Hog Cholera Items.

Mr. John S. Vandegrift states that he sold his hog cholera remedy to two customers within a short time after the TRANSCRIPT came out last Saturday. Mr. Vandegrift's remedy has been successfully tried by quite a number of Kent and Queen Annes farmers.

Dr. G. Allen Jarman was called to Poole's Island on Tuesday to immunize the hogs of Mr. Bobb, the tenant. He brought back several baskets of fine peaches which were grown in the profitable orchard.

Mr. Edgar S. Davis, of Locust Grove, is advertising a sure preventive of hog cholera. Mr. Davis, the Rawleigh man, as he is familiarly known, says he has never known the Rawleigh medicine to fail as a preventive of the plague.

Hog cholera is making its arrearance in many sections of the Maryland, Delaware Peninsula.

Chautauqua Officers.

A meeting of the Chautauqua guarantors was held in the directors room of the Kent County Savings Bank on Monday evening. The business of the past year was audited and the year's work was brought to a successful close. The old officers had done their work so faithfully and well that they were unanimously elected for the ensuing year. These officers deserve the highest praise for the successful manner in which last year's Chautauqua was conducted, and they justly deserve the compliment bestowed. They are as follows : President, Wm. F. Russell; secretary, M. Wilbur Thomas; treasurer, Thomas S. Bordley. The guarantors for next year number about 78 and every town in the county and nearby Queen Annes is either at present or will shortly be represented on the list.
