LOCAL MATTERS

Star Bingen Sold.—Former Sheriff Wm. H. McKee has sold to Mr. W. M. Beatley, of Horsehead, Va., his fine stallion Star Bingen. While the price paid is private, it is reported that the price was close to $500. Star Bingen is 10 years old, and has a trial of 2.20. He is the sire of Billy Bingen who was second in 2.12¾ at Cumberland week before last.

New Industry in Kent.—Mr. Howard Walker of Pennsylvania, with headquarters at Locust Grove, has started a new industry in Kent county, which is the most novel venture we have heard of. Mr. Walker advertises in this issue to buy dead horses and cows. He will pay $1 per carcass and remove same promptly. Mr. Walker states that this has proven a profitable business in Pennsylania. The carcass of the animals is sold for fertilizer, while the skins are sold at good profit. Read Mr. Walker's adv. on the front page for some interesting information.

"Harvest Home and Home Coming," Kennedyville M. P. Church.

Knowing that a great many were unable to attend the service last Sunday and thinking they might be anxious to know something about the day's service I will endeavor to give a reproduction of the sermon preached by the pastor, Rev. Peter Schauer. The text is John 4th, chapter 35, 36. "Say not ye, there are yet four months, and then cometh the harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes and look on the fields; for they are white already to the harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together." When Christ spoke these words he was refering to the harvest of souls. The field, which is the world, is white and ready to harvest souls, are to be brought into the fold, and God has given all christians a wotk to do, andthat work is to gather in those who are seeking salvation, which was accomplished by the death of Christ on Calvary's cross. Oh! that the christians may be awakened from their slumbers and go out in this great harvest field to work for the Master, so that the church, which is Christ's bride, may soon be completed. As we look upon the good things which have been brought in from the field through man's labor, we can only find that without God's help nothing could be grown, as He who gives the increase watches over every little seed that is sown and nourishes every sprout as it breaks through the ground and after several months we have the beautiful grain. May we be ready then to gather in that which God has given, and so He has given His precious word, for His children to sow in good ground, and may we be about our Father's business, even as Christ said. Our work will not be in vain, as a reward is in store for those who do not grow weary in well doing. May we not pass by on the other side as did the Priest and Levite, but take the part of the good Samaritan and bind up the wounds of the needy and help those who are in need of spiritual food. What great rejoicing there will be when the day of Home Coming arrives and the results of our labors are seen in the great home of our eternal rest, where the ransomed hosts of God are gathered around the throne of Christ, when we shall clasp each others hand and receive the glad welcome "home" from One who loved us and gave Himself for us.

In the evening Mr. W. T. Hague had charge of the Christian Endeavor Rally. Some very appropriate music was sung and some very fitting remarks were made by the pastor and Mr. Hague. Misses Mabel Norris and Helen Silcox recited beautiful recitations.—At the close of the service the male quartette, Messrs. Pennington, Bramble, Hague and Othoson, sang "Some Time, Some Where, God Will Make all Things Right."

Mrs. Carroll Hazazar, of Baltimore, is visiting frinds in the county.

May we Profit by This.

At an old fashion Democratic rally in Baltimore county on Wednesday evening former State Senator J. S Biddison, a bitter political enemy of Congressman Talbott, made a strong speech in behalf of Mr. Talbott, both of whom were seated together on the stage. One of the most forceful and striking statements in Mr. Biddison's strong speech was this: "That whatever local differences may have taken place they were not to be considered in the coming election, as it is a national fight, and no true Democrat should think of what had happened locally." Senator Biddison urged every one present to vote for Talbott and Lewis and Wilson and Marsell. May we Democrats in Kent county profit by such sensible advice as well as as by the splendid example of Senator Biddison.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

After a week's serious illness, Perry C. Orem died at his residence, 1433 West Lanvale street, Baltimore, Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Orem had the distinction of being, in point of service, the oldest church organist in the city. He played his last service at First English Lutheran Church on Sunday, October 1, after a continuous service of 31 years. The deceased was for many years a resident of this town and had a host of friends here who regret to learn of his death. He was born in Baltimore and received his education in the public schools. He received his musical training from the best teachers in the city. He organized the Garland Musical Association in 1890, gave instructions to its 40 members and conducted their concerts for several years. Mr. Orem was a member of Concordia Lodge of Masons, a Knights Templar, a member of the Royal Arcanum and the Elks. His su vivers are a widow and three children, A daughter, Miss Beulah Orem, is assistant musical instructress in the city schools. He also leaves three brothers and two sisters (Messrs. Hugh S., William H. and Howard P. Orem; Mrs. William A. Webster and Mrs. William H. Bordley).

Mrs. Elizabeth Roeder, widow of the late John J. Roeder, died at the home of her son, Thomas Roeder, Church Hill, on Saturday night last, aged 79 years. She leaves one son, Thomas, of Church Hill, and three daughters, Mrs. Alex Mair, of Betterton; Mrs. Lottie Jones, of Philadelphia; and Mrs. Wm. Copper, of Wilmington. Funeral services were held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alex Mair, at Betterton, on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. Wm. Clews officiating, assisted by Rev. R. P. Nichols, of Still Pond. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge. Interment was in Still Pond cemetery. The bearers were: Messrs. James Roeder, Wm. Webb, J. A. Emerson, James T. Crew, John Roeder, Ralph Williams.

Mrs. George Walls died October 2 at her residence in Crumpton, in the 76th year of her age. Mrs. Walls had been in failing health for a year or more, and on last Saturday suffered a stroke of paralysis, which proved fatal. She is survived by two children, Mrs. James Archibald, of Kent, and Mr. Bruce Sparks, who is a member of the Board of Supervisors of Election for Queen Annes county. Funeral services were held Wednesday, October the 4th, at 2 o'clock P. M., Rev. Mr. Sterling officiating. Interment in Crumpton cemetery.

[COMMUNICATED.]

It is with sorrow we announce the death of our friend and fellow-citizen, Mr. B. M. Hazell, of Millington, who died suddenly after an illness of a few hours at his late home Sunday night, October 8, in the 69th year of his age. He leaves a widow, a son, Dr. B. Woodward Hazell, of Baltimore, two daughters, Miss M. G. Hazell (at home) and Mrs J. Reid Howze of Waycross, Ga., to mourn his loss. He will be greatly missed by his many friends. The funeral services were held at the Chapel of the Holy Cross Wednesday, October 11, at 2 P. M.

Mr. William J. Price, Sr. the Wealthiest man in Queen Annes county and one of Centreville's oldest residents, died on Monday. The deceased for years one of the leading business men of Queen Anne's and was prominent in all things that pertained to the welfare of his community. He was the father of Mr. Wm. J. Price, editor of the Centreville Observer, and for years was one of the most active and influential members of the Methodist Protestant Church.

W. C. T. U. Convention.

The annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held in Mt. Vernon M. E. Church, Baltimore, three days last week. The convention was one of the most enthusiastic and largely attended in the history of the union, and much good was accomplished by the convention. The principal speakers were: Daniel W. Cowling, Rev. Don S. Colt, Rev. Lincoln A. Ferris and S. S. Field, city solicitor of Baltimore city. The Kent county union reported the largest gain in membership and is banner county in the state. Those present from Kent were Rev. and Mrs. John White, Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mrs. Wm. T. Brown, Mrs. Kate Crew, Mrs. Ella Pennington, Mrs. M. E. Bryan, Mrs. I. R. Leaverton, Misses Anna Leaverton and Ida Crew.

OUR MERCHANTS.

The Edna Q. May Stock Company is booked to appear at the Lyceum Theater next week. This company has been playing for 52 consecutive weeks without a layoff. The leading lady, Miss May, and the manager Mr. Gould, are not strangers to Lyceum patrons as both have appeared here in the casts with the Mattice Stock Co. Manager Gould announces that great care has been taken in securing a company of excellent players to support Miss May and that a number of high class plays will be presented, every production mounted in elaborate style as to scenic electrical and mechanical effects. Feature vaudeville acts will be introduced between the acts. The engagement will open Monday night Oct. 16th, with the presentation of "The Sweetest Girl in Dixie," to be followed with the Mysterious Diamond Necklace, The Rosary, Dora Thorne and other well-known plays. The scale of prices will be within the reach of all.
