Open Meeting.

An open meeting of Chester Camp No 8745 Modern Woodmen of America was held on Friday evening in the court house. Unfortunately a very small percentage of the membership was present. State Deputy McCaffrey was present and gave a most encouraging and helpful address upon the great work the order is doing throughout the country. Thirty-seven thousand new members were added the first three months of this year and the total will go far beyond 50,000 when April's returns are in. The Modern Woodmen of America is one of the greatest and most beneficial fraternal societies in the world. It offers the cheapest and safest insurance known, and provides for the physical and temporal needs of mankind as few other orders do. Young men, get in. It will save you money, and you will be doing something worth while.
