CARROLL UNION LEAGUE.

A Special Meeting of the League will be held at Carroll Hall, on to-morrow, (Friday) evening, at 6½ o'clock All the members are requested to be present as business of importance will be laid before them.

The Senatorial Farce Ended.

The election of a United States Senator by our Legislature, after ten days balloting, was terminated on Friday last by the election of Thomas Swann, who received sixty-six votes, and he was declared duly elected. Thus by bargain and sale, and other corrupt and degrading manœuvering has Mr. Swann's ambitious scheme been so far realized, but when it comes to be investigated, as it certainly will be, he may find that the honor conferred has been dearly bought.

He has waded through such a sea of mire; let himself down so low in the scale of corruption to accomplish his ends, that it would have been unnatural to expect any other result from the hands of men who were mere tools specially elected to carry out his bidding. Never in the history of this or any other State has there been such flagrant violation of all laws, and that too by the sworn Executive, to subserve his own purposes. He has triumphed thus far by fraud, by a most infamous ignoring of his official oath and it remains to be seen whether the Senate of the United States will admit him, when all the facts are known. It devolves upon Union men throughout the State to show these facts to the only body where they can be heard and investigated—the Senate of the United States. He has secured an election by a violation of the Constitution and laws of the State and if he gets his seat it will be the fault of the Union men. Shall we take the necessary steps at once to meet him face to face with his infamous course. Shall we go before the Senate and there confront him with the proof of a settled, deliberate, corrupt design to violate all law to secure this election?—Before the Legislature of Maryland we cannot hope to be heard, and do not desire to be if we could. But we can pursue him to the Senate and there ask for justice. How shall we do this, we answer by petitioning the Senate to investigate the legality of his election. Let us then be actively engaged in the meantime securing signers to petitions for this purpose. Let every Union man's name be signed praying for such an investigation. We know that the Democrats will bid us God Speed, we know, now that they have done all they can for him, got him out of the way that a contest must ensue upon this matter, and they care not how often or how hard he may be kicked or cuffed, they remember too well, the awls he drove into them upon former occasions, and they would be glad to see a few of them returned to him with interest.

Let us then not for their sake, not for the gratification of rebel spite, but for the vindication of law, of decency, of regard for official oaths, meet Swann, and contest with him before that honorable body his right to represent the State of Maryland.

Office Broker's in Haste.

We learn from thoroughly reliable sources that on Thursday last, as soon as the lamented Judge Brown grew worse, a caucus of the Democratic, Conservative, Swann Office Brokers was held for the purpose of recommending a successor for the anticipated (and doubtless hoped for) vacancy. But being unable to accommodate all the applicants, or even discriminate between their various merits, failed to come to any conclusion. On Sunday, however, a large number of the faithful assembled to witness the funeral ceremonies, when the caucusing was again resumed, and such button-holing, whispering and log-rolling has not been witnessed here for a long time, and this too while the funeral procession was moving to the grave. For a party claiming all the respectability, decency and consistency, we can but regard this as an act worthy of censure by every moral and well meaning citizen.

An Incorruptible Minority.

Amidst all the corruption that has overflowed Annapolis during the past three weeks in the progress of the consummation of the bargain and sale by which Mr. Swann has been made United States Senator, it is a matter both for pride and congratulation that no taint of dishonor or even sign of yielding to the dishonest inducements held out has attached to the Radical minority in either House. Not one man whom we claim as a Republican has flinched. Every effort that was made to break in upon their small but firm phalanx failed, and it was shown that there are at least some politicians who cannot be bought.

Decidedly Cool.

Several magistrates, and other judicial officers in the lower counties, have been refusing to receive negro testimony, in plain violation of the provisions of the Civil Rights Bill, and have been fined by the United States District Court. A bill is now before the Legislature (and will doubtless be passed) reimbursing these men for their expenses incurred in violating the law of the land!

The Constitutional Amendment.

The sentiment of the people in the loyal States, as expressed in most of the voting by the Legislatures on the ratification of the Constitutional Amendment, is of a very marked and significant character.—In the popular branch of the Nevada Legislature the vote stood yeas 34, nays 4.—In the same branch of the Maine Legislature the vote was 126 to 7. In the Kansas Legislature the House stood 75 to 7, and the Senate was unanimous for its passage. Every loyal State, except Delaware and Maryland, will ratify it with overwhelming majorities. Upon this question there is a marked unanimity of sentiment among the loyal people, and the Rebels would do well to make a note of it. The Constitutional Amendment is still offered to them; but, like the proposition of compensation for Slaves, it may be withdrawn, never to be offered again.

Maryland and Congress.

Hon. Hamilton Ward, of New York, on Monday last, introduced into the National House of Representatives the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, By the Constitution and the laws of the State of Maryland, persons who are disloyal to the Government of the United States, or gave aid and encouragement to the recent rebellion, are deprived of the elective franchise; and

Whereas, It is alleged that at the last election in the State of Maryland large numbers of the persons disqualified as aforesaid did vote for the Representatives in the Fortieth Congress and officers; and

Whereas, It is further alleged that armed forces of the United States were ordered by Federal authority to and did cooperate with the Executive authority of the State of Maryland, and others who are engaged with them in overriding the Constitution and laws as aforesaid, and in receiving the vote of Rebels and persons disqualified as aforesaid, and whereby loyal and qualified voters of Maryland were deterred from the free exercise of the elective franchise and from resisting and preventing the violation of the Constitution and laws aforesaid; therefore,

Resolved, That the Committee of Elections shall inquire into and report whether the Constitution and laws have been violated as aforesaid, and whether the President, or any one under his command, has in any manner interfered with the said elections, or has in any way used or threatened to use the military power of the nation with reference to the said election; and if so, whether it was upon the requisition of the Governor of Maryland; and the committee shall have power to send for persons and papers.

After some argument, in which Hon. Charles E. Phelps, member from Baltimore, violently opposed the resolutions, they were adopted by a vote of 103 to 35.

This will doubtless raise a storm of indignation among the Copperheads of Maryland, and, as in the days of 1861, we may expect to find our Legislature "protesting" against the "interference" of the National Government, and endeavoring to excite the people of the State by inflammatory appeals to their passions and prejudices. There is probably no man in Maryland but that regrets the necessity for such action as this by the National Congress towards our State, but that it is a necessity is being abundantly proved by the events now transpiring at Annapolis. Whatever may come of it, let it be understood that the responsibility lies with the party now dominant in our State.

True, we never expected much from the "Conservative" party of Maryland, but we never supposed that that portion of the party that once professed to hold to Union principles would so completely ally themselves with the Rebel party as has been shown by the votes of their representatives at Annapolis. All that Rebels demand is conceded; all that Union men petition for is refused. To please the Rebel party of the State, our whole system of Government is to be changed, old landmarks obliterated, the way to political distinction opened even to those who battled against our Government and State, and every safeguard that was wisely thrown around the ballot-box is to be swept away. The Union men of Maryland have asked the Legislature to investigate the proceedings of our Governor immediately preceding the late election; they have asked that the correspondence between him and the Government at Washington might be brought to light; they have asked that the representations made by Governor Swann to induce military interference in Baltimore, might be made known—but, afraid to risk such an investigation—not willing that the treachery of their pet, the "white bird of Maryland," should be so fully known, the majority in the Legislature vote down the proposition looking to such investigation.

Our present Constitution forbids payment for slaves emancipated by the events of the late war, and it also declares that certain persons, those who had opposed the Government in its battle with treason, shall be debarred the privilege of the elective franchise. Because of these provisions, that instrument must be changed.—To be sure, our Legislature, by a bare majority, has arrogated to itself the right of saying that the Constitutional Convention, when it meets, shall not insert in the organic law they adopt any provision for the payment of the late slaves, but in the discussion that ensued over the bill, its friends candidly admitted that this prohibition would not be binding upon the Convention when it assembled, and many of them announced themselves in favor of such payment. More than this, the bill providing for this Constitutional Convention, gives the late slaveholding counties twelve additional votes, and insures them strength enough to pass any measure they please, without the aid of either democrats or conservatives from other sections of the State. Our conservative legislators are trying hard to hoodwink the people of the State, but their little game is too apparent They adopt a measure as a guide for a body which as yet has no existence, which measures has no binding force, and the next moment provide the means for the accomplishment of the very purpose they professed to condemn.

This might seem to satisfy the dominant party, but it does not. A majority of Union men might be elected to the Constitutional Convention, and to guard against this a law has been passed enfranchising every man in the State, no matter what his antecedents. Bradley T. Johnson, the man who led armed soldiers to lay waste the cities and towns and valleys of our State, and who exacted tribute from private individuals to save their property, is, under this bill, as much a citizen as the poor crippled Union soldier whose strength was wasted in defending our homes. E. Louis Lowe, Geo. H. Stuart, Harry Gilmor, Geo. P. Kane, and all who left the State to aid in breaking up the Government, will now stand upon the same political footing with the hundreds of brave "boys in blue" who followed the "flag of our Union" through fire and smoke and battle and blood and death.—Is this right? When men so far forget justice, is it not time for interference from some quarter? Is it not time that the strong arm of the peoples' representatives in Congress assembled should be stretched forth in defence of those who now find themselves handed over to the power of those men who have been warring against the Government?—Baltimore County Union.

Tribute of Respect to the memory of Thomas S. Brown, Esq

The Orpans' Court for Carroll County assembled at their room at the Court House Westminster, on Monday last, January 28th, whereupon Jacob Myerly Esq., arose and made known to the Court the death of THOMAS S. BROWN, Esq., late Associate Judge of said Court.

On motion the Judges of the Court, Register of Wills and his Deputies, organized a meeting by appointing John Thomson, Esq, President, and Henry H. Herbaugh, Esq, Secretary. The President then appointed Jacob Myerly, Esq., Jos. Schaeffer, Esq., and Capt. L. F. Byers, a committee to present suitable resolutions in respect to the memory of the deceased. The following preamble and resolutions were read and adopted:

Whereas, We we have heard and witnessed with unaffected sorrow and deep regret, the death and burial of our highly esteemed and most worthy friend Thomas S. Brown, Esq., late an Associate Judge of this Court, and we are desirous of manifesting the very high respect, which, in common with the entire community, we cherish for his memory.

Resolved, That by this afflicting dispensation of an all-wise Providence, the County has lost an officer whose conduct as an Associate Judge of this Court for upwards of seven years has been distinguished by honesty and fidelity to duty, impartiality and courtesy.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his bereaved widow, family, relatives and friends, in the sudden removal of a valued and kind husband, father, and most worthy and patriotic citizen from our midst, and which is the more keenly felt on account of the sad event resulting from an accident which occurred whilst absent from his home.

Resolved, That these proceedings be published in the papers of the County, and entered upon the minutes and proceedings of this Court, a copy thereof be sent to the family of said deceased, and that this Court do now adjourn to Tuesday, January 29th.

JOHN THOMSON, President.
Henry H Herbaugh, Secretary.

Hon. Reverdy Johnson.

The Annapolis correspondent of the Baltimore American says: "There has been for the past few days considerable whispering among the faithful as to the present and prospective status of Hon. Reverdy Johnson. It is well known that he is considerably angered at the manner in which Governor Swann has proposed to legislate him out of the Senate at the close of his present term, in the Eastern Shore Law, which requires his successor to be a resident of that section of the State. He considers that in the "bargain and sale" which was made to secure a seat in the Senate for the Governor, he has been ruthlessly "sold," and that the party for which he has performed such herculean labors and given such valuable "opinions," has proved itself most ungrateful.

The rumors to which I allude are of the most startling character, one of them being to the effect that "no man coming to the Senate with the record of Gov. Swann, as to the palpable evidence of the corrupt means employed to secure his election, will ever be allowed to take his seat in that body." Whether this rumor is correct or not I am unable to say, but there is evidently something wrong in the Swann camp, and Senator Johnson is the cause of it. If he has given such an "opinion," there is undoubtedly force in it, and it may be an opinion based on personal knowledge of the sentiment of the Senate rather than personal feelings as to his own bad treatment.

Compensation for Slaves.

The charge was frequently made during the last campaign, that in case the Rebels succeeded, a new Constitution would be framed, and provision made in it for paying the Eastern Shore for the Slaves emancipated during the war. The first prediction is about to be verified. The second will follow as surely as the Constitutional Convention is called. Compensation for former Slaves is the hope of Rebels, and in the proceedings of the 17th, in the discussion of the Convention bill, the fact was admitted that they expect yet to be paid for every Slave that was set free in this State.

In the discussion, Mr. Magruder, of Prince George's county, said the people of Southern Maryland, as well as other portions of the State, demand of this Legislature that we shall have a new Constitution, and as soon as we can get it. If the call for a Convention be revolutionary, then call it treason, and make the most of it.

He regarded the amendment adopted yesterday as not binding upon the Convention, and voted against it on that and other grounds. In regard to the propriety of compensation for Slaves, we demand it as a right, and the time will come when we shall get it The amendment before the House fixing the representation is right and just. Although he voted yesterday against the amendment in relation to slaves, he should vote for the bill. The present Constitution was never adopted by the people, and ought not to be the organic law of the State. Mr. M. then argued in favor of the constitutionality of the bill and the right of the Legislature to pass it, and the people to sanction it. He defended Gov'r. Swann from the assaults of the gentleman from Frederick. If he be a Shylock, he stands ready to defend the rights of the people, and he admires him for it. He trusted the bill would become a law.

When this debt is saddled upon Maryland, the Western Shore Counties will have to pay three-fourths of the sum of $30,000,000, into the hands of Rebels on the Eastern Shore. You were forewarned, but heeded not.

Religious Notice.—

A Prayer Meeting will be held at F. R. Buell's School Room on next Sabbath afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

Ladies' Fair Meeting.—

There will be a meeting of the Ladies connected with the Lutheran Church Fair, at Carroll Hall, on Saturday afternoon next, at 2 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

Ladies Festival and Supper.—

The Ladies of the Parsonage Aid Sewing Society have engaged to furnish the "Encampment" of the Order of Odd Fellows with a Supper on Friday evening next (Feb. 1st.) At the same time they will offer the public generally an opportunity to enjoy once more the rich feast it has been accustomed to find at their Tables, in Mr. Monroe's school rooms.

Death of Judge Brown.—

With regret we announce to-day the death of Thomas S. Brown, Esq., who we noticed last week had been so badly injured by the cars of our railroad. At that time he had somewhat rallied from the shock and hopes were entertained of his recovery, but on Thursday be grew worse and on Friday night death relieved him from his sufferings. On Sunday his remains were deposited in the Westminster Cemetery under the auspices of the Odd Fellows' of which he was a member. The funeral services took place in the town hall, but the crowd was so large that even that was insufficient to contain them. The Union League also turned out in considerable numbers.

A Grand Presentation Gift.—

In connection with the Fair for the benefit of the Lutheran church in Westminster. A magnificent Silver Tea Service, comprising 6 pieces, a Coffee-Urn, Tea-Pot, Water-Pot, Sugar-Bowl, Slop-Bowl, Cream-Pitcher and a heavily Japanned Waiter. The silver amounting in value to over $100, from Larmour & Co's first class Silver Ware and Jewelry establishment in Baltimore.—To be given away at the close of the Lutheran Fair to the person drawing the lucky number. Price of a number is 50 cts. Any person desiring a number should secure it as soon as possible by applying at the Sentinel Office, where a list of the numbers can be furnished them for selection. MRS. JOHN E. SMITH.

The Lutheran Church Fair.

The great Fair to open in Odd Fellows Hall, on the 19th of February 1867, from present appearances, will be a decided success. It is with great pleasure that we direct the attention of the public to this fact. The people of this town and county have always heretofore heartily supported such objects as the above, and we fear not for the present one. The enterprise, for the benefit of which this Fair is to be held cannot fail to recommend itself to every lover of good; and consequently claims the patronage of the public. We guarantee a great variety of the very best and most substancial articles.

Arrangements have been made for the maintainance of good order, and every thing connected with the Fair will be conducted in the very best of stylo. Cheering intelligence reaches us from every quarter; and with the extensive arrangements made in trying to please all we throw ourselves upon the public for the most liberal patronage. All articles intended for the fancy cake, and lunch tables, should at once be sent to Mrs. Emily J. Rinehart at Westminster.

If you want to see the largest and most beautiful collection of all kinds of fancy and useful articles. Come to the Fair.

If you want to make great bargains come to the Fair.

If you want to be better pleased than you have ever been. Come to the Fair. Don't forget the time, the 19th of Feb. to continue ten days. *

An Unrighteous Decision.

The decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Milligan and others, "Knights of the Golden Circle" has fallen like a thunderbolt upon the hearts of loyal men. All the powers of darkness seem to be in combination for the protection of traitors and for the persecution of patriots and loyalists. Judges Grier, Nelson, Clifford, Davis and Field, a majority of the bench, opposed to Judges Chase, Miller, Wayne and Swane, have decided in the case of Milligan, his trial by a military commission as illegal, and have ordered his release. It would be impossible to estimate the evil results that are sure to follow from this decision so abhorent to the sentiments and desires of the great majority of the people of the United States, but already do we see some of its consequences in the increased slaughter of the freedmen in the Southern and still rebellious States.

The case of Dr. Watson of Richmond, Va., tried for killing a negro, under the most atrocious circumstances, is but one of thousands that will be chronicled before the year is over.

In the instance cited, the negro through accident or carelessness drove into, and broke the vehicle of Dr. Watson, who visited the offender the next day and commenced to beat him, the man fleeing was ordered to stop but failing to do so was shot and killed.

Being tried by a jury for the murder which he acknowledged, the verdict of "not guilty" was returned and the murderer was free to repeat his offence or not just as his whim might dictate.

With a rebel President and a majority of the Supreme Court of the same political persuasion, we cannot foretell how Congress will succeed in restoring the Union to a condition of peace and harmony for a long time to come.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered for several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his follow-sufferers the means of cure.

SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC.

This medicine, invented by Dr. J. H. SCHENCK, of Philadelphia, is intended to dissolve the food and make it into chyme, the first process of digestion. By cleansing the stomach with Schenck's Mandrake Pills, the Tonic soon restores the appetite, and food that could not be eaten before using it will be easily digested.

Consumption cannot be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the SEAWEED TONIC and three or four boxes of the MANDRAKE PILLS will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia.

DR. SCHENCK makes professional visits in New York Boston, and at his principal Office in Philadelphia every week. See daily papers of each place or his pamphlet on consumption for his days for visitation.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stag of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers, price $1 50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. SCHENCK s Principal Office, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadelphia, Pa—General Wholesale Agents: Demas Barnes & Co, N-Y; S S.
