Prisoners Break Jail.

Dick Downs and Charles Ellis, colored, held on the charge of horse stealing around Galena and Golts, and "Buddie" Rattler, a notorious character, who was sent to jail early Monday night for disturbing the peace, broke jail on Tuesday morning between one and five o'clock. The prisoners made their escape by prying the frame of the bath room window off in the second story and letting themselves down by means of a rope made of their bed blankets. They used a part of the iron window bars to pry off the window frame. As soon as Sheriff Hadaway learned of the escape of the prisoners he notified all the towns between here and Wilmington to be on the lookout, and started his deputy and the county constables on the search. Two of the prisoners were seen going out Washington avenue about one o'clock on Tuesday morning, but nothing was seen of Rattler. Downs and Ellis were arrested in Wilmington some months ago at the instigation of Constable Frank Lockerman for stealing horses and frightening the people of the upper section of the county, and their arrest was believed to be the end of a series of thefts that had been giving no end of trouble. For this reason Sheriff Hadaway will exert every effort effort to recover the prisoners.

Rattler was caught at Rock Hall by Deputy Mark A. Perkins on Wednesday just as he was about to board a boat for Baltimore. He was returned to the Chestertown jail. Ellis was caught on Wednesday afternoon in the forest near Massey and returned to jail. Downs is still at large.

Mrs. Wm. H. Brown has one of the most beautiful displays of asters, dahlias, wool flower, etc., in her pretty yard on Queen street, we have seen this season. Mrs. Brown is a great lover of flowers, and she is one of our most successful growers.
