JUSTICE TO THE SOUTH.
A NEW BOOK and one destined to create a sensation.
JUST PUBLISHED,
THE SUNNY SOUTH,
OR THE SOUTHERNER AT HOME,
Embracing Five Years experience of a Northern Governess, in the land of Sugar, Rice Tobacco and Cotton. Edited by Prof. J. H. INGRAHAM, of Mississippi. Handsomely bound in one volume. 12 mo. 550 pages. Price $1.25.
Literary Notices from the Press throughout the Country.
THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This book is composed of a series of letters, written in an interesting style of a narrative, embodying the most romantic features of social life on different kinds of plantations. We can bear testimony, from our own personal observation of similar scenes in the South, to their truthfulness as here depicted. They are portrayed in a vivid, interesting style, and we would like to see the book in the hands of thousands of deceived people, who have no personal knowledge either of Southerners or Southern life except what they have gained from partizan journals, or those who have written intentionally to deceive.—Daily Republic, Ingham, N. Y.
THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This volume is in the form of letters. They give, so far as we can judge, faithful pictures of Southern life, and are penned without prejudice. They present scenes quite different from an Uncle Tom's Cabin, the pictures here presented are quite graphic, and we think the portraits painted are in very nearly natural colors.—Boston Daily Bee.
THE SUNNY SOUTH.—We have rarely peeped within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not intended as an answer to the foul untruths in the Uncle Tom trash of the last ten years, it nevertheless does unmercifully hurl back, to their source all lies of such a nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read in thousands of northern homes.—The south also should take to it benignantly, for independent of its truthfulness and integrity, it is one of the liveliest and most entertaining books of the year. —Times, Greensboro', N. C.
THE SUNNY SOUTH.—The enterprising publisher, G. G. Evans, Philadelphia, of Gift Book notoriety, is weekly issuing new works of interest, and spreading them over the country, and his system of transacting business may be looked upon as an institution, for diffusing knowledge, unequalled by any in the country. We commend this book to all.—Daily News.
THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This is a captivating volume, strongly illustrative of Southern life. The heart of the authoress is with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her, as she, in her amusing off hand style, delineates the peculiarities of a Southern home.—Press.
THE SUNNY SOUTH.—Whatever bears the name of Professor Ingraham is sure to involve the existence of striking effect and a wide popular currency; and this is just the case with "The Sunny South, or the Southerner at Home," which appears from the Press of G. G. Evans, under the editorship of the graphic Professor. It is vivid in style, keenly observant, interesting in plot, and in purpose and manner it obviously springs from a warm heart, and will be as warmly welcomed by a host of readers.—New Yorker.

GOOD BOOKS! CHOICE BOOKS!
NEW AND ILLUSTRATED EDITIONS.
THE THRONE OF DAVID,
From the consecration of the Shepherd of Bethlehem to the Rebellion of Prince Absalom, being an Illustration of the Splendor, Power and Dominion of the Reign of the Shepherd King in a series of Letters, wherein the magnificence of Judea is shown to the reader, as if by an eye-witness. By Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, LL. D. One vol. 12 mo., cloth. 665 pages.—Price $1.25.
"This is the third Volume, and the completion of a series of works by the same author, on the history of the Israelitish monarchy. The origin under Moses, was treated of in the "Pillar of Fire," and its great glory under David is treated of in this work. (The Throne of David,) while the decline of Hebrew power and the opening of the new dispensation meet fully their delineation in the "Prince of the House of David." These works are historically valuable, as handbooks of information relative to the scenery, geography and manners of the Holy Land. The style is interesting and powerful, and the work leads us to the contemplation and study of the sublime language of the Bible and the great doctrines of truth it contains, without being as such books too ordinarily are, either maudlin, stupid, dogmatic or conceited.—Boston Daily Atlas.

THE PILLAR OF FIRE,
OR ISRAEL IN BONDAGE.
By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, author of the "Prince of the House of David." One volume, 12 mo, cloth, 700 pages. Price $1.25.
This work is designed to sketch the Hebraic history during the bondage in Egypt, the Prophet Moses being the central figure, and is a free and striking history of the period in which the writer gathers first, from the Bible and then from profane history a vast mass of material, which by his genius, is thrown into a fanciful narrative of the most attractive character which carries the reader along without diminution of interest.—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

THE PRINCE OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID,
OR THREE YEARS IN THE HOLY CITY.
In a series of letters relating as if by an eye witness, all the scenes and wonderful incidents in the LIFE OF JESUS OF NAZARETH,
From his Baptism in Jordan to his Crucifixion on Calvary. By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, Rector of Christ Church and of St. Thomas Hall, Holly Springs, Miss. One volume. 12 mo. cloth, 472 pages. Price $1.25.
In this work the author has succeeded in the bold and daring task of presenting to the world the Oriental parts of scripture in connection with secular history, so as to present the clear and life like picture of those events as they might be supposed to appear to a casual observer. The description of rights and ceremonials, are spirited and comprehensive. The style is highly imaginative and attractive, and we predict that this volume will be as popular as the "Pilgrim's Progress."—Presbyterian and Journal.

The Best is Always the Cheapest!
GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.
THE STANDARD FOR THIRTY-ONE YEARS.
Pronounced by the Press of the United States
THE BEST
Lady's Magazine in the World,
AND THE CHEAPEST.
THE LITERATURE
is of that kind that can be read aloud in the family circle, and the clergy in immense numbers are subscribers for the Book.
THE BEST LADY WRITERS
in America contribute to its pages, and we have some that write for no other magazine.
THE MUSIC
is all original, and would cost 25 cents (the price of the Book) in the sheet form; but none of it is copyrighted, and cannot be obtained except in "Godey."
OUR STEEL ENGRAVINGS.
All efforts to rival us in this have ceased, and we now stand alone in this department, giving, as we do, many more and infinitely better engravings than are published in any other work.
OUR FASHION PLATES.
Our long experience gives us greater advantages than are possessed by others. We give in the course of one year SIXTY FULL FIGURE FASHIONS, which is thirty-six more than any other magazine gives; and they are really the fashions which others are not. We challenge contradiction when we state that the fashions of other magazines have never been seen in the streets of Philadelphia or New York, or in the drawing-rooms of either place, Godey's are the only reliable fashions.
OUR WOOD ENGRAVINGS, of which we give twice or three times as many as any other magazine, are often mistaken for steel. They are so far superior to any others.
IMITATIONS.
Beware of them. Remember that the Lady's Book is the original publication and the cheapest. If you take Godey, you want no other magazine.
Everything that is useful or ornamental in a house can be found in Godey.
DRAWING LESSONS.
No other magazine gives them, and we have given enough to fill several large volumes.
OUR RECEIPTS
are such as can be found nowhere else. Cooking in all its variety—Confectionary—the Nursery—the Toilet—the Laundry—the Kitchen. Receipts upon all subjects are to be found in the pages of the Lady's Book. We originally started this department, and have peculiar facilities for making it most perfect. This department alone is worth the price of the Book.
COLORED ENGRAVINGS of Knitting, Netting, or some other useful branch of ladies' work is given in every number.
LADIES' WORK TABLE.
This department comprises engravings and descriptions of every article that lady wears.
MODEL COTTAGES.
No other magazine has this department.
