PLOWS

Just received a large consignment of VULCAN Plows and Repairs. In this shipment are the first of the Vulcan Sulky or Riding Plows.

Many of you know the good features of the VULCAN, its wearing quality, how well the shears last and what fine work it does. Stop and look at this plow.

Pilot No. 4 Sulky

We have some of these plows yet that we can sell at the old price. Purchasers are all pleased at the lightness of draft of this plow. When it is put in the field along with other makes this is more noticeable. The best advertisement for these plows are the men who have them. Ask them.

Yours to serve,

EARLY FALL WEDDINGS.

One of the most beautiful home weddings in the annals of Chestertown was solemnized Thursday evening, when Miss M. Louise Urie, the charming and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Urie, became the bride of Mr. Neal Truslow. The lower floor was artistically decorated throughout in green and white, and the ceremony took place before an improvised altar at the foot of the steps, against a background of feathery asparagus. At 6 30, to the strains of the wedding march played by a concealed orchestra, the bridal party proceeded up the aisle which the little ribbon boys, Masters Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., and Frank Hines, Jr., formed by looping white ribbon through baskets of flowers on tall standards. At the improvised altar the bride was met by Mr. Truslow, the groom, his best man, Mr. Thomas Massey, and Dr. H. B. Martin, who performed the ceremony. The bride, lovely in real lace and pearls, was attended by Mrs. J. C. White, matron ofhonor, in white with blue and silver trimmings, and Misses Hellen and Esther Urie, bridesmaidt, in pink and silver and dainty little Nancy Jene Usilton as flower girl. The ushers were Messrs. James Bacchus, James Metcalfe and H. L. Lemen. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The house was thronged with the well-wishing friends of the happy pair, many out-of-town guests among the number, and after the ceremony there was a delightful reception with dancing till a late hour.

The wedding of Miss Martha Diehl Maslin, daughter of the late Thomas C. Maslin and Mrs. Maslin, of Chestertown, and Dr. Samuel J. Glass, Jr., son of the Rev. Samuel J. Glass and Mrs. Glass, of Pittsburg, took place at noon Saturday at Brown Memorial Presbyterian Church. The ceremony was performed by the father of the bridegroom.

The marriage of Mr. William Edward Embert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Embert, of Chestertown, to Miss Margaret Elizabeth Hall, of Baltimore, is announced to take place in Baltimore on Oct. 16, 1917.

The marriage of Miss Helen L. Marshall, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Marshall, of Philadelphia and Mr. Hiram B. Eliason will be solemnized at four o'clock on Monday, September 10th at the summer home of the bride's parents at Cedar Point, Jamestown, Rhode Island.

Miss A. Marjorie Taylor will be the maid of honor, and Mr. Eliason will have his brother, Dr. Eldredge Eliason, as best man.

The wedding, which was to have taken place in November, has been advanced to Monday as Mr. Eliason expects to leave shortly for France with the University Base Hospital Unit of Pennsylvania. Mr. Eliason was fomerly of Chestertown and is the youngest son of the late Wilbur Eliason.

Mr. W. O. Bringman, of Chestertown, and Miss Olivia Clayton, of Rock Hall, daughter of Mr. W. W. Clayton, of Chester, Pa., were married Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. David Ayres, grandparents of the bride, in Rock Hall, by Rev. John W. Prettyman, of the Rock Hall M. E. Church. Mr. and Mrs. Bringman, after spending sometime at Atlantic City, will reside in Chestertown, where the groom is in business.

Miss Sallie Davis' Will.

The will of Miss Sallie Davis was filed and probated Tuesday. Miss Emma F. Davis was made executrix. Miss Davis left the following:

To her grand neices, Mrs. Arthur Prettyman and Mrs. Claude Hackett, the double dwelling and grounds on Mill street, occupied by Messrs. Nickerson and Everett.

To her neices, Misses E. F. Davis and Elizabeth Davis, the dwelling and lot on Mill street adjoining the property of Mr. W. U. Lusby occupied by herself at death.

To her great neices, Laura Lambert, Eunice Lambert, Isabel Lambert, Mrs. Kenneth Faulkner, the house and lot on corner of Mill and Cannon streets.

Equally to her two nephews, Charles H. and J. P. Davis, to be held in trust, stock in Continental Life Insurane Co., consisting of 20 shares, R. H. Rogers, Esq., trustee. To her neices, Miss E. F. Davis and Elizabeth, $325 each; also to Laura Lambert $325.

Household articles, etc., destributed to various members of the family.
