Fall Goods Are Here

NEW MILLINERY

Come and see our new Hats. The display, we feel sure, will delight you and the reasonable prices will please you. Remember, the first shoppers have the largest assortment to select from.

NEW SHOES

The prices of first-class shoes is the great problem this season. We have not sacrificed the quality in our shoes to make popular prices, but we do say that we prepared ourselves for this situation and are in a position to offer excellent shoes at only a slight increase of price. In fact, the shoes we had already in stock (up-to-date styles, too,) will be sold at original prices.

Prices $1.50 to $7.50 Pair.

NEW DRESS GOODS

We claim to have the largest stock of Fine Dress Goods in the county. Come and see for yourself.

THE LADIES' STORE,

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. Mary A. Hynson, widow of the late A. J. Hynson, of this town, and one of our most estimable women, died last Saturday at the Church Home and Infirmary, Baltimore. The deceased was a most estimable woman and had a host of friends who sympathize with her family in their bereavement. Mrs. Hynson was a member of Emmanuel P. E. Church and belonged to a number of charitable organizations, in which she did much good. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Lillian Carpenter, of New York, and Mrs. Bertha Gerker, of New Hampshire. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Ruth A. Cahall, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Jennie Moody; and one brother, Mr. S. Q. Moody, of Anne Arundel county. The remains were brought to Chestertown by train on Monday. Funeral services were held in Emmanuel P. E. Church on Tuesday morning, conducted by Rev. Dr. Henry B. Martin. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Wm. R. Pippin, W. Bradford Copper, Allan A. Harris, Dr. A. S. Hall, James G. Beck and M. A. Toulson. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mr. Wm. H. Thompson, one of Still Pond's most highly respected citizens and prominent business men, died very suddenly on Thursday evening, after a short illness of apoplexy, aged 58 years. Mr. Thompson was sitting on his porch in conversation with his wife when his head fell forward and he became unconscious and died a few hours later without rallying at all. He leaves a widow, who was a Miss Jewell before marriage, also six sons, Wm. H., Jr., and Earl, of Still Pond; Clarence H., a shoe merchant of Rock Hall; Carlton, of Philadelphia; and Jewell, of Blue Ridge Summit, Pa.; also Norman, of Betterton; and two daughters, Mrs. F. Ford, of New York, and Mrs. John Jarvis, of Still Pond.

Funeral services will take place from his late home in Still Pond to-morrow, Sunday afternoon, at half past one o'clock, Rev. R. F. Nichols, pastor of the church of which he was a member, officiating, and interment will be in Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen will have charge of the funeral arrangements, and the bearers will be the six sons of the deceased.

MR. JOHN WRIGHT

Col. Samuel L. Wright received a telegram on Wednesday stating that his brother, Mr. John Wright had died on Tuesday at his home in Oakland, California. Col. Wright states that his brother had been sick some weeks ago but had recovered and though the particulars of the death are not known it is believed that Mr. Wright died suddently of apoplexy. He was about 64 years old. Mr. Wright was a wealthy mine owner. He held controlling interest in oil wells, gold and silver mines, and was regarded as one of the richest men in his home city. He never married. His nearest relatives are his brother, Col. Wright and a nephew. Col. Wright's daughter, Mrs. Endress, and four children, left on Wednesday afternoon by train for Philadelphia where they will entrain for California. They were accompanied as far as Philadelphia by Col. Wright, who will return to Chestertown and arrange his business affairs so as to leave for California later.

Charles Albin, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Hill, died at the home of his parents on last Sunday morning aged eight months. Funeral was held on Tuesday morning at half past ten o'cleck, Rev. Schewer of Kennedyville, M. P. Church officiating. Interment was in Still Pond cemetary. Undertaker, W. H. Krusen in charge.

T. Alexander Lamb died at the home of his half-brother, Mr. Chas. M. Vickers, Broad Neck, last Saturday, aged 64 years. Funeral was held Sunday, services conducted by the Rev. Dr. Dickerson; interment at St. Paul's cemetery. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of burial arrangements. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Chas. M. and Samuel Vickers, William Shriley, Frank and Milton Maslin and Thomas W. Trew.

Mr. Jos. Metcalfe, father of Mr. Jas. Metcalfe, of Chestertown, died suddenly Sunday night at his home on South Church street, Sudlersville. He had been suffering from heart trouble for months, but seemed as bright as usual until an hour or so before his death. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, in St. Andrew's P. E. Chapel, interment in cemetery. Besides a widow he leaves six children, three sons and three daughters.

Miss Ruby Ahern visited friends in Chestertown last week.

Mrs. John Woodall and Mrs. Mary Manning are visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

We respectfully urge the Board of Town Commissioners to instal an additional electric light on Washington avenue, between the home of Mr. James H. Brice and Kent Circle. It is one of the darkest spots in the town, and so frequently the light in front of the home of Mr. James Brice is burned out that it makes travel on that part of the avenue dangerous on a dark night. An additional light will prevent an accident some time.
