VOL. LV—NO. 45. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 1916 $1.00 PER ANNUM

THIRD NATIONAL BANK

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

RESERVES

Below you will find a comparative statement of RESERVES held by the banks of Kent county as per their sworn reports made at the close of business Tuesday, March 7th, 1916, and published last week:

NET RESERVE held by the THIRD NATIONAL BANK	$92,356.60
NET RESERVES held by ALL other Kent county banks	80,332.39
EXCESS RESERVE held by the THIRD NATIONAL BANK over ALL other Kent county banks, together with their several branches	$12,024.21
THE RESERVE held by the Third National Bank as stated above	$92,356.60
THE LEGAL RESERVE required on that date	48,450.09
Excess amount held over legal requirement	$43,906.60

RESERVES which the banks are expected to hold should be available for use in times of emergency. It has been the policy of this bank to carry a large Reserve. We cannot make as much money for our stockholders but it is SAFER BANKING. The success of a bank should not be measured by the dividend it pays, as much as the SOLVENCY, CONSERVATISM, and the PROMPTNESS to respond to the legitimate needs of its customers. The Third National Bank now has ASSETS amounting to $900,000.00. We have about $630,000.00 on Savings Accounts, paying about $25,000.00 ANNUALLY to our SAVINGS DEPOSITORS in Interest.

Will be pleased to have your banking business.

Respectfully,

The Third National Bank
of Chestertown, Md.

Democratic Candidate for United States Senate, Subject to Primary Election, May 1, 1916.

President of Maryland Senate, 1896; Head of Baltimore City Law Department, 1903-1908; Counsel to Public Commission, 1910-1916.

PLATFORM—The old Jeffersonian principle of equal and exact rights to all men, reliance for individual well-being upon individual enterprise and energy rather than upon Government patronage, the regulation (but not the ownership) of the telephone and the railroads by Government, the highest degree of administrative economy consistent with the public necessities, a tariff for revenue only, the largest measure of local self-government compatible with a vigorous national authority, and an army and navy unqestionably strong enough to preserve our shores and liberties inviolate.

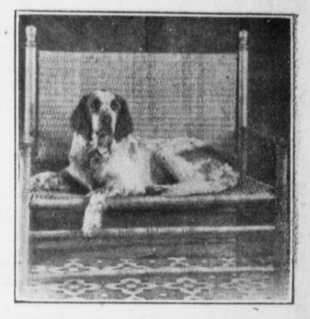
Massey,

The Steamboats Not to Stop.

By the suspension of the original order of the Interstate Commerce Commission the boats of the Md., Del. & Va. R. R. will continue to run. A dispatch from Washington Thursday says:

"The Pennsylvania Railroad to-day was allowed by the Interstate Commerce Commission to continue the operation of its Cheaspeake bay steamboat lines pending an inquiry into the petition of the Merchants, Shippers and Receivers' Association for a reopening of the entire case. The order of the Commission, entered last June, divorcing the Pennsylvania from its boat lines to the Eastern Shore was therefore suspended." This order, had it been allowed to stand, would have become effective at midnight Friday.

JIM CROW.



The above is a picture of Jim Crow, the fine setter dog of Dr. J. L. Finley, of Betterton. Jim Crow took second premium at the dog show in Baltimore week before last. He came within one point of the first prize. He is an English setter and entitled to register.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

MONATH—DUYER.

The wedding of Miss Ada Emma Hynson Duyer, the attractive young daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Duyer to Mr. John C. Monath, of Baltimore, occurred at their home, near Cemetery Hill, Saturday morning. Dr. L. E. Barrett performed the ceremony. Mr. Monath is at present employed at Coatesville, Pa. Miss Duyer met Mr. Monath when the troops carried the negro murderer of Mr. Coleman away over two years ago, he being one of the troopers, and the romance dated from that time. The happy couple left on the Saturday afternoon train, and after a short honeymoon will reside in Baltimore.

STAVELY—LAMPE.

Roy S. Stavely, son of Thos. H. Stavely, formerly of Kent, was quietly married to Miss Elsie Lampe, of Baltimore, at St. Andrew's P. E. Church by the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard, recently.

Marriage licenses were issued for the following, besides the above, last week: Roy Able Newcomb and Sallie Virginia Maslin, of Kent; Andrew Butler, of Kent, and Viola P. Chase, of Cambridge.
