SPRING DISPLAY OF
J & K SHOES

EASTER HATS in GREAT VARIETY

Many Easter Hats from here have already been delivered; many more have been selected and are now in our workroom receiving the finishing touches.

For you who have not yet bought we are placing in our showroom new, fresh creations every day. We are specially prepared with Ready-Trimmed Hats for the purchaser who comes the last hour before Easter.

EASTER RIBBONS

You will need new Ribbons for Easter. Our stock of all widths and colors of Ribbons is larger than ever before. We are glad to state that we bought these goods early before the rise in prices and we give you the benefit of our prices which are much below their market value.

Excellent Hair-Bows, 25c yard.

PERT, SNAPPY J. & K. PUMPS

We invite you to call and inspect our remarkably fine showing of Spring Footwear. Try on a pair of our Pumps—compare them with any you have worn in fitting, comfort and appearance.

The styles pictured are only two of the exquisite creations which are delighting everyone who sees them.

We have in stock all sizes from $1\frac{1}{2}$ to 9, in widths A to E, and, of course, can fit almost every woman's foot in the county.

THE J&K SHOE FITS THE ARCH

IN THE CHURCHES.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, pastor. Services next Sunday, April 30, as follows: 10.30 A. M., sermon by the pastor, subject, "The Supreme Force in Character and Civilization;" 2.15 P. M., Sabbath school and pastor's Bible class; 7 to 8 P. M., Epworth League song service and short sermon by the pastor, subject, "The False and the True in the Guidance of Human Life." Come, all welcome.

Rev. J. L. Ward, the new pastor of Christ M. P. Church, occupied his pulpit on Sundsy and made a most favorable impression upon his large audience. The pastor and his family arrived on Tuesday evening and were given a fine supper and donation, and on Thursday evening a public reception was held in the lecture room of the church under the auspices of the Christian endevor Society. Mr. Ward is rapidly becoming acquinted with the people of the community and we bespeak for him a very successful pastorate here.

Rev. Dr. J. S. Bowers, president of the Maryland Conference preached at St. James on Sunday morning to a large congregation. He was present at the Anniversary exercises in Christ M. P. Church in the evening and made a short address. It is interesting to note that Dr. Bowers was the first president of the Home Juvenile Missionary Society of Christ Church, which was organized in 1872, and it is the first time in the history of the society that a president of the Conference has been present at the Anniversary exercises. Dr. Bowers' many friends here were delighted to find him in such good health.

Christ M. P. Church—Rev. J. L. Ward, pastor. Preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. by the pastor; Sunday School at 2.30 P. M.; Christion Endeavor Society at 6.45 P. M. Mid-week prayer service on Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

The great Billy Sunday campaign closed in a blaze of glory and religious enthusiasm in Baltimore on Sunday. A thank offering of more than $40,000 was contributed during the day, and the Sunday party left Baltimore on Monday with the prayers and best wishes of thousands of people for a continuance of his great work. The Baltimore campaign was one of the most successful in the history of the great evangelist.

Mr. Clews continues to gain in strength so that he will preach next Sunday in all three of his charges. The subject will be, "How may we know that Jesus Christ rose from the dead?" By what power of reasoning can this knowledge be attained? How do we know Washington lived? Lincoln? Columbus? Shakespeare? Georgetown, 10.30; Kennedyville, 2.30; Worton, 7.30. On a recent return trip from Worton. Mr. Clews lost the door of the tail lamp of his auto.

Betterton Notes.

Approprite services were held in the M. E. Church Easter. The church was trimmed with potted plants and cut flowers and the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Charles Brice, was at its best, and rendered beautiful anthems at both the afternoon and evening services. Mr. Reese Young was in charge of the Epworth League services. A very pretty Easter service was held by the Junior League at the regular hour of their meeting. The new Estey organ which they have purchased for the use of the Juniors and the primary Sunday school was dedicated at this service.

Rev. R. P. Nichols has been granted a two weeks leave of absence. The pulpit will be supplied until his return, May 14.

The Betterton congregation of the Episcopal church held a joint service with the congregation at I. U. Easter morning. There was no service at Betterton in the afternoon.

The funeral of Mr. Frank H. Mann was largely attended on Mofday afternoon. Betterton extends its sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. Jesse Coleman has purchased a new Studebaker automobile from Mr. Clarence Newsome.

Mr. Charles Brice and Mr. Thomas Silcox motored to Baltimore last Saturday to hear Billy Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Brice entertained the Embroidery Club at her home on Thursday afternoon.

Among those spending the Easter holidays in Betterton were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Remmington and children, Dr. and Mrs. McDonald and children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gooding and daughter, Mr. Eugene Gooding, Misses Anna Smyth, Madge Wilmer, Mabel Rasin, Margaret Myres and Myrtle Tull.

Pomona Items.

Mr. Zay Davis, of Wilmington, spent the Easter holidays with his parents Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davis "Riverside".

Mrs. J. P. Crossley spent first of the week in Baltimore.

Mrs. G. M. Hadaway, who has been quite sick the past week, is improved.

Among those who visited Baltimore last week and enjoyed the "Billy Sunday" meetings were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, Mrs. James H. Baker, and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Covey and daughter Mary.

Rev. H. Klug, who was assigned to Pomona charge was unable to come on account of his health. Superintendent Wise sent a supply for Sunday. Owing to bad weather there was a very small congregation at the service. The Superintendent hopes to furnish us with a preacher as soon as possible.

Mrs. W. T. Maslin and daughter Mrs. Fred Davis, spent last week in Baltimore.

Grange Notes.

The regular meeting of the Still Pond Grange will be held Saturday evening in the grange hall. The lecture hour will be open to the public at 7.30 and will be in charge of Worthy Flora, Mrs. Catherine Fogwell. A cordial invitation is extended to all persons interested in flowers to be present. A special invitation is given the school children.
