A GREAT DRIVE IS ON

IN TWO DEPARTMENTS

COATS AND SHOES

From now 'till Thanksgiving Day we plan a Great Drive in two departments of the store. This means the stocks will be full and the prices will be low. Coats and Shoes you need right now and we are fully prepared to supply you.

STYLISH COATS READY FOR YOU

This is surely a great Coat Year. Last week eager buyers bought up nearly all our Good Coats. On Monday we got in touch with Strawbridge & Clothier and fortunately, for you and for us, they were prepared to let us have a good supply of Coats by return express. Some of the models are even prettier than the ones we formally had, and we invite you to come in to-day and get fitted.

Wonderful Values Beautiful Styles.

Prices$ 15, $18, $20, $25 and up to $50.

SHOES FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Not in recent years have the prices of Shoes been so high as now.

If it were not for the fact that we already had on hand an immense stock of Good Shoes before the prices advanced, the exceptional values we are offering would be impossible.

For instance, next week we will have on sale several styles of J. & K. Shoes with about all sizes and widths represented at

$3.90 per pair

At prevailing prices these Shoes are worth $6.00 and $7.00 per pair.

For next week we will sell a J. & K. Dark Brown English Walking Boot at $7.00 a pair. This is just what the young ladies and High School girls want.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING

Held In Chestertown M. E. Church Wednesday Evening

Kent County To Raise $4,500 As Its Quota

The meeting for the raising of the fund for the Y. M. C. A. was held in the M. E. Church Wednesday evening. It was a most inspiring event. Judge Pearce acted as chairman and he spoke of the need of the boys for the home comforts and christian influence of the Y. M. C. A. and of the need of real self-sacrifice from those at home. He then read out the names of the captains of the different districts. They were: Harry Griffith, Sassafras; S. G. Caldwell, Galena; E. Thomas Massey, Massey; J. P. Ahern, Millington; John Medders, Kennedyville; William Medders, Still Pond; Howard Turner, Betterton; C. L. Dodd and C. S. Smith, Chestertown; W. G. Smyth, Fairlee; Abe Cohen, Sandy Bottom; N. Lieberman, Melitota; Elmer E. Leary, Rock Hall.

The judge was followed by Rev. Mr. Stanchfield, who has been secretary for the Y. M. C. A. for many years. He spoke of their being at the front to meet the boys when they came, how they were trying in every way to stem the terrible tide of temptation which assails the young soldiers on every side and send them back to their homes or to die for their country with clean bodies and souls.

He said it was the only organization that was allowed to go in and minister to the prisoners, taking care of their souls, while the Red Cross ministered to the wounded.

He was followed by Senator Williams, who spoke of the enthusiasm of the boys at the front for the Y. M. C. A. He said that the Y. M. C. A. did not need help for itself, but it had offered itself to the government and the money was needed to build rooms in all the camps, at home and at the fighting line abroad. The Liberty Bond, he said, was to raise money for the country. This money was for the service of God.

After the speaking Judge Pearce asked that the pledge cards be passed around. They are to be returned to the captains by 12 o'clock Monday next, as they want to know at the general meeting in Cambridge how much is pledged for.

The amount allotted to Kent county is $4,500.

While the pledge cards were being distributed, "America" was sang and the benediction was followed by the "Star Spangled Banner, which was sung with such spirit and enthusiasm that it seemed the raising of the money was assured.

The music during the whole meeting was very soulful and inspiring. A solo by Mrs. Davidson delighted the audience.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE NOTES.

The Young Men's Christian Association has become a vital part of Washington College. Nearly all of the cadets have joined the association and the majority of them take a lively interest in its activities. The lectures, given by the cadets and other very capable speakers, are of inestimable value, both morally and intellectually. The oratorical training it affords is of inestimable value. It is reaching out among the whole body of cadets and trying to bring about a higher moral and religious sentiment than ever existed before in the history of the college.

It surely must be admitted that the association feels a deep moral and religious responsibility by the fact that it has invited Dr. Davidson, the active evangelist for the Methodist churches of Chestertown, to make an address at one of its meetings. He has accepted the invitation and expects to make an address before the association next Sunday, Nov. 18th. The cadets are preparing for an especially good meeting on this occasion.

WASHINGTON vs. PENN MILITARY COLLEGE.

The Washington College foot ball team on Nov. 10th, played Pennsylvania Military College in Chester, Pa. The Washington College team put up a plucky fight, but were beaten 30 to 0. On an average the Pennsylvania players outweighed the Washington men by twenty pounds. The Washington stars were the following:—Young, end; Schelberg, guard, and Joyce, full back.
