IN THE CHURCHES.

Rev. W. V. Harris, a well-known member of the Wilmington Conference died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Melville Apsley, of Newark, Del., aged 63 years. He leaves a widow and two daughters.

Rev. J. M. Gill, a former pastor of Christ M. P. Church, will exchange pulpits with Rev. J. L. Ward to-morrow (Sunday). Dr. Gill will preach here morning and evening, and his many friends here will be delighted to hear him. Mr. Ward will fill Dr. Gills pulpit, West Baltimore M. P. Church.

Rev. J. L. Ward, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, is arranging to hold a Sunrise Prayer meeting on Christmas morning.

Rev. Dr. S. Reese Murray, of the Baltimore M. E. Conference, has been appointed pastor of Grace M. E. Church, one of the largest and most influential churches in Baltimore, to succeed Rev. Dr. Colquitt, who has retired on account of ill health. This is a fine compliment to the ability and fitness of Dr. Murray.

At a meeting of the M.E. Sunday school board held recently it was decided to hold the Christmas entertainment on Tuesday evening, December 26th. Committees were appointed to look after the program of music, recitation, etc. The Christmas tree, which will be under the supervision of Mrs. F. H. Russell, will be electric lighted and trimmed with gifts to the King.

A Junior Epworth League has been organized by the Chestertown M. E. Church. It meets every Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. W. A. Melvin, pastor of Lowe Memorial M. P. Church, Baltimore, during the eight months of his pastorate, has been most successful. He has reserved from the Carnegie fund one-half the amount to pay for a fine new pipe organ; he has purchased the residence adjoining the church to be used as a parsonage at a cost of $3,500, and has just closed a successful revival in which there were 100 conversions and 55 accessions to the church. This makes a total increase in the membership since last April of 155. This is a flattering record.

Dr. W. W. Davis, of the Lord's Day Alliance, delivered an address in Christ M. P. Church on Tuesday evening. After the address a general discussion took place and a committee was appointed to arrange for a general mass meeting of all those in the town and county who are interested in Sabbath observance in the near future.
