff presents a very artistic appearance and is a suitable memento of the laurels won by the Grange during Maryland week.

After supper we found the hall well filled with parents and children to enjoy the evening program, which consisted of song, "Silent Night," by the Grange, quartette by the Usilton family and Mrs. Hudson, duet by the Misses Grace Anderson and Lillian Barnes, reading of the "Garner" by Worthy Ceres, Mrs. Frank Crow, and a Christmas play, songs and recitations by the children, ending with a visit from Santa Claus with his usual treat for the children. The children's exercises were arranged by the Misses Linda Morris and Mary Richardson. The Worthy Lecturer, Mrs. T. E. W. Crew, announced her plans for the children's exhibition of their products next October on Harvest Home Day. Prizes are offered on the following articles: For girls, age limit 14 years, loaf of bread and plain sewing. For girls, age limit 15 years, display canned goods and display of dahlias. For boys, age limit 15 years, 10 ears corn and display of garden vegetables. This contest is opened to the children of Fairlee Grange members in good standing. Anyone wishing to add to the prizes as announced in the Grange will please confer with Mrs. Crew.

The singing school is progressing nicely under the leadership of Mrs. Tilghman Hudson, and its influences will be felt in the coming years in the singing of all the churches in the Grange community.

On Wednesday, Jan. 5th, six of the new officers for 1916 were installed by Pomona Master, Mr. W. G. Smyth, and are as follows: Worthy Master, M. P. Lee, Overseer, E. J. Watson; Lecturer, Mrs. E. A. Corey; Steward, Tilghman Hudson; Gate-keeper, Harry Lee, Lady Assistant Steward, Mrs. E. J. Watson; Committee on Legislation, Messrs. W. G. Smyth and Harry Willis.

DON'T MISTAKE THE CAUSE.

Many Chestertown People Have Kidney Trouble and Do Not Know It.

Do you have backache?
Are you tired and worn out?
Feel dizzy, nervous and depressed?
Are the kidney secretions irregular?
Highly colored; contain sediment?
Likely your kidneys are at fault?
Weak kidneys give warning of distress.
Heed the warning; don't delay—
Use a tested kidney remedy.
Read this Chestertown testimony.

Mrs. Albert Rawleigh, Cannon St., Chestertown, says: "One of my family suffered from kidney troulbe. The kidney secretions contained sediment and the passages were too frequent. There were pains through the back and kidneys and at times dizzy spells. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Toulson's Drug Store, made the patient well."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Rawleigh recommends. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
