SUMMER HATS IN ABUNDANCE

This is the time to make your selection of Summer Hats—Panamas, Sport Hats, etc. And, too, if you are in need of a hat to replace the one you bought in early Spring, a good assortment still is here.

Shoes that Fit & Give Comfort while they wear

The fact that our old customers come back to buy and that new customers are added daily to our lists gives strength to the statement that the Shoes we sell are above the ordinary class of Shoes. We invite you to visit our Shoe Department and see just what we have to offer. It will be to your advantage to do this.

Our Summer Shoes were bought six months ago, and we are in a position to protect you in regards to recent sharp advances in prices.

Still Pond Notes.

Last Sunday was a day long to be remembered on the record of Still Pond Church. Dr. E. L. Hoffecker, former District Supt. of the Wilmington District, preached for us in the morning and District Supt. W. A. Wise preached in the evening. Both preached to large audiences.

Dr. Hoffecker was entertained while in town by his cousin, R. Goldey Warren and wife, Dr. Wise was cordially looked after by Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Bennett at their home near Still Pond. Come to see us soon again, gentlemen.

A birthday dinner was given Sunday in honor of Mr. Carl Norris. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norris and son, Thomas, Mr. Wilson Capps, Mrs. Sallie Norris and daughter, Miss Mabel, Mrs. George Norris, Mrs. Laura Birch, Mrs. M. F. Sutton and Mrs. Harvy Watkins and son, William, of Betterton, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ford and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ford spent Sunday at Chesterville with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ford.

Miss Ethel Robinson spent the week-end with her cousin in Baltimore, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davis, and son, Thomas, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis visited their sister Mrs. J. W. Robinson, Jr., last Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. R. P. Nichols, Mrs. William Medders and Mr. Leslie Schofield, attended the commencement exercises this week at the Conference Academy at Dover, Del.

Mr. William Medders made a business trip to Baltimore on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Quite a number of the young people of our town attended the Children's Day Exercises, at Betterton and Kennedyville, last Sunday evening. The report from both places was that they will be hard to excell.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Moore, and interesting daughter, Jesse, spent Wednesday and Thursday of the past week in Baltimore. While there they attended the celebration of Mr. Moore's brother's 21st birthday.

Children's day wil be observed in the Church here to-morrow, Sunday evening. The committee has been working hard training the children for several weeks and a first class program is looked for, so one and all be sure to come out and hear the little ones.

There was no meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society on Wednesday, June 7, on account of bad weather. The society will meet on Wednesday next, June 14, at 2.30 P. M., at the home of Mrs. Sallie B. Parrott. All members are requested to be present.

The weekly meeting of Still Pond Grange will be held in the grange hall every Tuesday evening at 7.30 during the summer months.
