H. F. JEFFERSON & BRO.,

THE LADIES' STORE,

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

IN THE CHURCHES.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Barrett left for conference on Tuesday. A largely signed petition asking for the return of Dr. and Mrs. Barrett to Chestertown for another year was sent to conference with them. Mr. John C. Davis, the lay delegate, is also in attendance at the session.

Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham and the delegate from Christ M. P. Church, Mr. Fred G. Usilton, will leave next week for conference which meets in West Baltimore M. P. Church, beginning next Wednesday, April 5th.

The coming session of the Maryland Annual Conference in Baltimore next week promises to be one of the most interesting sessions in years. Besides an attractive program prepared by President Bowers, which includes the conference sermon by Rev. J. M. Holmes, and the ordination sermon by Rev. Geo. Hines, there will be no evening session until Monday in order that the visiting ministers and delegates may have the opportunity to hear Billy Sunday. Three hundred seats have been reserved for the conference in the tabernacle one evening, and Mr. Sunday will address the conference on Monday, April 10th. Conference will close on Tuesday evening. A number of important changes are anticipated.

Rev. J. M. Gill, who for a number of years has enjoyed a most successful pastorate in Seattle, Washington State, will accept an appointment within the conference bounds for the coming conference year, and Rev. Mr. Tyson, pastor of Wallace Memorial Church, Philadelphia, will be loaned to the Seattle church.

The session of the Baltimore Conference Southern M. E. Church, held in Whashington last week, closed on Tuesday. Rev. A. E. Owens retiring pastor of Chesterville and Millington churches, was sent to Frederick Ave., Baltimore, and is suceeded by M. D. Ellmore. Rev. E. A. Lambert goes to Church Hill.

The Sims song recital on Tuesday evening was a great success and a credit to all concerned. The receipts amounted to $32 37.

There will be no preaching service in the M. E. church next Sunnay morning and evening, April 2nd, the pastor being away. The Sunday School and Epworth League will hold services as usual. You are invited to come and worship.

Rev. H. B. Jester, the popular pastor of St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches is closing a successful year on his charge. All branches of his work are in flourisning condition, the Sunday school never was better, and he will go to conference with an enviable record. From what we have learned there is a unanimous request for his return.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Services on Sunday, April 2nd., at 10 30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Sunday school 2.30 P. M. Christian Endeavor service 6.45 P. M.; mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held in the Rest Room on Tuesday, April 4th, at 2.30 P. M.

Pictures of the Great War.

The German Battlefield pictures, direct from the 44th Street Theatre, New York, are to be presented at the Lyceum Theatre, Chestertown, Wednesday, April 5th.

They are pronounced by critics of New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Baltimore and other large cities, where they have been shown, the best and the closest view of the army movements that have been brought to America. Starting at Berlin, one is shown at the Reichstag and other German administration buildings. One scene in Berlin shows 100,000 people gathered in the public square singing "Die Wacht Am Rhein." Then the scene shifts to Hamburg, with lines of marching troops going to the front; thence to Lubeck, where 300 soup wagons are being loaded for the front.

A vivid scene shows the trenches at Percome, France, where the Germans are now contending so fiercely for their position.

In Galicia and Poland the battles of Parnow and Jaraslaw are shown and the fall of Przemsyl and Lemburg are depicted. The big 24 and 30 centimeter guns are shown pouring volleys of shrapnel and high explosives at the enemy's lines.

Mr. Weigle has caught with his telephoto lens the bursting of shrapnel over the enemy's lines. The campaigns in the Tyrolean Alps and the Carpathians are depicated with dramatic realism.

Mr. Weigle's camera was equipped with a long-distance tele-photo lens, enabling him to take scenes at a distance of 3,000 feet.

"I was able to stand outside the lines of fighting and photograph the shrapnel and high explosives as they burst in the air and showered volleys of shot into the trenches of the enemy," he said.

The New York World says that fully 25,000 people were turned away the first day from the 44th st. Theatre, where these pictures were shown for 5 weeks, at prices up to $2.00 a seat.

The authenticity of these pictures is guaranteed by the Chicago Tribune.

Uncle Joe Against T. R.

With wonted fire and characteristic courage, "Uncle Joe" Cannon at the dinner of the Five O'clock Club in the Bellevue-Stratford, Philadelphia, Saturday night told the Republicans of Pennsylvania and the nation that if they wanted to win in 1916 they must discard Taft and Roosevelt as Presidential possibilities.

It was during a battle with several hecklers that he read the Colonel and ex-President out of the race against President Wilson. During this little passange-at-arms he was asked:

"How about Roosevelt for President?"

"Name him and you are licked," fired back the venerable Westerner.

"How about Taft?" flung another questioner.

"He won't do, either. You want a sound protectionist, a man who can command all factions of the party, and who can win."
