RED CROSS MEETING

Kent County Now Has A Chapter Of The American Red Cross

On Monday evening the different chapters of the Red Cross met at the Eastern Shore Inn to reorganize the Chapter in Kent County under the National Government. The first part of the evening was devoted to the recent campaign of the Liberty Loan in Kent. Mrs. Hubbard, chairman of the National Defense Council, explained what the women in Kent had accomplished. $75,000 of the amount raised was accredited to them. She also read letters from Camp McClellan, asking that woolen sweaters be sent at once to the soldiers in camp there. Miss Ahern, the Truant Officer of Kent, told how the Compulsory Educational Law was working in Kent this fall. Mrs. Norton, our County Red Cross nurse, gave a report from the recent Tuberculosis Conference in Baltimore. Mr. Harris spoke on the Liberty Loan and Judge Pearce told of the woman's work in this war.

Then followed the election of officers. Mrs. Lewis Wood was re-elected County Chairman, which office she has most efficiently filled for the past year. Mr. Howard Turner, of Betterton, was elected vice chairman. Mrs. James G. Beck was elected secretary and Mr. Alan Harris treasurer. The local chapters will be under the supervision of these county officers which are as follows: Mrs. L. H. Wood, Chairman; Mr. Howard Turner, Vice-Chairman; Mrs. James G. Beck, Secretary; Mr. Allan A. Harris, Treasurer.

The Executive Board is composed of the Chairmen of the nine units of the county: Mrs. G. R. Jones, Galena; Mrs. Jane Vickers Robinson, Chestertown; Mrs. McCabe, Kennedyville; Mrs. Harry Williams, Worton; Mrs. R. G. Warren, Still Pond; Mrs. W. O. Selby, Rock Hall; Mrs. Arthur Brice, Betterton; Mrs. Frank W. Smith, Fairlee; Mrs. Merritt Brice, Millington.

Memberships to the American Red Cross amounting to over $135.00 have been taken.

There are six classes of Red Cross Memberships, all of which, except the Annual Membership, includes subscription to the Red Cross Monthly Magazine: Annual Membership, $1.00; Subscribing Membership, $2.00; Contributing Membership, $5.00; Sustaining Membership, $10.00; Life Membership, $25.00, one payment; Patron Membership, $100.00, one payment.

Everyone is earnestly urged to take out a membership at once and help in this way. Let us make Kent County a leader in the Red Cross Work.

Hallowe'en Party.

A very delightful halloween party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Medders at their home in Still Pond on Wednesday night. The party was attended by both the old and young of the community. The guests were greeted and given a welcome by grewsome ghosts. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and lighted by Jack o'lanterns. At nine o'clock the masqueraders marched before the judges, who were Mrs. J. Howard, Miss Lucille Parr and Mr. A. J. Hackett. The first prize for the best costume was awarded Miss Madge Wilmer, who was dressed as Miss Halloween; second, Miss Naomi Baxter, an aged Irish washerwoman. The prizes for the most ridiculous costumes were given to Miss Anne Bonwill and Master Henry Krusen, respectively. After the prizes were given the guests enjoyed the usual halloween games. Later refreshments were served, hot chocolate, which was brewed in a big black pot in a corner, also cake and apples. After having spent a most delightful evening the guests bade farewell to their kind host and hostess and went to their homes to dream of ghosts, goblins and black cats.
