MONUMENT TO BE PRESENTED.

Preparations Have Been Completed for the Event at 2.30 p. m. Today.

All preparations for the presentation of the monument at 2.30 P. M. today donated by Judge James A. Pearce to Chestertown have been completed. A platform will be erected on the square for those taking part in the ceremonies. Mr. Robert Moffett, president of the Board of Town Commissioners, will preside, and music will be furnished by the Choral Club of Chestertown, lead by Mr. T. Kemp Bordley.

Joshua Clayton, Esq, of Elkton, will make the presentation speech, and Lester Baldwin, Esq, of Baltimore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin, of Chestertown, will accept the monument on behalf of the commissioners of Chestertown.

The following poem was sent to us and which is appropriate to be published:

THE MEN OF KENT.

(Dedicated affectionately to James A. Pearce, Judge.)

State's rights, for one, was the appeal;
The other sought the Union to maintain;
Sincerity, with each, was very real—
We both of these from their hands gain!
We have them both: a reunited land!
The rights of states is still at our command!

'Tis fitting, then, that we should homage do
To these, the sons of our beloved Kent,
To those who fought in grey, to those in blue—
And they deserve this combined monument!
Long may it stand, to tell our youth the story
Of these men's deeds, which bring Kent county glory!

WM. H. LASSELL.

Dover, Del., Aug. 8, 1917.

Mr. Wm. H. Lassell, the author of this poem is the only son of Dr. W. H. Lassell, whose name appears on the Confederate roster of Kent.

Will of Charles L. Story.

Mr. Story bequeathed the property No. 811 and 811½ Shipley street and No. 812 Orange street, comprising a printing plant, to Mrs. Emma L. Story and Miss Grace Martin, his neice, who has been assisting him in his office, giving Mrs. Story a three-fifths interest therein and Miss Martin a two-fifths interest.

To Mrs. Emma L. Story he also bequeathed his personal property, the dwelling No. 2920 Washington street and a $5,000 policy of the Continental Life Insurance Co., on the life of Miss Martin, which policy names Mr. Story as the beneficiary.

To Miss Grace Martin he also bequeathed the dwelling No. 2918 Washington street and 70 shares of the capital stock of the Continental Life Insurance Co.

To his sister, Margaret, he bequeathed the dwelling No. 2922 Washington street.

To Mrs. Fannie Story, wife of his brother, William, he bequeathed $400, to liquidate a mortgage for that amount on her cottage, at Queenstown, Md.

Mr. Story left an estate valued at $30,000.

Wheat Yields.

The yields of wheat in the county as reported show far beyond the usual average. We give a few collected here and there to show what our farmers are doing. Mr. William Bonwell, of near Betterton, reports 34 bushels to the acre. Mr. S. G. Roseberry, of near Still Pond, got 44 bushels to the acres off of 30 acres of fallow and 22½ bushels to the acre off of 45 acres of corn ground.

Mr. James W. Chapman threshed 3,610 bushels from 130 acres on his farm near Lynch tenanted by Mr. S. J. Lee. 40 acres of fallow gave 35 bushels to the acre, and 90 acres of corn ground gave about 28 bushels to the acre.

Mr. Charles Quigley, on the Welch farm near Blacks, we understand got a fine yield from a large acreage.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. Elizabeth M. Morris, of Lynch, died Thursday evening at the home of her son, Mr. Charles Morris, in her 77th year. Funeral services will take place from the home of her son, at 2 P. M. Sunday, interment in Still Pond cemetery. She leaves three children, two sons, Charles and Joseph, and one daughter, Miss Mamie. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen.
