AMERICAN SENTINEL, AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

The American Sentinel.
WESTMINSTER:
THURSDAY, FEB. 21, 1867.

To Correspondents.

The press of Advertisements upon our columns this morning prevents the insertion of several communications intended for this issue, also an Obituary notice, which will appear next week.

Large Sales.

We direct the attention of our readers to the Advertisement of the Personal Property of John E. Smith, in another column. Also to the sale of the Personal Estate of the late Thomas S. Brown. They will both be large sales, and worthy of attention.

Address to the Loyal Men.

We direct the attention of our readers to the report and address to the people of Maryland of the Grand Council of the Union League of this State on the subject of Universal Manhood Suffrage. The Council place themselves firmly and boldly on the ground of manhood suffrage, and recommend it as the great principle of Republicanism, which alone will keep the Union men of Maryland in sympathy and alliance with the great Republican party of the country. The address is a stirring appeal, and will attract attention every where throughout the country.

Up and at them Radicals.

Arouse Radicals! The madmen at Annapolis are bent upon revolution.—To meet them in their high-handed measures, and to fight them at every step, is the stern and patriotic duty of every Unionist in the State. The man who is willing to succumb to their outrages, or whose ardor cools when it should be aroused to the highest pitch, is unworthy to enjoy the blessings of popular government. Already their 'rapid speed' is having its effect, and already are there numerous indications that the unholy alliance that defeated the Union men of the State is breaking to pieces. A storm is gathering, the conflict is coming, and with it will come our day of triumph. Our good old State cannot long remain subject to the control of the profligate wretches who now wield its power, but soon again must she stand among her loyal sisters of the Union. The battle for the victory may be, aye, will be, a severe one, but success will again attend our cause. Let us meet the revolutionists by a counter revolution. Arouse, Radicals, there is trouble ahead! Pick your flints and be in readiness to meet any and every emergency.—Fred'k Examiner

Attention Farmers.

Isaac Newton, Esq., Commissioner of Agriculture, has sent Circulars to gentlemen of this County, requesting them to collect and send to him suitable specimens of the cereal productions of this county for exhibition at the great Paris Exposition. The Commissoners says "the Exposition opens on the first of April, and collections should be sent in a few days from the reception of this request to be in season for proper arrangement, packing, fowarding to New York, and transportation to Paris." The Commissioners also says, it is desirable that small packages of the finest samples of such products should be forwarded, by mail, in packages of two pounds or less, each distinctly marked with name, doner, local name, and county and State in which it was grown.' If addressed to the Commissioner of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., it can be sent without postage.

Address.

To the people of Maryland:

The Maryland Grand Council of the Union League of America deems it its duty, in the present junction of public affairs to address you a few words of earnest appeal.

The power of the nation through years of bloody conflict was completely successful; the nation was at all points triumphant and in a position to dictate terms to those that had opposed its power and sought its destruction. With a magnanimity which has no precedent, all thought of punishment was abandoned, and the rights, which among all nations are recognized as belonging to the victors over the vanquished, were held in abeyance. The victorious nation only asked that peace should be permanent; that the plighted faith of the nation should be held sacred; that neither we nor our posterity should see the unholy rebellion renewed; that if its fires still lived in its ashes, there should be some constitutional guarantee that they should not again be fanned into a flame.

Assassinations and perfidy blighted the just hope of the nation. Treason assumed to be victorious and to dictate terms to its conquerors. The patriotism, fidelity and firmness of Congress met the rising peril, and loyalty was still triumphant.—To that body, sustained by the great Republican party, as the nation's army was in the years of war, we may safely confide. It will not permit loyalty to become the prey of treason, nor loyal men for their loyalty to be the victims of traitors. Its magnanimous proffers of justice and equality in the nation have been rejected It only remains to it to protect the friends of the nation from the murderous persecution now waged against them throughout the Rebel States and to secure to the people of the whole country a Government republican in fact as well as in form.—That duty it will not fail to discharge.

Upon us, in Maryland, are devolved peculiar duties. We have found those whom in an evil hour, we trusted and placed in a position of authority, recreant to the principles they were understood at the time of their election to profess, and unblushingly intriguing to barter the peace and prosperity of the State for their own personal aggrandizement. The Constitution of the State and the laws passed in pursuance thereof have been openly nullified by those who had sworn to uphold and execute them. This coalition has made the highest public offices and the most important public measures a matter of vulgar bargain and sale, and in contempt of public morals and common decency has not deigned to secure the corrupt transaction by any veil of concealment.

It has ignored the existence of the highest law officer of the State, and submitted legal questions to, and been guided by, the opinion of irresponsible hired attorneys, or yet more irresponsible partisan committees.

It has appropriated the public moneys to the payment of work done for party, or the replenishing of dead partisans for partisan service.

It has undertaken, without cause or warrant of law, and on the flimsiest pretexts, to remove valuable public servants from important offices, which they worthily filled, and to supply the places thus made vacant with creatures of their own, whose only other recommendation was their doubtful loyalty or undisguised sympathy with Rebels.

By its vacciliations and changes of position and measures it has shown an utter lack of principle, either moral or political: and has been faithful to one purpose only that of attaining power and proscribing loyalty and justice.

Under the cry of "Conservatism" it wages open war upon the Constitution, and is struggling to eradicate its most conservative provisions.

It's General Assembly, in open and confessed violation of the plain requirements of the Constitution which they swore to support, is plotting its entire subversion by a Convention called without the vote which it requires, upon a basis of representation which it expressly forbids.

And in furtherance of these revolutionary designs, and for resistance to the supreme law of the land, the press of this coalition is calling upon its partisans to organize, arm, and drill for "a war of neighbor against neighbor."

When domestic enemies thus conspire, it becomes the duty of the friends of republicanism and justice to unite and organize to preserve the republic.

To such this Grand League confidently appeals. It adjures every lover of his country, of progress, of justice and humanity, to prepare for the issue which will soon be forced upon him by this corrupt coalition. Let the organization of Leagues and other patriotic Union associations be pressed forward. Let the Union men know one another, and their own strength and where it lies. Let them not, through remissness, or any relaxation of vigilance or activity, be found unprepared for any emergency, or any attempt at surprise.

No convention for the destruction of our free Constitution will be assembled without the form of a submission of the question to the people. Be ready to make form of submission a submission in fact, and fatal to the hopes of those who would lead us back to anarchy and barbarism.—Remember that there are other tribunals to which we shall resort—that the battle is to be patiently and persistently fought to the end—that fighting the battle of humanity, upholding the cause of justice, progress and human rights, we should oppose this revolutionary plot at every point where resistance can be made, with every weapon furnished us by the courts and the laws; and, if at last, illegally over borne, or betrayed, we have a resource and protection in the great national power to which we have never looked in vain in former Rebel invasions. Remember the maxim of other days, "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," and be vigilant now. Unite, organize, prepare.

By order of the Grand Council of Maryland.

H. STOCKBRIDGE, President.
C. H. GATH, Secretary.

Pretty Sharp.

The Maryland Senate, on Friday, passed the bill to change the mode of selecting Jurors in the loyal Counties of Western Maryland—yeas 15, nays 6. Mr. Davis, the Republican member from Caroline County voted in the affirmative, for the purpose of moving a reconsideration of the bill, within three days, which he at once gave notice he should do.

The effect of this neat little parlimentary manœuvre is simply just this—that a certified copy of this Jury law cannot now be sent to Frederick County Court, which met yesterday, (Wednesday), in time to supersede the Jury already summoned by the Sheriff. It was the intention of the "hasty legislators" to rush this bill through in time to supersede the Jury selected by the Sheriff. The Judge, who is a Rebel, would have selected a Jury entirely of Rebels, and thus insured the acquittal of a number of Swann's Registrars, who have been indicted for a violation of the Constitution. Thus a nice little game was blocked by Radical shrewdness. We are glad to know our Radical friends in the General Assembly are wide awake, and on the alert to defeat the ends of Rebel maglignants. They are too few to accomplish anything yet sharp enough to out-wit the Rebels, whose judgements are often blinded by vindictiveness.—Odd Fellow

No. 3.

Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup.

This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. SCHENCK, the Proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery, he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption and the disease which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. SCHENCK makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC, and MANDRAKE PILLS are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr SCHENCK, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor—one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health—are on the Government stamp

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers. Price $1 50 per bottle, or $7 50 the half dozen. Letters for advice should always be directed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, 15 North 6th St., Philadelphia, Pa. YOUNG MEN,

The experience of the past ten years has demonstrated the fact that reliance may be placed in the efficacy of

for the speedy and permanent cure of Seminal weakness, Emissions, Physical and Nervous debility, Impotence, or want of power, the result of Sexual Excess, or Youthful Indiscretion, which neglected, ruins the happiness, and unfits the sufferer for Business, Social Society or Marriage, and often terminates in an untimely grave. Make no delay in seeking the remedy. It is entirely vegetable and harmless on the system, can be used without detection or interference with business pursuits, and no change of diet is necessary while using them. Price, One Dollar.

If you cannot get them of your druggist, send the money to Dr. J. Bryan, 819 Broadway, New York, and they will be sent free from observation by return of mail.
