SPRING DISPLAY OF J & K SHOES

EASTER HATS in GREAT VARIETY

Man Easter Hats (om here have already been delivered; many more have been selected and are now in our workroom receiving the finishing touches.

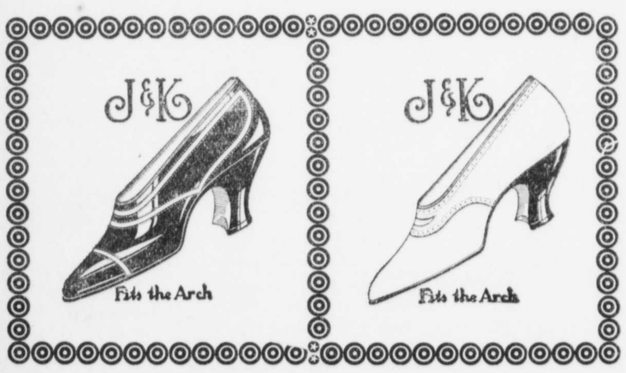
For ou who have not yet bought we are placing in our showroom new, fresh creations every day. We are specially prepared with Ready-Trimmed Hats for the purchaser who comes the last hour before Easter.

EASTER RIBBONS

You will need new Ribbons for Easter. Our stock of all widths and colors of Ribbons is larger than ever before. We are glad to state that we bought these goods early before the rise in prices and we give you the benefit of our prices which are much below their market value.

Excellent Hair-Bows, 25c yard.

PERT, SNAPPY J. & K. PUMPS



We invite you to call and inspect our remarkably fine showing of Spring Footwear. Try on a pair of our Pumps—compare them with any you have worn in fitting, comfort and appearance.

The styles pictured are only two of the exquisite creations which are delighting everyone who sees them.

We have in stock all sizes from 1½ to 9, in widths A to E, and, of course, can fit almost every woman's foot in the county.

THE J&K SHOE FITS THE ARCH — THE J&K SHOE FITS THE ARCH — THE J&K SHOE FITS THE ARCH

Fairlee Notes.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee, entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of Union M. E. Church, Worton, on Friday P. M., May 19th. About forty ladies were present. Original poems, suitable to the occasion, recitations, readings and music, and ice cream and cake made it a very happy event. The Salem society has received and accepted an invitation to return the visit on July 6th.

Children's Day in Salem M. E. Church next Sunday night, May 28th. Special music will be rendered, and the children are preparing for it with much pleasure.

On June 4th the new District Superintendent, Rev. W. A. Wise, will preach in Salem M. E. Church in the morning. At night it will be Children's Day services at Union M. E. Church at Worton. No services in the P. M.

Mr. James Leach and wife and son, Harold; Mr. Clarence White and wife, and Mr. Raymond White motored from Wilmington, Del., and spent the week-end at the parsonage.

Millington Items.

Asbury M. E. Sunday school is rehearsing for its Children's Day service which it expects to hold Sunday evening, June 4.

Mrs. Maria Bamberger visited her granddaughter, Mrs. John E. Wiest, near town, this week.

Mr. Joseph Mallalieu has resigned as cashier of Millington Bank and will be succeeded by Mr. W. I. Jarvis; Mr. Jarvis will be succeeded as clerk by Miss Marguerite Ahern. The change will take place about the first of July.

Services at Asbury M. E. Church tomorrow, May 28, will be as follows: 10.30 A. M. and 8 P. M., preaching by the pastor, Rev. G. P. Smith; 1.45 P.M., Sunday school, subject: "The Council at Jerusalem." Friday, 8 P. M., prayer meeting.

Mrs. Nina Wiest, of Philadelphia, was the guest last week at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. John H. Wiest, near town.

Mrs. Kate R. Tonkin returned last Tuesday to her home in Wilmington, after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. C. M. Hurtt.

Prof. A. L. Greenwood spent the week-end with friends in Chestertown.

Miss Pearl Kellam, of Philadelphia, is visiting Miss Ruby Ahern.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of Asbury M. E. Church met on Thursday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Fred Lee.

Betterton Notes.

Children's Day service will be held in the M. E. Church to-morrow evening at 7.30 o'clock. There will be no preaching service in the afternoon.

The supper and bazaar of the M. E. Church last week was very successful. Over a hundred dollars was taken in—about $73 from the supper and festival and $28 from the bazaar, which was for the "building fund."

The members of the Episcopal Church are holding a bazaar and festival in the skating rink this evening. The proceeds are for their new chapel which they expect to start in the summer.

Work has begun on the Catholic Church. It is to be made of Port Deposit granite and will be completed about the first of October.

Mr. Ellis and family have moved into the Idlewhile Hotel which he has recently purchased from Mr. A. H. Suplee.

The election for town commissioner will be held this afternoon. The candidates for the office are Messrs. Edwin Myres, Alex. Mair and A. H. Suplee.

Miss Myrtle Tull, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with her mother in Betterton.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Owens, Mrs. Bayard Crew and Miss Grace Tull motored to Harrington last Sunday.

Miss Hazel Crew is spending some time with friends in Baltimore.

Mr. R. S. Turner and family have moved in Mr. Jack Jester's house on Bayside. Mr. Jester has moved to Wilmington.

Mr. Burton Pence, who is attending school in Baltimore, spen. the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Thos. Brice.

Rock Hall Items.

School closes here on the 16 of June.

The High School pupils will put on a little Colonial Drama for the benefit of the school on the night of June 1st. This is a play that has taken great work on the part of the players and should be attended to be appreciated.

John Ashley and Burke Wheatley went to Chester last Monday with Billy Clayton who was in Rock Hall for the weekend.

The current reports regarding school teachers and the measels was not correct in any particular. It would be a good idea for these busy bodies to attend the patrons meeting or have a bulletin made out for their special benefit. The people of this town have taken more interest in school affairs, that is to be annoying and stir up sentiment, than ever before. If you can't help don't hinder!

An Epworth League has been started in connection with the M. E. Church.

Mrs. Minnie Willson has greatly improved her property by a fresh coat of paint.

Shad fishing this season was way behind that of last year.

Sterling Crouch has gone away for the summer. He has again accepted a position with Mr. Stein, the amusement man, at Gwinn Oak.

Dedication exercises at the New School will be announced in a few days.

Prof. Greenhawk and A. R. King will again open Camp McAlpin for the benefit of Baltimore and Kent county scouts who may wish to attend. This sport, at the local headquarters of the Rock Hall troop, is one of the prettiest to be found anywhere. Good water, good bathing and good eats. Expert directors in all branches of scouting and a good time in general is to be had there. Thirty five acres just made f r scouts!

Geo. Biddle has repainted his pretty home on Main street.

Geo. Downey has opened up the room next to the Postoffice where he will conduct an ice cream and soft drink parlor.

Sterling Downey, our estimable barber, has decided not to move to Baltimore. Good! He might as well stay as every body else is moving to Chester.

An organizer of the Modern Woodman has been in town for the past few weeks. He has written up several new members and will get more.

State Taxes Due July 1.

Stricter laws affecting the collection of State taxes were enacted by the last Legislature. The discount feature which appealed to many taxpayers was abolished entirely. Taxes due the State will in the future be payable on July 1st and after September 1st interest will be charged. After January 1st of the year following the County Treasurer shall proceed to collect the State taxes as provided for by law according to a letter from State Comptroller McMullen to the Board of County Commissioners due notice of which will be given later.
