OUR DEATH RECORD.

Mr. George Spencer Comegys died suddenly on Monday afternoon at his home on High street, of heart failure, aged 56 years. Mr. Comegys had recently held a lucrative position at Carney's Point, N. J. He was taken sick on Wednesday following election day and come home on Saturday evening. It was thought that he was improving. He arose from his bed, started to walk across the floor when he fell dead. The deceased was the son of the late Nathaniel Comegys, of near Blacks, and for many years had been engaged in farming. He retired several years ago and removed with his family to Chestertown. The deceased was a gentleman of fine manner and genial disposition and he had a host of friends in the town and county who regret seriously to learn of his death. He leaves a widow, who before marriage was a Miss Cochran, of Del., and four daughters. He also leaves one brother, Mr. John M. Comegys, of near Blacks. Funeral services were held at his late home and in Shrewsbury Church on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin. Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the church. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements. The pall-bearers were: B. Spencer Sutton, Wm. S. Collins, John Newnam, Chas. Faulkner, Mr. Taylor, John M. Comegys, Jr.

Mrs. Henry C. Kennard died Sunday afternoon at the Maryland General Hospita , Baltimore, after an illness of two weeks from a complication of diseases. Mrs. Kennard was born on July 2, 1840, and was the daughter of the late Thomas Littleton Waters, of Somerset county, Md. Besides her husband she is survived by three sons, Dr. Henry Kennard, William Hanson and James Alfred Kennard.

The Kent county papers are asked to note the following death notice. On November 11, 1916 James M., aged 66 years, beloved husband of the late Anna P. Hampton. Funeral was held from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. William S. Gill, 3131 Greenmount avenue, Baltimore.

William Hanson Moore, the oldest commission merchant in Baltimore city died early Monday morning at his residence, 3627 Greenmount avenue, aged 78 years. He was born in Charles county, and was the son of Henry Alexander and Cloe Ann Hanson Moore. He was the father of Mrs. Hubard Pearce Ringgold.

POINT WON IN BAY BOAT CASE

Interstate Commerce Commission Sets Day For Hearing.

A dispatch from The Sun Burau at Washington says that merchants and shippers of Baltimore and the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia last week won an important point in their fight to have the Interstate Commerce Commission revoke its order divorcing the Pennsylvania Railroad from its control and operation of steamship lines from Baltimore to certain Eastern Shore sections under the Panama Canal act.

A hearing on the question whether or not the case shall be reopened for an entirely new investigation was fixed by the commission for December 2. The commission's action in ordering oral argument is unusual. Whenever petitions are filed for the reopening of cases the commission in 99 out of 100 cases acts without giving either side concerned an opportunity to argue the points involved. It shows that the commission is uncertain as to what shall be done.

The commission suspended its divorcement order last February until January 1.

The National Grange is in session in Washington, and quite a number of Kent county folks have been attending. Mrs. T. E. W. Crew has taken quite an active part in the proceedings. The gathering was addressod by President Wilson on Tuesday evening.

TIMOTHY SEED
Fine, new crop seed now in. Price lower than for several seasons. We bought at low market and can sell accordingly. Our seed show test on every bag.

FODDER YARN
Is very high and scarce. Much of the cheap yarn on the market this season is heavily soaked with oil or tar, making it heavy and necessarily expensive. Our goods are Fitler's Standard Sisal 21 oz. and long fibre. It always pays to buy the best. Let us book your order at present price, which is as low as it can be put in the house on present market.

ROOFING
Corrugated and Rubber Roofing. Can supply 26 guage Corrugated at close price. Rubber Roofings from $1.10 up, according to weight and quality.

Dr. Hess Remedies
This is a good time to feed Dr. Hess Remedies for your stock and poultry. Remember Dr. Hess is a skilled veterinarian and all his remedies are put up under his own prescription. If any of them do not do what is claimed return the empty package and get your money and no questions asked.
