AMERICAN SENTINEL, AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

The American Sentinel.
WESTMINSTER:
THURSDAY, FEB. 28, 1867.

A Strange Suspicion.

"The wicked flee when no man pursueth" was never more singularly verified than in the case of the Copperheads.—These gentry are constantly in a fever lest some charge of treason, assassination or corruption be preferred against them. Their last cause of alarm is contained in the arrest and conveyance to this country for trial of John H. Surratt, one of the conspirators in the assassination plot by which Lincoln lost his life. It is charged that Surratt will be tempted to a confession implicating Jeff. Davis and Andy Johnson in that damnable affair. Does it require a confession from Surratt to implicate the worthies named in the great murder of the century? Are not Davis and Johnson already implicated, and would not any testimony which Surratt might offer, bearing on the transaction, merely be corroborative? Thousands of people in the country honestly believe that Andrew Johnson and Jeff. Davis had as much to do with the killing of Lincoln as any other two men not yet tried, convicted and hung named in connection with the crime. Therefore, to kill Lincoln was to satisfy the revenge of Davis and gratify the ambition of Johnson. Davis' acts before Lincoln was foully murdered proved that he was capable of lending his countenance to such a transaction, while Johnson's conduct since that butchery shows conclusively that he is of a nature to take a hand in such jobs. Why, then, talk about getting Surratt to make a confession implicating these wretches? If Surratt speaks, it must be to corroborate what the people believe.

Swann's Confirmation.

During Gov'r. Swann's recent visit to Philadelphia, he was made an honorary member of that old hunker Democratic Association, the "Keystone Club" of Philadelphia. Thus, at last, he has been admitted to full fellowship with the Democratic party. He had been on probation for some time, and during the last campaign gave such convincing proofs of his sound conversion to the faith, that no reasonable opposition could be offered to his confirmation—so he was confirmed, and is now no longer a Conservative grub, but a full-fledged Democratic beetle.

The transformation, we doubt not, was accomplished without doing violence to any cherished principle of his heart, for we very much doubt if he was ever honestly in sympathy with the party who, most unfortunately, elected him Governor of the State. Ambitious, crafty, and unscrupulous, he saw that the only way to reach the Gubernatorial chair was to affiliate, for the time being, with the Union party, and he scrupled not to "stoop to conquer." But scarcely had he gathered the fruits of his dishonorable fraud, until, to gain a higher position, which he knew he could not get from the Union party, he betrayed them into the hands of the Rebels, and sold himself to the traitors of the Government for the position of U. S. Senator. His last move reminds us of the proverb: "As the dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly."

We are heartily glad that at last his true status has been found. We know where to find him now. And yet we would caution the "Keystone Club" to keep an eye on him, for the world, the flesh and the Devil held a mortgage on his soul long before the deed of trust was placed in their hands, and he may yet sell them as badly as he sold the Union party of this State.—Odd Fellow

The Vice Presidency.

More than six months ago, we earnestly urged the election of Ben. Wade, Senator from Ohio, to the Presidency of the United States Senate. As the time is now approaching when such an election is to be made, we hasten again to avow ourselves in his favor, and add our feeble voice to the general demand which is being made from all parts of the country in his behalf. During the last two years of Johnson's rule, we cannot afford to have uncertain men at the head of either branch of Congress. Hereafter the country will need the services of the purest patriots and ablest statesmen; among whom Ben. Wade ranks very high, as one of the leaders in whom the people have confidence. To make Ben. Wade Vice President will be an offset in history, in the shape of an honorable, high-minded and patriotic man to the miserable apology for all that is fair truthful and magnanimous, who first assisted in smearing with blood, and now occupies the Presidential Chair.

A sublime Truth.

We question whether there ever occurred, in the same number of words, more sublime truth than is expressed in the following language, which we quote from one of John W. Forney's Occasional letters:

"There is not a Democratic tradition, not a single principle of Jefferson Democracy, that is not reflected and contained in the practices and doctrine of the present Republican party; nor is there an aristocratic tradition or doctrine that is not re-echoed and obeyed with equal [illegible] by Andrew Johnson and his followers!"

Andrew Johnson's whole career since he became President, and the course of the Democratic leaders before, during and since the rebellion of the slaveholders, illustrate the truthfulness of the language we quote.

Executive Appointments.

On Tuesday of last week Gov. Swann sent to the Senate a long list of appointments for Coroners, Magistrates, &c. Below we give the list for this County:

Notaries Public.—At Westminster, Edwin F. Reese; at New Windsor, Ezra S. Stouffer.

Coroners.—Otho Shipley and George W. Shriver.

Magistrates.—District No 1, John M. Jones, Henry Gault, Wm. Fisher.
No. 2,—Hanson T. Webb, Joshua Cain, Levi Fleagle.
No. 3,—John Mause, Levi Yingling.
No. 4,—Nathan Gorsuch, Wm. Stocksdale, Azariah Oursler.
No. 5,—Eli Hewitt, Jr., Cornelius Jenkins, J. Oliver Wadlow.
No 6,—Henry Motter, Francis Warner, David H. Hoffacker.
No. 7,—Wm. J. Mitten, J. Henry Hoppe, Abner Neal, John B. Summers.
No. 8,—John Lamotte, Jesse Brown.
No. 9,—Henry Bussard, Stephen Gorsuch, Joshua Sellman.
No. 10,—David Otto, John Delaplane.
No. 11,—John W. McAlister, William T. Smith.

From the above it will be seen that our efficient, active and accommodating Registrar has been rewarded by Gov. Swann for his zealous defence of "My Policy," by an appointment to the lucrative office of ☞CORONER,☜ but to make the office worth as much as possible, the other Coroner, (this county having two,) was taken from Baltimore city. This we regard as rather shabby treatment for a man who so faithfully performed his duty, whilst such inducements as the Sheriffalty were held out to others. But so it is.

Democratic Blustering.

JIM BROOKS, of New York, than whom no man whose name is identified with American politics, has been oftener made merchandise of, in a speech delivered to a Connecticut Democratic Convention, used the following language:

"Gentlemen, I tell these Radicals to beware, for their hold on this Government all hangs upon Democratic love of law and order.

It's so, is it? Now, the Republican party's "hold" upon the Government all depends upon the will of majorities fairly made up of the most intelligent people in the country; and we have a notion that it is the fear of these majorities and not of particular love for law or order, which induces the "Democracy" to respect the situation. The Democratic party learned what it was to oppose majorities during the war of the rebellion. Jim Brooks may talk a long time about what the Democracy would do, if it were not for certain contingencies, but we are satisfied they will never again attempt to war with a Radical majority. That's played out.

☞President Johnson has announced his willingness to meet Congress half-way. After a few more turns of the impeachment screw, he may conclude to come over entirely. Though not deeply impressed with Mr. Johnson's sincerity or reality, we cannot help looking upon his offer to meet Congress half-way as indicative of failing courage on his part and a better prospect for the country.

The Lutheran Fair.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather and almost impassable condition of the roads, the Fair has nightly attracted large crowds, and the interest still continues up to the present writing. The spirit of liberality manifested by our citizens generally, as well as the adjoining neighborhoods, has been highly praiseworthy, and entitles them to the gratitude of the projectors of the enterprise, as well as the entire membership of the Church. After its close a full report of the proceeds will be given.

A Colored Treasury Clerk.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune of Tuesday week says:

"To-day Secretary McCulloch appointed S. Johnson, a colored man, to a regular first-class clerkship, he having previously passed the required examination, the rules of which were strictly enforced. Mr. Johnson is the first colored man who has occupied a clerkship in any of the government departments. The appointee was a soldier in the late war, is a practical phonographer, and has received a collegiate education."

We commend the above to the attention of the "democratic" champions of Andy Johnson. A negro appointed to a clerkship in the Treasury Department! Why, this is worse than negro suffrage! Are negroes, especially if they can read and write, and pay taxes on $250 worth of property, not only to vote, but to hold offices also? In that case, what will become of the democracy? Andrew Johnson is now their model President, and these things are done under his administration! We hope that our democratic friends will not wince and squirm under this state of things, but still stand up manfully for Johnson and his "policy." They may, notwithstanding, now and then, get an office, even though they may have to drive their pens at the same desk with a negro. "Conquer your prejudices," O! negro-hating democracy!—Baltimore County Union.

Income Tax.

The amendment tax bill now before Congress contains one feature which we trust will become permanent. We refer to the change by which a uniform income tax of five per cent. is levied, with an exemption of one thousand dollars, instead, as it now is, an exemption of $600, with five per cent. tax on all sums below $5,000 and ten per cent. on all above $10,000.—This will not only relieve assessors from many perplexing questions, but it will carry substantial relief to thousands who have been oppressed by the recent rates. The original theory was that six hundred dollars was the fair average allowance for necessary expenses, and that all above that sum was presumable "income." But the rise of prices has made that an obsolete notion, absurd enough, but too sad for a joke. The relief, therefore, proposed by the amendment bill, though many will wish it might have been greater, will diffuse a general feeling of satisfaction through the community, while we have no doubt that it will secure a full proportionate share of revenue from this particular source. We cannot but think that a similar reduction applied to other provisions of the bill would be equally advantageous to the people and the government.—Boston Journal.

Blunt Truth.

We like the blunt truth contained in the following paragraph, because it records historical facts in a style which every reader can comprehend. We quote from the last issue of the Central Courier, the organ of the Republicans of Snyder county:

Since the Harrisburg speech of Simon Cameron, the Copperheads seem to have ceased their glorification over his election, which they called a defeat of the Radicals. In their haste to give a thrust at Thad. Stevens, the Cops overlooked the consistent radicalism that has characterised Cameron since he first entered upon political life. There has not been anywhere a more consistent abolitionist than Simon Cameron has been for thirty years past. He has been a consistent opponent of human slavery, and now that America is free, desires that the privileges of citizenship be conferred upon every man. Such a record could not fail to make friends among the ablest advocates of Liberty and Equal Rights that the State can boast, and brought about his victory. So that Cameron's success was a radical victory.

Dr. Schenck's Mandrake Pills. A Substitute for Calomel.

These Pills are composed of various roots, having the power to relax the secretions of the liver as promptly and effectually as blue pill or mercury, and without producing any of those disagreeable or dangerous effects which often follow the use of the latter.

In all billious disorders these Pills may be used with confidence, as they promote the discharge of vitiated bile, and remove those obstructions from the liver and biliary ducts, which are the cause of billious affections in general

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS cure Sick Headache, and all disorders of the Liver, indicated by sallow skin, coated tongue, costiveness, drowsiness, and a general feeling of weariness and lassitude, showing that the liver is in a torpid or obstucted condition.

In short, these Pills may be used with advantage in all cases when a purgative or alterative medicine is required.

Please ask for "Dr. Schenck's Mandrake Pills," and observe that the two likenesses of the Doctor are on the Government stamp—one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other in his present health.

On the evening of the 21st inst, at the residence of the brides father, by Rev. J Edwin Amos, Mr Nathan Bay, to Margaret Emily, daughter of Daniel Bush, Esq., all of this county.

DIED.

At New Windsor, January 31st, of Consumption, Susie A Root, aged 18 years 7 months and 19 days.

Softly step and gently whisper,
Death reigns silent here;
An angels form of lightness,
Rests upon the bier.
Is she dead? Long weeks she languished,
Wasted by disease and pain;
Vain the prayers of hearts that loved her—
Human art and skill were vain
Is she dead? They've borne her marble,
Cold and senseless to the tomb;
Laid it down beneath the sod,
There to rest in silent gloom.
Is she dead? Ah no, but sleeping,
In that dark and narrow bed,
Where they've laid the worn out casket
Where flowers will spring above its head.
Mother? no more care is needed,
To allay the rising moan;
And though you now may leave her,
She will not be alone.
Angels bright will watch beside her,
In her quiet holy slumber,
Till the morning then awaking her,
To a place among their number.
Thus a golden link is broken,
In the chain of earthly bliss;
Thus the distance shorter making,
Between the brighter world and this.
B**.

REMEMBER.

That round my pathway roar,"
Is there a place on earth
That beats the New Shoe Store?

Tell me, ye ladies fair,
Who so benignly smile,
Do you wish goods cheap and rare,
Of very attractive style?

There are Boots, both coarse and fine,
And Shoes of the latest style;
If once you purchase "on that line.
You'll deal there all the while.
