IN THE CHURCHES.

The Bible conference at Mountain Lake Park, Maryland, will again this year be conducted by The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago under the leadership of the Rev. James M. Gray, D. D. The dates are August 14-20. Because of the unusual success of the conference last year, the request was unanimous that the institute again have charge of it. The program which will be announced later will offer many of the best known Bible teachers and preachers of the conutry.

The Ladies Aid Society of Christ M. P. Church is preparing to hold a strawberry and ice cream festival in the Toulson vacant store room on High street on Friday evening June 2, 1916.

Mr. Albert Wheat lead the Christian Endeavor Society in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening, and conducted a very enjoyable and helpful meeting.

Rev. Charles M. Elderdice, pastor of Second Methodist Protestant Church, Pittsburgh and Rev. Frank T. Benson, pastor of Crisfield M. P. Church are prominently mentioned as successor to Rev. Dr. F. T. Tagg, the retiring ed-editor of the Methodist Protestant. The General Conference now in session at Zanesville, Ohio, will elect Dr. Tagg's successor.

Children's Day service will be held at Locust Grove Methodist Church Sunday evening, May 28, at 8 P. M. A special program has been prepared. All invited.

Mr. Geo. R. Crowther, of Washington College, delivered an address before the Young Men's Club of the M. E. Church Wednesday evening.

The Christian Association of Washington College will hold their closing exercises during commencement week in the M. E. Church on the evening of Sunday, June 18.

The Young Men's Club of the M. E. Church has in view a lecture of extraordinary interest the latter part of this month. If arrangements materialize they will present a speaker who had the good fortune to take the trip on the "Ford Peace Expedition." His experiences on this trip, as well as his sojourn abroad, afford abundant material for a most delightful and instructive evening.

The unification of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was endorsed almost unanimously by the Methodist General Conference last week. The conference adopted the report of the committee on unification, which provides for further negotiations with the Southern Church, paving the way for final action by the General Conference of the Southern Church in 1918 and by the Northern Church's General Conference in 1920.

Seven new bishops have been elected at the Methodist Episcopal General Conference, viz: Dr. Herbert Welch, of Ohio; Dr. M. S. Hughes, of California; Dr. Nicholson, of New York; Dr. W. F. Oldham, of New York; Dr. C. B. Mitchell, of Chicago; Dr. Franklin Hamilton, of Washington; Dr. A. W. Leonard, of Washington.

Still Pond Grange.

The following interesting program was given at Still Pond Grange on Tuesday evening of last week when Mother's Day was honored by the Grange. Instrumental Music, Mrs. Harris and Miss Tull; Origin of Mother's Day, Mrs. Kelley; Mother's Prayer, Messrs. Jervis, Fogwell, Schofield, Rasin; Recitation, the Bravest Battle, Miss Hackett; Reading "Mother", Mrs. Price; Recitation, The White Carnation, Bessie Taylor; Solo, Mother McCree, Numbers; Solo, Leslie Schofield; Duett, Mother, Mrs. Shallcross and Miss Price; Talk on Mother, Mr. Nichols; Duett, Love's Old Sweet Song, Messrs. Wroth and Hanson Stavely; Music, Ladies Quartette, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Shallcross, Mrs. Schofield, Miss Price; Paper "Mother", Mrs. Moore; Solo "Mother", Mr. Wroth Stavely; Instrumental Duett, Mrs. Schofield and Mrs. Rasin; Music, Male Quartette; Solo, "The Old Songs Mother Sang", Mrs. Harris.

General Conference Notes.

At the General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church now in session in Zanesville, Ohio, Daniel Baker, of Baltimore, offered a resolution providing for a salary of $3000 a year for the president who should devote all his time to church work and create a cabinet, consisting of ministerial and lay members to assist him. It is said that the plan will be adopted. Dr. L. H. Davis, of Pittsburgh, was re-elected president. The conference favored the consolidation of the publishing interests of the conference, though in deference to the Maryland and other Eastern conferences the matter was left in the hands of a committee. A proposal was also made to create a board of control which shall provide a superannuated ministers fund and have charge of it.

Marvelous Demonstration of Dog's Affection.

The great affection a dog has for its master was witnessed by certain Havre de Graceans during the past week. A Chesapeake bay dog belonging to Wm. F., the 14-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Abbott, who died Monday of last week, died suddenly. Before Billy was stricken with pneumonia, the baby and the dog would play for hours during the day, and when the little boy got sick the dog seemed changed. When death came to the little fellow the dog refused to eat, and when members of the family would try to force the canine to take food he would rebel. Sunday morning Mr. Abbott found the dog dead on the door step. It was evident he had come to death from grief.—Havre de Grace Ledger.
