ROBERT F. DUER, of Somerset, and Josiah Kerr, of Dorchester county, have announced their candidacies for the Republican nomination for Congress in the First Congressional District. Looks like an interesting fight in the primaries.

HENRY WILLIAMS, one of the leading Democrats and business men in Baltimore city, died on Monday, aged 76. Mr. Williams was a strong candidate for Governor when Governor Crothers was nominated in 1907. He was always active in politics.

WHEN you read of Villa running away from Uncle Sam's soldier boys, just remember that he is the tool of the American jingoists who are trying to force this country into war with Mexico, and when you read of another turn in the German diplomatic relations just remember that it is these same jingoists trying to force this country into the European war, and when all is done and said it will be found that Republican national politicians are behind these jingoists in an effort to create a campaign issue.

FROM every part of the country come statements of unprecedented prosperity. The National Bankers' Convention in Baltimore last week declared it; one of the country's greatest advertising experts in an address in Baltimore last week said that he had made a tour of all sections of the country, and business conditions never were so good, and the financial statements in Republican Newspapers indicate unprecedented prosperity, and yet Roosevelt, Lodge and Root, as well as other leading Republicans, in a desperate effort to find a campaign issue are crying "Action," "War," "give us something heroic," and endeavoring to inflame the minds of the people with all kinds of war talk. Is that the kind of an administration the people of this country want?

IT HAS taken the Democratic administration nearly four years to undo the mischief which the Republican party has caused in the fifty years preceding Wilson's election, and that is the reason the Republican jingoists are crying that the Democrats have made a mess of things. But listen! Heroic Teddy said in 1912 that the Taft administration has been the worst that ever happened, and Teddy tore the Republican party to pieces in 1912 because it refused to do the very thing that the Wilson administration has been doing these three years past. The Republican party split on the Payne-Alrich tariff, and three or four million voters left the party because of th[illegible]onal grab game, and these ver[illegible]ts that forced the Payne-Aldrich tariff on the people are the very people who are now tooting heroic Teddy for President.

BRYAN FOR WILSON.

Announces at Lincoln, His Home Town, That He Favors Him for President.

William J. Bryan in a speech at Lincoln, Neb., Monday night discussed national questions and his relations with President Wilson whose renomination, he declared, he favored. There would be, he said, no other candidate at the St. Louis convention.

"I am a candidate for delegate at large to that convention," said Mr. Bryan, "but if any of my friends who have suddenly become friends of Woodrow Wilson can serve him better than myself, let them send someone else to the convention.

"If Woodrow Wilson owes me anything he has more than paid it back by giving himself to the nation as president instead of Roosevelt."

CAUSE FOR REJOICING.

The people of Kent county have cause to rejoice because of the evidence of a union of the two factions of the Democratic party, as noted elsewhere in this issue. Immediately following the last election the TRANSCRIPT began an editorial campaign to create public sentiment in favor of such a cause. We are very much gratified to know that our efforts have resulted in something tangible, and that there are very strong indications that the two factions will be found more closely allied in the future, and that when the next local election comes, they will be found absolutely united. This is inevitable if the Democratic party is to succeed in the future, for a burning primary fight will make almost certain the defeat of the successful faction, because of the present condition of our registration books as well as the feeling which such a contest has engendered in the past.

HOW IS THIS, TEDDY?

President Wilson's policy towards Germany has had the very salutary effect of causing the Kaiser to dismiss Grand Admiral Von Tirpitz, and to declare himself and his government friendly to the United States. Tirpitz is the man who has forced the deadly German submarine war policy, and his resignation shows plainly where the Kaiser stands. He is with that faction of his government which prefers friendly relations with the United States. The resignation of Tirpitz makes certain the fact that there is less danger of a break between this country and Germany than at any other time since the sinking of the Lusitania. And all this has been brought about by the masterly handling of a delicate situation by the greatest president since Lincoln. Look out, Teddy, President Wilson will cora that German-American vote, while you and Lodge and Root are bawling your heads off for "Action! Action! Action!" "Give us something heroic!" Wilson is giving it to you all right.

GETTING TOGETHER.

Democratic Factions in Kent Unite for a Divided Delegation to State Convention Pledged to Woodrow Wilson for President.

Acting upon the suggestions of the TRANSCRIPT that both factions of the Democratic party in Kent cease their wrangling and get together for the good of the party, numerous conferences have been quietly but effectively held during the past two months by the leaders of each faction, looking to the adoption of a plan whereby a primary contest for delegates to the State Convention could be avoided, and a delegation selected absolutely and unequivocally pledged to the nomination of Woodrow Wilson for President. We are very glad to state that these conferences have born fruit, as is evidenced by the following announcement of the candidacy of Messrs. W. Bradford Copper, Chas. L. Dodd and John P. Ahern for delegates to the State Convention who will use their efforts to elect delegates to the National Convention absolutely pledged to President Wilson's nomination:

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF KENT COUNTY:

We desire to announce to the Democrats of Kent county that we are unanimously in favor of the re-nomination of Woodrow Wilson. If elected as delegates from Kent county to the State Democratic Convention we will do all that we can to secure his endorsement by the democracy of Maryland in convention assembled.

We further pledge ourselves that we will use all our influence and all honorable means to secure the election of delegates from Maryland to the National Democratic Convention to be held in St. Louis who shall be instructed to vote for the re-nomination of Woodrow Wilson as President of the United States and to continue to vote for him as long as his name is before the convention.

W. B. COPPER,
CHARLES L. DODD,
JOHN P. AHERN.

The action of the leaders of the two factions of the party in thus agreeing upon such representative men for delegates is an omen of the future which in our judgment means a united party in local politics. The agreement is very acceptable to both factions. The Anti-Organization above all things desired a delegation unquestionably pledged to the renomination of President Wilson. This they have secured and besides they get Mr. W. Bradford Copper, one of the strongest men in the county and State, as a delegate to the State Convention. On the other hand the Organization, controlling the State Central Committee and party machinery, is given two delegates whose fitness and acceptability no one can dispute, each of whom is pledged to the renomination of the President in the strongest terms. In our judgment this is a splendid arrangement, and our only hope is that it will lead to a more thorough union of the two factions in the next local election, which will result in the selection of a divided ticket thus avoiding an expensive and useless primary contest.

VETOES ROAD BILL.

Governor Harrington, on Monday night vetoed the Urie road bill, which provided for the repeal of the present law and the return to the old county commissioner supervision. Immediately upon the concurrence by the Senate in the Governor's veto, Senator Brown introduced another bill which provides for the appointment of a road engineer upon the recommendation of the Roads Commission to the county commissioners. Such a bill, we understand, Governor Harrington has indicated he will sign. A delegation composed of Messrs. Wm. W. Beck, Harry C. Willis, S Scott Beck, Wm. B. Usilton, John P. Ahern and Isaac Gibbs, Sr., waited upon Governor Harrington early last week and urged him to veto the Urie bill. It is understood, however, that the Governor has expressed a willingness to sign the second bill introduced by Senator Brown. Just why such a bill was not introduced at first is not perfectly clear. There was no sentiment in Kent county for a return to the old commissioner plan, but there is a very strong and powerful sentiment among the great majority of the tax-payers for the appointment of a road engineer of competency by the county commissioners. This is what Senator Brown and the delegates in the House will endeavor to secure.

THE DEMOCRATIC HOPE.

Colonel Roosevelt in his latest statement declaring that he does not wish the Republican nomination for the Presidency, but that there is no other man for it save himself, and that if the country is "heroic" it will take him, has something to say about the "infamy" shown and practiced by the administration.

The "infamy" which this ex-president of the United States so tastefully attributed to the President of the United States consists, as he shows further along in his latest diatribe, in lack of "action," that is to say, in failing to go to war with Germany.

The Roosevelt issue is becoming clearer. All who believe that peace with honor is "infamy" will hope to see the third-term seeker a stampede candidate at Chicago.—Boston Post.

Experience of Mrs. I. H. Huhn, Near Golts.

Mrs. I. H. Huhn, who resides near Golts, has had an experience which is parallel with that suffered by many farmers' wives. She shipped 266 pounds of geese, ducks and turkeys to a commission merchant named Clarence C. Cooper, in Chester, Pa., about Christmas last. Cooper admits he sold them for $54.10. But before Mrs. Huhn secured any admission or settlement of any kind, she had to employ an attorney in Chestertown and a second lawyer in Chester, Pa. It is well for the wives of our farmers to take note of Mrs. Huhn's experience and expose the the names of commission merchants who do not remit promptly. Cooper, in Chester, has not yet settled Mrs. Huhn's bill, although he admits he sold her poultry for $54.10.

Maryland Legislature.

Senator Frick on Monday night introduced a bill striking out of the State Tax Commission law that part thereof which provides that supervisors of assessments in the counties shall be appointed from a list of five names submitted to the commission by the County Commissioners of the respective counties. The passage of the Frick bill will make the supervisors of assessment appointable directly by the Tax Commission. In this way it will be able to select the men it feels will best perform the duties of the office instead of having to take a choice of the nominees of the County Commissioners.

The Senate Committee on Judicial Proceedings last week reported favorably the Home Rule Bill prepared by Attorney-General Ritchie and introduced by Senator Ogden. A few amendments were recommended, the most important of which being one which restricts the counties from passing game laws which conflict with those enacted by the State. The bill defines the powers of the counties in the matter of local legislation and constitutes a charter which, when adopted by popular vote, will enable the county desiring to take advantage of the offer to have local self-government and make effective the home rule amendment passed at the last election.

The Haman Oyster Culture Bill was introduced last week by Senator Archer and referred to the committee on Chesapeake Bay and Tributaries. The essential difference between the present Shepherd law and the Haman bill lies in the definition of a barren bottom and a natural bar. Both the present law and the bill declare for the encouragement of barren bottom leasing. Under the Shepherd law, passed after a heated battle at the last session of the Legislature, lessees of barren bottoms are restricted in the harvesting and cultivating of their crops to the archaic methods of a past generation, methods that are practical to retard depletion of natural bars, but that put unnecessary and costly restriction on lessees of barren bottoms. Testimony given by oystermen in court is the basis for the defition of natural oyster bars under the Shepherd law; under the Haman bill, the definition is that of the charts made by the United States and the State under the original so-called Haman law passed in 1906. The Haman bill proposes to do away with the so-called neutral zones around natural oyster bars and to increase rentals for the first two years from $1 to $2 per acre per year; for the third year to $3 and a similar increase annually to $5, which is the maximum.

The bill to abolish continuing appropriations to colleges, charitable institutions, etc., has passed both Houses and is ready for the Governor's signature.

The bill to enable the State to borrow $1,500,000 to provide for the treasury deficit has also passed both Houses and is ready to go to the Governor.

The Budget bill, the first of the Democratic pledges to be received has passed both Houses of the Legislature, and now goes to the Governor who will sign it.

The Dempsey bill to allow those who lease oyster bottoms from the State to dredge with power boats was beaten in the House by a vote of 60 to 33.

The Maryland Legislature will close on Monday, April 3, at midnight.

Another Question on Behalf of

W. CABELL BRUCE,

Democratic Candidate for United States Senate.

Is not W. Cabell Bruce, Democratic Candidate for the United States Senate, warranted in saying that in proposing Government Ownership of the telephone Davis J. Lewis is merely tendering to the Maryland farmer another gold brick like that tendered to him by the Greenback Movement, or by the Populist Movement for the issuance of treasury money directly to the people?

The proposition of Mr. Lewis is that, if the Government were to operate the telephone in this country through the agency of its Postoffice Department, the telephone would be a more abundant and efficient, and a cheaper instrument than it now is under private management.

A comparison between telephone conditions in this country and telephone conditions in Great Britain, France, Germany, Russia, Austria, Hungary, Italy and Spain—all countries in which the telephone in owned and operated by the Government—shows the utterly visionary nature of the idea.

AS TO ABUNDANCE

So pinched is the telephone development in these foreign countries, as compared with our own that the comparison need not be between the United States and them, but only between American cities and them. THERE ARE ABOUT AS MANY TELEPHONES IN NEW YORK CITY AND CHICAGO AS IN THE WHOLE OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRALAND; THERE ARE MORE TELEPHONES IN CHICAGO THAN IN ALL FRANCE; MORE IN PHILADELPHIA THAN IN ALL OF RUSSIA; MORE IN BOSTON THAN IN ALL AUSTRIA; MORE IN LOS ANGELES THAN IN ALL ITALY; MORE IN PITTSBURGH THAN IN ALL HUNGARY. The United States have only one-fifth of the population of Europe; it has almost two and a half times as many telephones. There are more telephones in New York city than in London, Paris and Berlin combined; about as many as in all France. While the United States have nine telephones per 100 inhabitants, Great Britain has only one and a half, Germany only two, the Netherlands only two, Switzerland only two and France only four-sixths of one. THE UNITED STATES GAINED IN 1913 NEARLY AS MANY STATIONS AS GREAT BRITAIN HAD IN 1914 IN HER ENTIRE TELEPHONE SYSTEM.

But most noteworthy of all is the hopelessly limited development of the telephone in rural communities abroad. The farmer to whom Mr. Lewis is appealing will probably think a second time when he is told that private management of the telephone in the United States is the only agency that has ever in any substantial sense realized the dream of connecting every farmhouse with the city. About 60% of our telephone develepment is found in exchanges of 300 stations or less. Abroad, the average rural development of the telephone represents but 21.2% of the corresponding urban development. THERE ARE, OR WERE A SHORT TIME AGO, ONLY 2,300 FARMERS' TELEPHONES IN GREAT BRITIAN AND IRELAND; IN THE UNITED STATES THERE ARE SOME 3,000,000. There is practically a telephone for every farmhouse in the United States, and there is practically one for every farmhouse in Kansas.

AS TO EFFICIENCY

As respects efficiency, foreign telephone conditions would to an American be simply intolerable. In this country telephone service is continuous throughout the 24 hours, including Sundays and holidays. In Europe and Australia only a small percentage of the stations are open the 24 hours, and many are closed on Sundays and holidays.

Turn to Switzerland and New Zealand—the two Utopias which most frequently rise up before the deluded vision of Mr. Lewis when he is out on a course of chartless aberration. In SWITZERLAND 96% OF THE EXCHANGES CLOSE AT 9 O'CLOCK P. M.; and 46% operate from 7 A. M. to noon, then close until 2 for lunch, then operate until 6 P. M., then close until 8 P. M. for supper, and then operate until 8.30 P. M., when they shut up for the night. IN NEW ZEALAND, WHERE POLITICAL FANTASIES LIKE THOSE OF MR. LEWIS HAVE LOADED ITS PEOPLE WITH A DEBT OF ABOUT $400 PER CAPITA, 84% OF THE TELEPHONE EXCHANGES ARE NOT OPEN ON SUNDAYS, 80% ARE NOT OPEN ON HOLIDAYS, AND 60% ARE OPEN ON WEEK DAYS ONLY FROM 9 A. M. TO 5 P. M.

Abroad toll service is "urgent" or "ordinary." If you choose the "urgent," you get at a high rate a service no better than ours. If you choose the "ordinary," you are given an "assignment," and are told that you can talk with your friend, say at 10 o'clock; perhaps that day, or perhaps not until the next day, if there are too many assignments ahead of you. At 10 the connection is made for you. If you are not on hand you are charged, and, if you are on hand, you talk three minutes. If you try to talk any longer, you are cut off, and cannot talk again until your turn comes around again. When you are connected up for a long-distance call even to nearby points, you are charged whether you actually reach the person you wish or not.

ABROAD—IN ENGLAND, GERMANY, FRANCE, EVERYWHERE—AMERICAN TELEPHONE SERVICE IS ADMITTED TO BE THE MOST EFFICIENT IN THE WORLD.

AS RESPECTS CHEAPNESS

If the telephone service abroad is of poor quality and conducted at a loss (as it is) why should an American ask whether it is cheaper than ours? IN REALITY IT IS NOT. THOUGH WAGES ABROAD ARE FROM 2 TO 2½ TIMES LOWER THAN THEY ARE IN THIS COUNTRY. On a clearly average basis—such as for instance a comparison of gross earnings per telephone (exchange service) European charges for telephone service in actual money value are considerably in excess of the corresponding American charges. It would be easy to mention many American cities in which telephone rates are lower than in foreign cities, in the same telephone scale, such as St. Paul in conparison with Budapest, San Antonio in comparison with The Hague, Omaha in cmparison with Tokio, Rochester in comparison with Amsterdam, St. Joseph in comparison with Rotterdam, etc.

79% of the subscribers in New York, 90% of those in Philadelpha, and 91% of those in Chicago pay less than the sole Paris rate of $77.20 (to which is added and extra charge of $20 for the instrument.)

THE MORAL OF ALL THIS, OF COURSE IS THAT THE TELEPHONE IS MORE ABUNDANT AND EFFICIENT AND NOT REALLY DEARER (DESPITE THE VAST DIFFERENCE IN WAGES) IN THIS COUNTY THAN IN EUROPE BECAUSE THE TELEPHONE IS OPERATED HERE BY THE VITALIZING, ALERT AND FAR-SEEING AGENCIES OF PRIVATE MANAGEMENT. REGULATED BY THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION AND PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSIONS, AND THE TELEPHONE ABROAD IS OPERATED BY THE SLUMBROUS ROUTINE AND SHORT-SIGHTED AGENCIES OF BUREAUCRATIC RED TAPE.

The one country in Europe where the private ownership of the telephone is still predominant is Denmark, and Denmark has twice as many telephones per 100 inhabitants as even Germany.

Don't Feed Your Crops Into Idle Surplus Horses

You can't turn a switch and stop a horse eating, but you can a tractor.

You can farm cheaper by selling your extra horses that you only keep to help out on the heavy work and getting an Avery tractor to take their place.

Your can also raise bigger crops by Tractor Farming. Few farmers realize how much more power they need. You need more power for plowing deeper, for more discing and harrowing, for harvesting and for doing all your work quicker at just the right time.

Tractor Farming is the way to raise bigger crops, save expense, and have easier work.

Get All The Facts About Tractor Farming With "One Man" Outfits

More acres are plowed each year by Avery Tractors and Plows than by any other make. They are a proven success, not at experiment. They are also leaders in design and construction. The motors have cylinders with removable inner walls. The tractors are now regularly equipped with a two-speed sliding frame transmission and automatic hand safety cranks.

They are strongly guaranteed by a company owning their own factory and many branch houses. Ask for the 1916 catalog and get full information about them. If you want to do threshing also, ask for the new Avery Separator Catalog telling all about the "Yellow Fellow-Grain Saver" separator.
