DECORATION DAY.

Decoration Day was more generally observed in Chestertown on Tuesday than for many years. Public buildings, stores and private residences were decorated with O'd Glory, the Grand Army of the Republic remembered its dead, and the automobile parade and matinee races at Radcliffe Park drew a crowd of people to Chestertown. There were twenty or more contestants in the auto parade, which in every respect was a credit to the town and the association. $37.50 were divided into four prizes for the best decorated car. The judges—Miss Merrick, of Sudlersville; Miss Woodall, of Georgetown, and Mr. Harry Griffith, of Sassafras, awarded first prize, $20 in gold, to Miss Isabelle Perry, whose pretty car was handsomely decorated in white flowers very artistically arranged. Mr. D. B. Ford won second price, $10 in gold; Mr. Merrick Clements, third, $5, and Mr. Howard Owens, of Betterton, fourth, $2.50. A unique feature of the parade was the handsome car of Mr. Clifton L. Jarrell, whose occupants were himself, his wife, his mother-in-law and his eight interesting children. Others who deserve especial mention for pretty decorations were: Mr. George Rash, Mr. A. S. Turner, Mrs. J. Biddle Hossinger, Mr. Owen C. Smith, Frank Turner, Mrs. Scott Beck, Mr. A. L. Sparks, and last, but by no means least, Mr. Maxwell Blakeney, with a Zepplein airship suspended from two gaily decorated columns attached to his car.

The Greensboro band furnished excellent music both for the parade and races. A game of base-ball between Chestertown and Centreville preceded the racing at Radcliffe Park, resulting in a victory for Chestertown by the score of 10 to 1. Unfortuately rain spoiled what promised to be one of the best race matinees ever seen at the Park. There were four excellent races carded, but only two heats in three races were run off. These were split heat races, and the fastest time of the afternoon was 2.16¼, made by Twinkle March, in George Sutton's Worton stables, who dropped the first heat to R. J. McWhorters's Pony Boy in 2.19½. It is much to be regretted that the races could not be finished, as every heat was hotly contested. Mr. John Mallalieu was kicked by one of his horses the day before the matinee and was prevented from driving, but Mr. George Bell handled the reins over Mr. Mallalieu's entries and drove like a veteran. The summary of the races is as follows:

CLASS A—TROT.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

We wish to notify the people of Kent county that our farm, hotel and personal property is not for sale, which was advertised for two weeks. We knew nothing of the affair whatever until the advertising was done. We were sued on notes that we had indorsed for a builder that I had worked for. When the notes were due he did not pay them, they were sent to Mr. Scott Beck, of Chestertown, for collection, and the results were my place was advertised for sale without any notice whatever. We also wish to state that if there is anyone in Kent county that we owe anything, if they will be kind enough to send a bill to 301 E. North avenue, Baltimore, Md., we will be very glad to send them a check for same. We expect to be open for business June 10th.
