DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President:
WOODROW WILSON.

For Vice-President:
THOMAS R. MARSHALL.

For United States Senator:
HON. DAVID J. LEWIS, of Allegany County.

For Congressman from First District:
HON. JESSE H. PRICE, of Wicomico County.

MR. HUGHES, the Republican candidate for President, is still complaining

THE conditions in the states of New York, Indiana, Michigan, Pennsylvania and other states in the Republican party makes chances very bright for a Democratic victory in November.

SENATOR CUMMINS, of Iowa, one of the leading Progressives in the United States Senate, in a letter the other day to a friend ridiculed candidate Hughes' criticism of the Child Labor Law, recently passed by Congress.

THE New York Tribune, the leading Republican newspaper in the country, refuses to support Governor Whitman, the Republican candidate for Governor, and there is such a split in the Republican party that New York is sure to be in the Democratic column in November.

THE Republican Old Guard have got Candidate Hughes and Teddy Roosevelt completely captivated. They have them just where they want them now. Mr. Progressive, you who could not stand the rule or ruin policy of the standpatters in 1912, will they get you on election day?

IT HAS been ascertained by actual analysis of the recent vote in Maine, that in every town in Maine where Mr. Hughes spoke prior to the primaries, the gain in the Democratic vote was from 500 to 1000 with the exception of two places, where the Republican gain was 23 and 61. In Lewiston, where Roosevelt made his only speech, the Democratic gain was 800.

THE New York World says that the one great cry of the Republican campaign leaders is "Money, More Money." It states that the present campaign of the Republicans is to eclipse the halcyon days of the late Mark Hanna, and that the most astounding condition in the history of the world is being created by the Republicans in their efforts to defeat President Wilson with money.

IT will not be the fault of the rank and file of the Democratic party if Maryland fails to give President Wilson a big majority in November and elect a solid delegation to Congress. There is not the slightest doubt of President Wilson getting a big majority. The people here are with Wilson and they will resent bitterly the injection of the sectional issue into the campaign by the Republicans.

THE Republican campaign orators are travelling over the country endeavoring to scare the laboring class as to what they say will happen to American labor after the war. One of the leading Republican newspapers in the country stated editorially the other day that after the war is over there will be a mighty emigration in this country to fill the places in foreign countries of those who have been killed in war. This newspaper told the truth.

THIS country will never be at war with other nations so long as Woodrow Wilson remains in the White House. He is the greatest statesman this country has produced since the days of Lincoln. If you put Wilson out and Hughes in, what will become of our country? The standpatters will get control of the machinery, and every time the Willie Hursts crack their whips the country will rush to war with Mexico to protect 'My Ranch."

REGISTRATION DAYS this year are October 3d and October 10th. October 17th is for revision only. Every young man who will be 21 years old before election day, November 7th, has a right to register and vote. We urge every one to give this matter your attention. Be sure to get your transfer if you have moved from one district or precinct or county to another, and do not let any thing deter you from being able to cast your vote for Wilson and Marshall, and for Lewis for United States Senator and for Jesse D. Price for Congress. Remember the dates.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S speech in Baltimore on Monday before the National Grain Dealers' Association was a masterpiece. The President, as usual on such occasions, displayed his good judgment by refusing to talk politics, and gave a great argument in reference to the great future business interests of the country. He received a most enthsiastic greeting, and the Lyric was packed to the doors, and thousands cheered him from Union Station to the Lyric. One old gray haired man wanted to grasp the President's hand, declaring that he is the greatest man in the world.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

Mr. Earle F. Dodson, a well-known young man of Chestertown, and Miss Anna E. Cole, an attractive young lady of Wilmington, were married at the Presbyterian parsonage at Kennedyville Monday evening by Rev. Mr. Clewse They will reside in Chestertown, where Dodson is engaged as a carpenter.
