Thanksgiving Party.

A most delightful Thanksgiving party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Littleton Crew Wednesday, Nov. 22, from 3 until 6 o'clock, it being the tenth birthday of their son, Littleton T. Crew, Jr. The house was attractively docorated, the color scheme being red. The dining table was lighted by candelabra and candle sticks with red shades, narrow red ribbon reached from hanging lamp in center of room to each place card. A large white icing cake held ten red candles. The cake was brought from Pittsburg, Pa., by his grandmother, Mrs. John F. Green. The favors were small turkeys filled with candy. Several games were played. Jack Mason won first prize in the "Donkey Party" and Littleton Crew the booby. Refreshments consisted of fruits, nuts, candy, cake and grape juice. Those present were: Ethel Clark, Sara Harris, Elizabeth Crew, Virginia Owens, Clara Trott, Anna Crew, Katharine Wheeler, Edna Jester; Walter Crew, Jack Mason, John Owens, Arthur Harris, Reese Crew Howard Owens, Talbott Brice, Arthur Willis, Granville Warren, Horace Wheeler.
