IN THE CHURCHES.

St. James M. P. Church, H. B. Jester, pastor. Sunday school at 9.45 A. M., R. G. Nicholson, supt.; preaching at 11 A. M., subject, "The End of Those Who do Not Obey The Gospel." "Decision Day" Sunday. Christian Endeavor at 7 P. M. Lynch—Sunday school at 2.15 P. M. and preaching at 3. Twenty-six have joined St. James Church since the revival services last week.

Arrangements are being made by Christ M. P. Sunday school for an unusual and unique Christmas celebration this year.

Mr. Clinton C. Jones conducted an interesting service in the Christian Endeavor Society of Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening. The subject was "Why is Christianity the Hope of Our Country." Mr. Jones read an excellent article on the subject, and short talks were made by Messrs. W. Robert Huey, Charles N. Satterfield and T. D. Bowers. Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell and Mrs. Fred G. Usilton rendered a beautiful duett, and Mrs. George H. Cannan read an interesting scripture lesson.

The Young Men's Club, of Christ M. P. Church, will attend the service in a body to-morrow (Sunday) morning. The pastor, Rev. J. L. Ward, will preach a special sermon.

Prof. Newcomer, a lecturer of some prominence, spoke before the Young Men's Club of the M. E. Church yesterday evening at 7.45.

Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, pastor of Chestertown M. E. Church, was unanimounly asked to return as pastor at a meeting of the official board Friday evening of last week. Dr. Beauchamp and family have made many friends during their sojourn in our midst.

Thanksgiving Day Proclamation

President Wilson last Friday formally, by proclamation, designated Thursday, November 30th, as Thanksgiving Day.

"The year that has clapsed since we last observed our day of Thanksgiving has been rich in blessings to us as a people, but the whole face of the world has been darkened by war. In the midst of our peace and happiness, our thoughts dwell with painful disquiet upon the struggles and sufferings of the nations at war and of the peoples upon whom war has brought disaster without choice or possibility of escape on their part. We cannot think of our own happiness without thinking of their pitiful distress.

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do appoint Thursday, the 30th of November, as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer, and urge and advise the people to resort to their several places of worship on that day to render thank to Almighty God for the blessings of peace and unbroken prosperity which He has bestowed upon our beloved country in such unstinted measure.

"And I also urge and suggest our duty in this our day of peace and abundance to think in deep sympathy of the stricken peoples of the world upon whom the curse and terror of war has so pitilessly fallen and to contribute out of our abundant means to the relief of their suffering.

"Our people could in no better way show their real attitude toward the present struggle of the nations than by contributing out of their abundance to the relief of the suffering which war has brought in its train."

HOPE H. BARROLL, Attorney.

Order of Publication.

The Schwind Quarry Company, to the use, etc., vs. Peter H. Thumlert, et al.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity.

No. 1959.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of real estate in Kent county, Maryland, held by Carey H. Thumlert, and to apply the proceeds to the payment of the claims of the plaintiffs. The bill shows that the Schwind Quarry Company on the 15th of November, 1905, recovered in the Superior Court of Baltimore city judgment for $124.00 against Peter H. Thumlert, Harry E. Barnes, Noah T. Stirling, Robert J. Bateman and Andrew J. Power, which has been entered to the use of Harry E. Barnes; that Shepperd G. Miller on the 24th of May, 1905, recovered in the Baltimore city court judgment for $369.77 against the same defendants, which has been entered to the use of Leonard F. Stirling, and certified copies of said judgment have been filed in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Kent county, Maryland; that Harry E. Barnes is entitled to receive from Peter H. Thumlert, one of the defendants, one-fifth of judgment entered to his use, but has never received the same, and that Leonard F. Stirling has never been paid any part of the judgment entered to his use which he is entitled to recover; that Peter H. Thumlert on the 24th day of November, 1913, purchased a tract of land in Kent county, Maryland, known as the Fleischmann property for $1,050.00, and paid the entire purchase price, but because of the said judgments took the title thereto by deed from Michael S. Fleischmann and wife, dated 30th December, 1913, and recorded among the land record of Kent county, Maryland, in liber J. T. D. No. 26, folio 144, in the name of his son, Carey H. Thumlert, who knew that the object of so taking the title was to protect it from said judgments, yet consented so to take it; that the said Peter H. Thumlert has no other property; that the action of the said defendants was to hinder and delay the said judgment creditors of the said Peter H. Thumlert in the recovery of their claims, and was a fraud upon their rights.

It is asked that the said deed from Fleischmann and wife to Carey H. Thumlert may be construed to be to the use of the said Peter H. Thumlert; that the property so conveyed may be held to be the property of the said Peter H. Thumlert and made subject to the claims of his creditors; that a trustee may be appointed to sell said land and apply the proceeds under the supervision of this court. That the said Carey H. Thumlert is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, having been returned non est upon two subpoenas issued for him in this cause, the plaintiffs have been by an order of this court dated October 30th, 1916, authorized to proceed against him as a non-resident of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon, this 31st day of October, 1916, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, Maryland, in equity, that the plaintiffs, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 4th day of December, 1916, giving notice to the said absent defendant, Carey H. Thumlert, of the object and substance of this bill, warning him to appear in this court in person, or by solicitor, on or before the 20th day of December next, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

CONTINENTAL LIFE FEASTS.

Insurance Company Delightful Host to Policy Holders and Stock Holders in Wilmington.

While felicitating the Continental Life at its ninth anniversary luncheon, on Friday, in the Hotel du Pont, Wilmington, the speakers attributed the success of that insurance company to co-operation.

Two hundred and fifty policy holders and stockholders attended the luncheon, which was given in the Italian dining-room. The festal scene was photographed just before the first course was served, and an orchestra played while the officials and their guests were lunching.

Philip Burnet, president of the company, presided and presented the speakers. Governor Charles R. Miller of Delaware made an address of welcome, and Gevernor Emerson C. Harrington of Maryland responded.

In a brief address Mr. Burnet said the company recently received $1,000,000 in new insurance.

Governor Miller expressed appreciation of the invitation received by him and congratulated the company on nine years of remarkable growth. He said he performed a pleasant service in extending a warm welcome to the governor of Maryland, which he did on behalf of the citizens of Delaware and the officials of the company, and hoped Maryland's chief executive would visit Wilmington frequently.

Governor Harrington stated that he appreciated more than he could tell in words the hearty welcome extended by the governor of Delaware and he felt at home because many Eastern Shoremen were present. He commended the company and said he became one of its policyholders last year.

Hon. J. Harry Covington, Chief Justic of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia and a director of the company, made a felicitous address. While a Representative in Congress from Maryland he framed the Covington Trade Commission bill. He did not know whether he is a politican without a job or a judge holding onto the edge of politics. Since becoming Chief Justice he had lost some of the glory of being in politics. The Continental Life has a glorious gathering of picked men, he stated, and the company is justified in being egotistical, as it is on a co-operative basis and sound.

Alfred M. Best, president of the Alfred M. Best Co. of New York, publishers of Best's Insurance Reports, a recognized authority on insurance companies, said he had watched the development of young companies since the insurance upheaval of 1905—1906. Between 1905 and the end of last year 214 legal reserve life insurance companies were organized, representing an investment of $10,000,000. Of these companies 77 have quit business, and the stockholders lost between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000. He stated that the Continental Life had made a unique record—no company among the 214 he mentioned had done so well. He commended the co-operative plan of the Continental Life, which "has turned the corner" and has nothing in its way to hinder the development of the company.

James McFaddin ("Mack") Dick, aged 12 years of Salisbury, Md., who owns three shares of the company's stock, which he bought with his own savings, was given a silver loving cup offered by the company to the policyholders or stockholder through whose suggestions the largest amount of new insurance should be obtained in celebration of the ninth anniversary. Joshua W. Miles, collector of internal revenue for the Maryland-Delaware district and a director of the company, made a presentation speech, and the boy "accepted the gift with sincere appreciation." Mr. Miles attributed the success of the company to co-operation. He praised President Burnet and said the company has a splendid agency force.

Harvey L. Cooper, vice-president and director, predicted that the company will do $1,000,000 worth of business between now and December 31 next and $5,000,000 worth in 1917.

The luncheon was a delightful affair. Every city and town in Delaware and on the Eastern Shore was represented. The menu follows:

Bisque of Clams
Radishes Olives
Filet of Sole Vin Blanc
Potatoes Parisienne
Sirloin of Beef, Mushroon Sauce
Potato Rissole French Peas
Neapolitan Ice Cream
Assorted Cakes
Coffee

Among those at the speakers' table were: George H. Hall, secretary of the State of Delaware and a director of the company; James E. Ellegood of Salisbury, a director; George E. Saulsbury of Baltimore, vice-president and director; Dr. J. McFadden Dick, father of the winner of the anniversary; Albert M. Walls of Salisbury, who wrote the insurance resulting from "Mack's" suggestions; Thomas R. Wilson, insurance commissioner of Delaware; Wilson L. Coudon, deputy insurance commissioner of Maryland; Charles R. Churchman, secretary of the company.

Directors were represented by John S. Mullin, Jr., William F. Kurtz and Dr. Peter W. Tomlinson of Wilmington, Joseph L. Cahall of Georgetown, Dr. Hiram R. Burton of Lewes, Wilbur W. Hubbard of Chestertown, and de Coursey W. Thom of Baltimore.

Other officials and agents present were: John D. Kurtz, Daniel E. Jones, Archer C. Dean, Henry S. Young, C. E. Simpers, Clement W. Bowen, F. Milton Wells, John F. Hazel, Ellsworth C. Burt, William S. Carmine, Arthur B. Cheyney, J. Sheldon Davis, George A. Deakyne, James A. Fulton, James C. Godwin, Walter M. Graham, Harland W. Huston, R. Mahon, Thaddeus S. Hellinger, J. D. Mitchell, Thomas T. Nelson, Rudolph Nickel, Samuel G. Nuttle, John C. Shannahan, Frank V. Simpers, Frank H. Thompson, Carl C. Twigg, Dabney H. Wharton and Walter L. Wheatley.

The company took under consideration a request that the next anniversary luncheon be given in Baltimore.
