Sudden Death of a County Man.

It becomes our painful duty to announce the sudden death of one of our most excellent and estimable citizens, Joseph Smith, of Wakefield Valley, on Tuesday last, of disease of the heart, aged about 60 years. He was on his way alone to New Windsor, and when discovered in his buggy was speechless. He died shortly afterwards.

☞A man of a singular character died in New Orleans on Monday last.—He was seventy-two years of age, and of late years had for his only companions, a number of dogs. The Picayune says that on the discovery of his death by the neighbors, a number entered his dwelling, and found the body surrounded by a score and a half of grown up dogs and puppies, some licking affectionately his face and hands, and some others howling mournfully. Two of the puppies were found dead near his body, perhaps out of sympathy, for their poor good old master."

Garibaldi and the Hungarians.

Garibaldi has issued one decree which cannot fail to stir the bile of Austria, for it refers to the Hungarian volunteers.—Depots are opened at Naples and Messina for Hungarian recruits, and it is given out that Garibaldi has pledged himself to repay Hungarian service with his sword.

☞Some of our friends want more news and less politics. This is the last number for the campaign, and we shall therefore have more room hereafter for general as well as local news, the cream of which shall be served up fresh and in good digestible condition.

Female "Lynchers."

On Saturday, a crowd of women went to a tavern in Corwin, Ohio, and poured out all the liquor on the ground. They then notified another tavern-keeper that if he did not give up the business in ten days he should share the same fate.

☞It is said that Col. Rudler, the filibuster, is loaded with chains and imprisoned in a mine in Honduras one hundred feet under ground.

☞George W. Brown, the Mayor elect of Baltimore, entered upon the discharge of his duties last week.

☞A very good and worthy colored man, a resident of our town for a number of years past, generally known as Senator Hill, died last week.

An Appeal.

What would you think of a farmer who had raised a thousand bushels of wheat, and who should sell it to a thousand different persons scattered all over the State, and agree to wait a year from each one of them, and if one-half of them did not pay at the end of the year, he should give them another bushel of wheat, and agree to wait another year for his pay, and thus go on year after year? How long would such a farmer escape bankruptcy? probably not very much longer than publishers of newspapers who follow such practice. It costs the editor of a weekly paper as much to supply a thousand subscribers with it for one year as it costs a farmer to raise a thousand bushels of wheat. The farmer sells his grain in a bulk, and either takes the cash or a note as good as the cash, for it upon delivery. The editor cannot sell his thousand papers in a bulk. They are sold to a thousand different persons, living in different towns in the county, and different counties in the State, and he must wait until the end of the year before he can get his payment, and then he depends wholly upon the honor and responsibility of the subscribers, for it is impossible that he should know the character of all his subscribers. It will not pay him to go around or send around the county or State to collect his dues. It would cost more than the collections will come to.

☞The Maryland Agricultural College, at Rossburg, near Bladensburg, is, we are glad to hear, going forward with a smoothness and success. The number of students now in the college is fifty-five, with almost daily accessions. Two commodious buildings are going up near the College, one for the residence of the President of the Faculty, the other for the Professor of Chemistry. The present incumbent of the first named office is Dr. John M. Colby; of the latter, Dr. Montgomery Johns. The lectures on agriculture are delivered by Dr. Johns with frequency. Charles B. Calvert, Esq., is the President of the Board of Trustees of the institution.—National Intel.

Negro Suffrage to be Contested in Congress.

In the Sixteenth Congressional District of Ohio, Cutler, Republican, was elected by sixty-four majority over Jewett, Democrat. In a large number of precincts negroes voted the Republican ticket and in consequence the Democratic candidate was defeated. The Marietta Republican gives the number of negroes voting in several precincts—enough to decide the result—and intimates that the election will be contested. As the Constitution of the State provides that no one shall vote if he is not a white citizen of the United States, all persons of negro blood are disqualified from voting. This is a plain proposition, which the House of Representatives affirm, in the contested election case of Vallangham vs. Campbell, two years ago;

Turnips, Politics and Religion.

A strange combination, truly, but yet affording range for an amusing local, the items being furnished us by one of the "oldest inhabitants" in the vicinity. A week or more ago our christian friends who worship at Deerpark Chapel, a few miles from town, held a series of nightly meetings, and whilst the good people in the church were doing all in their power to elevate the standard of christian morals in the community, Young America remained on the outside discussing politics and the merits of old man Nelson's turnips, a very fine patch of which was nicely picked and wasted during the meeting. In assigning missionaries to various parts of the world, our societies would be doing good service by sending a few to our own County.

Real Estate Sales

A few days ago J. William Airhart, Trustee, sold at public sale the real estate of the late David Myers, situated in Myers' District, containing 135 acres. Sold to John Myers, subject to the widow's dower, for $40 25 per acre.

The farm of Emanuel Myers, located near the Pennsylvania line, containing 74 acres, was sold at the Court House door, Westminster, on Monday last, by E. E. Crout, Trustee, to Mrs. Lydia Myers, for $1,800; also, a second tract, opposite the above, of 43 acres, sold to Joseph Brown, for $503.

Severely Injured.

Whilst engaged in assisting the erection of a frame building one day last week, David Owings, residing near town, made a narrow escape from death by a falling piece of timber striking him on the back of his head, largely opening it and knocking him senseless. The services of Dr. Albaugh were immediately procured, who dressed the wound, and he is now doing very well.

☞An unknown cripple went into an eating house in Boobestor on Tuesday night, and while at supper, struck the negro girl who waited on him, for some trifling offence. When the girl went to get an officer to arrest him, he secreted himself in a garret; when the police came he was dead.

☞Gov. Letcher is out against Ex-Gov. Wise's attempts to sow discord in Virginia, and tells him plainly that the regular constituted authorities of the State are capable of taking care of all disturbers of the public peace, whether in or out of her limits! A capital hit that.

☞The New Orleans papers report the descent of the police on a regular African "incantation." Half a dozen naked African women were dancing around a cheldron in which a snake was boiling. The object of the "voudouk rites" was to deliver a man from the city prison. The "witches" were taken to the lockup. The reporter's account of the affair strikes one as very comical—the dense heathenism of Central Africa being thus "shown up" by that last product of civilization, a news paper reporter.

A dreadful conflagration swept away ten of the largest business establishments in Opelika, Alabama, on the 25th ult. A correspondent of the Montgomery Mail charges the origin of the large fire upon "black-hearted Yankee" incendiaries.

☞A protracted meeting will be commenced in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Sandy Mount, to-morrow.

The Close of the Campaign.

Whatever may be the result, we candidly congratulate our readers on the approaching close of the political campaign. Before the next issue of our paper, we hope that a new President will have been elected by the people, but even if the ultimate decision should go to the House, the tumult, turmoil, and excitement of the campaign will be over, vanished like an uneasy dream. We shall be glad of it—our readers will be glad of it—newspaper subscribers and readers generally will be glad of it—merchants and men of business will be glad of it; for this politics interferes sadly with all branches of trade, and is good for nothing except the consumption of old barrels and packing boxes in bon fires at political gatherings, having thus the one advantageous concomitant of clearing the sidewalks of these incumbrances.—Moreover, the politicians, both office-holders and office seekers, will be glad of it, for they will at last know their fate The partizan orators will be glad of it, for they have blown out all their brains, what little they had, with the explosive power of their lungs, and having exhausted their material de guerre, will be glad of a truce. Moreover, furthermore, lastly, and most important, the ladies—God bless them!—will be glad of it, be they maids, wives or widows, for politics is a deadly foe to domestic felicity and the pursuit of matrimony, while in these days, when pistols and revolvers flourish and increase, the maternal mind cannot but be anxious for the scion of her house whom she sends around the corner for a penny's worth of candy, for fear he may either shoot or be shot before he gets back again We may reasonably hope that, after next week, affairs will return to their usual quiet. We certainly shall feel like throwing our hat, or anything that comes handy, at any person who ventures to open his mouth to us upon the subject after that date, for six months at least.

Fatal Accident.

A young man named Peter Sheets, residing with Henry Marker, in Wakefield Valley, met with an accident on Wednesday of last week, which resulted in his death a few hours afterwards.—The day being rainy and all out-door farming operations suspended, he determined to make a visit to Wakefield, and as was his custom during the gameing season, concluded to carry his gun with him, which was a valuable double-barrel shot piece. On the evening preceding he fired one barrel and killed an owl,—re-loading the next morning in the second story of the house, by some unknown means one of the barrels exploded, driving the load through his head. The report of the gun was instantly heard by the inmates below, who immediately procured medical services, but all to no avail, as he died the same day. He was a single man, about 24 years of age, industrious, and respected by all who came within the range of his acquaintance for his social and moral virtues.

Premiums Awarded.

At the Maryland State Agricultural Fair held at Baltimore, last week, we are gratified to perceive that our fellow-townsman, Elijah Wagoner, received three premiums for machinery, as follows: Best drilling and broadcasting machine, $1; best broadcasting and drilling machine with guano drilling and broadcasting attachment, $5; gum-roller drill with gum spring, gum-tubes, $10. Mr. Wagoner has an extensive foundry and machine shops at the West End, and during the past season has constantly had employed a large number of hands, with ready sales for castings and machinery. Enlarged success to him.

Business Suspensions.

Some excitement was occasioned in the city yesterday by the suspension of the banking house of Josiah Lee & Co. Their affairs have been put in the hands of trustees, and at present no definite statement of their precise condition can be given. A great many rumors are of course in circulation, but as it would be impossible to separate the false from the true, we give neither. The house is one of the oldest financial institutions in the city, though in the last few years its proprietorship has been entirely changed by the withdrawal of former partners. Messrs. Appleton & Co., bankers, a recently established house, also suspended yesterday. The great fall in prices at the Stock Board, especially of the copper mining stocks, is given as the cause of these suspensions.—Balt. Amer. Thursday.

To Persons out of Employment.

We direct the attention of of our readers to the advertisement of Leary, Getz & Co., Book Publishers, of Philadelphia, which will be found in to-day's paper. It will be seen by reference to the advertisement, that their publications are of the most interesting character, published in the best style and bound in an elegant and substantial manner.—Their inducements to Agents are very liberal, and persons out of employment should apply at once and secure Agencies, as there is money to be made in selling the publications of these gentlemen.

Horrible Infanticide.

We learn from the Press, that Lydia Swails, a colored woman living in Uniontown, one night last week gave birth to a child, which to hide her crime she choked to death, and concealed in a box until the next day and then clandestinely buried it. To prevent exposure she neglected the proper attention to herself, and she died a terrible death on Wednesday last.

☞Accounts from Southern Kansas state that United States troops under orders of the Indian Agent, have been driving the squatters from the Cherokee lands. One account states that seventy-four houses had been burned, and the occupants rendered houseless. It is believed, however, that the reports are greatly exaggerated. A meeting was held at Leavenworth on Monday evening last to devise measures for the relief of the suffering people of Kansas, and it was proposed to take up immediate subscriptions in the East in their aid.

☞The Multanphy bequest to the city of St. Louis has been placed in charge of a Board of Commissioners, whose duty it is to see that the testator's will is fu filled in "furnishing relief to all poor emigrants and travellers coming to St. Louis on their way, bonafide to settle in the West."

Foreign Items.

By the arrival of the Northern Light, at New York, we learn that a Peruvian frigate was destroyed by an accident whilst on the dry dock at Callao. Numerous spectators were killed. The accident was caused by some of the stanchions of the dock giving way. The frigate pitched over and sank. A great number of people and all the crew were on board, and a great loss of life resulted. The particulars were not known at the date of the advices, but it was feared that the number would reach 150.—The revolution in Bolivia has been suppressed.

Advices from Nicaragua state that Mr. Dimity was pressing a settlement of the American claims.

A difficulty had occurred at Panama between the American and British forces. A British guard was stationed in the streets. The difficulty arose from the arrest of an American officer and citizen for refusing to respond to a challenge. The British commander placed a guard in the streets, and a communication had passed between him and American Flag Officer Montgomery. A fresh alarm occurred at Panama on the night of the 22d, in consequence of a report that a party of negroes had threatened to sack the city, and the troops were under arms all night, but nothing had happened. The rumor, however, caused great excitement among the citizens.

A Modern Prophet.

Jacob Greenwood, 79 years of age, writes from Starkville, Ga., that he has for three years possessed the ken of prophecy, and that the arcana of coming events are freely and unreservedly presented to his mind. His pretensions will, of course, excite ridicule, but in attestation of their truth, he says he predicted the recent affair at Truxilo, the fires in Texas, and the political fusion in New York; and now he is willing to stake the reputation of his profession upon the prediction that the fusion ticket of New York will carry the largest vote in the coming election, and Gen. Garibaldi will not survive the first of January, 1861.

☞A German woman died of hydrophobia in the Blockley Almshouse, Philadelphia, a few days ago It took the combined force of five or six stalwart men to hold her in bed, and the sight of water or any other fluid threw her into the most frightful paroxysms. At intervals she begged in the most piteous manner that some one would shoot her, and put her to death, anything to end her agony. Chloroform was administered to her in large doses, but its effects were only temporary.

☞The Druid Hill Park, just opened at Baltimore, contains about five hundred and fifty acres. One-fifth of the gross receipts of the passenger railway was demanded by the city for the charters, and the amount has been appropriated to the Park. It will amount to an annual sum of over $50,000.—The trees on the Park are primeval, and a full view of the city and Chesapeake is obtained.

A "Strong Minded" Woman.

Mrs. Dr. Lydia Sayer Hasbrouck, of Orange county, N. Y., who insists that a woman should not be taxed unless she is allowed to vote, has thought to shame the collector out of his demand by offering to work out her road tax. The doctress, having somewhat passed the bloom of youth, made no impression upon the official, and therefore, instead of paying under protest, as some of her sisters do, she went upon the road and drove a cart.

Killed a Robber.

☞A widow, named Hatfield, residing in a lonely house a few miles from Bloomfield, Indiana, was awakened a few weeks ago by persons trying to open her doors and raise her windows, and plainly heard them conversing with one another. Seizing a gun, she fired from the window, and there was an instant scampering, and all was still. The next morning the body of a deaf and dumb man resident near by, was found a short distance from the house, with a bullet lodged in his body

☞The famine in Kansas has excited great sympathy in the West. On Thursday last, 17,000 lbs. of flour, corn meal and potatoes arrived at Atchison, from Illinois, and several teams from the destitute portion of Southern Kansas, which were in waiting, were loaded and started for their destination. There had previously arrived, and been distributed, from Atchison, 500 bushels of corn, and 20,000 lbs. of flour, groceries, &c. most of which was sent to the Neosho country.

A Snake in a Letter.

A negress in Chicago astonished the post office loungers a few days ago with a series of most agonizing shrieks and screams. She had just received a small package from Marion, and opening it a green adder was revealed to her astonished gaze. The bystanders soon dispatched the reptile, and the woman showed them a letter which her husband had written, urging her to "kiss this dear little pet for me, and take it, and sleep with it for God's sake." He also informed her that he was going to get a bill of divorce as soon as possible.—Jealousy was of course the origin of this domestic escapade.

☞Pope Pius IX. has granted a particular jubilee to the Sisters of Charity throughout the world, in consequence of the two hundredth anniversary of the glorious death of St. Vincent de Paul, their founder. The jubilee will be celebrated in all the chapels connected with the hospitals under their charge, and will last three weeks.

☞A new hotel, called the "Lindell," is very near completion, at St. Louis, which, it is said, will be the largest in the world, far exceeding in size any in New York or Philadelphia. Its construction will cost over $600,000.—Its front on Washington street is 212 feet, and its depth is 227 feet. It will easily accommodate 1200 guests, and the boarders can take a walk of a mile and a half, before breakfast, by going through the several halls, no one of them twice. The Messrs. Leland have the lease for 15 years.

☞Mrs. Judge Douglas was robbed on a steamboat, near Memphis, last week, of a gold watch, inlaid with pearls.

Pronounced Snob.

The question, "what is a snob," is likely to be satisfactorily answered through the discussion now being carried on among the military men and hotel keepers in New York. It appears that Gov. Morgan, having invited one of his staff, who also kept a hotel, to the Prince of Wales' dinner, recalled the invitation, because he was assured it was not etiquette for a prince to dine at the same table with a hotel keeper. The military and the gentlemen who keep a hotel have voted the Governor a "snob," and remind him that he, as a grocer and vender of molasses and nutmegs, had not any great advantage over a hotel keeper. The insulted Boniface has resigned his military commission.

Refuses to Receive Them.

The Government of Liberia has refused to receive the recaptured Africans who were sent to that Colony from Key West, and who were captured by our cruisers and landed at Monrovia in August last. The number of Africans thus landed are about twenty-four hundred. The American Colonization Society have a contract with the U. S. Government under the law of the last session, to take charge of all these Africans for one year for the compensation of one hundred dollars a head; but the Liberian Government refuses permission for the negroes to remain in its territory, or under its protection, without the same compensation which the Colonization Society is to receive.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.

Neuralgia—Tic Doloureux. The doctrine that quinine and carbonate of iron were the only remedies for tic doloreux and nervous disorders, is now exploded. Holloway's Ointment will procure the speediest alleviation of pain, and a few applications suffice for a permanent cure. Thousands who have experienced a radical benefit for its use are prepared to vouch for the correctness of this statement. In gout, rheumatism, lumbago and sciatica, it is equally efficacious.—Sold by all Druggists at 25c., 62c and $1 per box or pot.

The Philadelphia Election Fraud.

The jury in the case of William Byerly, tried for forging the election returns of the first congressional district, and thus defeating Mr. Lehman, the democratic candidate, and electing Mr. Butler, rep., brought in a verdict of guilty this morning. The counsel of the accused will probably carry the case to the Supreme Court.

☞Garibaldi has had all the old police agents of the King of Naples sent to the islands of Tremiti. He cannot set them at liberty, for the people would at once tear them in pieces. By a special decree he has suppressed all the convents of the Jesuits, and has confiscated their property to the use of the State.

☞The people of Brighton, Mass., and vicinity have been thrown into great excitement by the occurrence on Monday morning, within the space of five hours, of four fires, all of which were undoubtedly the work of incendiaries.—They occurred in rapid succession, and were doubtless all the work of one man, or of one party. The total loss was not over five or eight thousand dollars, though the alarm was very great.

☞Agnes Crawford and Rebecca Walker, interesting girls, about eleven years of age, residing in Brooklyn, were taken into custody by policemen Carr and Golden, of the sixth precinct, on a charge of shoplifting. Without the knowledge of their parents they had stolen $1,000 worth of goods in New York.

Nebraska Election.

Norton, democrat, has been elected delegate to Congress from Nebraska Territory, over Daily, Wooley-head, and has been awarded his certificate of election

Dreadful Steamboat Disaster.

The steamer H. R. W. Hill, Capt. T. H. Newell, from Memphis for New Orleans, exploded on Wednesday night week by which 30 persons were killed and some 50 scalded.

Resulted Fatally.

The colored man Squirrel, of whom we spoke last week, as having been injured in the stone quarry of Mr. Rigael, of Bachman's Valley, by the premature explosion of a blast, died of his wounds on Friday. Although skilfully attended to by Dr. Beltz, mortification ensued and death ended his sufferings.

☞Bee-culturists in Europe are beginning to make use of chloroform to render the bees quiet and tractable at the moment of removing the honey from their hives.

☞John Bateman, a resident of Chatham Centre, returned home on Thursday, after living for twenty-three years a convict's life in Van Dieman's Land, whither he had been sent for participating in the Canadian rebellion of 1837. Bateman is now 64 years of age.

☞The drying up of a creek disclosed a valuable coal bed in Clinton, Douglas county, Kansas, and a bed of pearl clams, from which 400 pearls have been taken, some of them quite valuable.

☞A slave in Charleston, S. C., has earned by over-work, in the last five years, $3,500, but refuses to buy his liberty, preferring to live in bondage.

☞Somebody has poisoned a pet dog of Senator Seward, and the Black Republican presses are denouncing the act in unmeasured tones as another Southern outrage.

Aid for Garibaldi.

An Agent of Garibaldi has arrived in Jamaica, endeavoring to obtain subscriptions to the work of Italian independence. There is much feeling in favor of the Liberator, and the movement is general throughout the Island.

☞The wife of one of the wealthiest merchant princes of New York wore a dress at the great Academy of Music Ball, the three flounces of which alone cost a thousand dollars each. The lace used upon the dress was only two hundred and fifty dollars a yard.

☞A very fine and valuable draught horse, belonging to Mr. John Magee, died at the residence of his owner, near Carrollton, a few days ago, after a few hours sickness. The horse was valued at $200.

Arrest for Robbing an Express Company.—We recently stated that a package of bank notes, amounting to $9,445, sent by the Merchants' Bank of Baltimore to the Hagerstown Bank, through Adams & Co.'s Express, had been broken open on the route and $3,360 abstracted. The express company promptly made good the amount stolen, and immediately set themselves to work to detect the robber. The officers and agents at Harrisburg, a few days since, had their suspicions aroused against a young man named Oliver Simmons, a messenger in their employ, and on his arrest he confessed his guilt. When asked what he had done with the money, he said that he had spent thirty dollars, had fifteen on hand, and had burned the rest.

The Civil War in Mexico.—Capture of Guadalajara.—It was announced several days ago that the city of Guadalajara, in Mexico, had after a long siege, been captured by the liberal army. This is the second city of the republic, rich and prosperous, and has been defended with great obstinacy. It has long been, moreover, the principal stronghold of the reactionists in that part of the republic, and its capture is believed to open the way direct to the capital.

☞As each month rolls around the demand for Lindsey's Blood Searcher increases, owing to the fact that a single trial at once removes the doubts of the most incredulous, and fully satisfies them that it is the only preparation now before the people that will in all cases do all that is claimed for it. The worst cases of Cancerous Formation, Scrofula, Erysipelas, and Tetter Affections give way to its potent influence. Thousands of persons who are now alive and well, must thank the discoverer of this preparation that they have not been swept away by the unseen hand of death. The best evidence of its real value is, that the best physicians in the land recommend it highly, and acknowledge the claims of the Blood Searcher upon the community. Sold by all the Druggists in this county. ☞See advertisement in another column.

A Reward is Offered.

For the detection of any person counterfeiting, imitating, or the vender of any such counterfeit or imitation of BERHEAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS. The genuine, highly concentrated Holland Bitters is put up in half-pint bottles only, having the name of the proprietor, B. Pass, Jr., blown in them, and his signature around the neck of each and every bottle.

This delightful Avant has been received by Americans, with that favor which is only extended to really scientific preparations. When we consider the marked success attending its administration, in the most stubborn cases of Fever and Ague Weakness of any kind, Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Acidity of the Stomach, Sick and Nervous Headache, Indigestion, Costiveness and Piles, together with the complete control its exercises over all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, we cannot wonder at its popularity. Well may the invalid value this remedy.

☞Sufferers from Scrofula and Scrofulous affections, clean up! Why wear your Pimples, Blotches, Ulcers, Sores? Why have the life twisted out of you by Dyspepsia, Rheumatism and Gout? Why suffer Syphilitic and Mercurial diseases to rot the bones in your body, or the flesh off your bones? Why let your sluggish blood drag and scatter its distempers through your veins? Ayer's Cure, Ex't. of Sarsaparilla cures these complaints, and cleanses them out of the system. Use it faithfully and you bring to society a healthier, cleanlier, and far more acceptable member.—Democrat, Baltimore, Md.

It is a common observation that there are more sufferers from debility, among Americans, than can be found among any other civilized nation. The reason is obvious. We take too little exercise, and forget the wants of the body in the absorbing pursuits of business. In all such cases, ordinary medicines can do little good. What is required is just such a tonic and invigorator as Dr. J. Hostetter has given to the world, in his Celebrated Bitters." The weak and nervous denizen of the counting house, the exhausted toiler upon the shop board, and the prostrated student of the midnight lamp, have found a wonderful regenerator in the Bitters," and prefer it to more pretentious, but less reliable medicines.—But it should not be forgotten that the agent which is so magical in its influence upon a frame which is merely debilitated, is equally powerful in exerting nature to expel the most terrible form of disease. Who would not give it a trial?

Interesting from Utah Territory.—Our advices from Utah are to October 5. Hon. W. H. Hooper, delegate to Congress, accompanied by his wife, had left Salt Lake city for Washington, and with him had departed the last of the Mormon missionaries for the States and Europe. Among the missionaries were three of the "Twelve Apostles"—Orson Pratt, Erastus Snow and George Q Cannon—the first two destined for the States and the last for England. Five of the Twelve are now absent among the "Gentiles," working for the cause of Mormonism. An agricultural fair had been held at Provo, which was attended with considerable success, and another was in progress in Salt Lake City.—Captain Ruth, of the Indian Bureau at Washington, had arrived in the Territory, to look after the government property connected with the Indian agency of Dr. Forney.

☞Figs, of excellent quality, are raised every year at Mt. St. Mary's College, near Emmittsburg. Specimens were on exhibition at the late Agricultural Fair in Frederick.
