A Kent County Boy Makes Good.

Mr. Beecher Stephens, a former resident of this county and son of the late Wilbur Stephens, of this county, who now resides in New Hampshire, arrived in Chestertown Monday to spent Thanksgiving with his uncle, Mr. I. R. Leaverton. Upon reaching here he was handed a telegram from his sister, Mrs. Mary, stating that his large barn, together with its contents, had been destroyed by fire. Mr. Stephens left for his home Tuesday afternoon and expected to reach there Thursday morning. He made the trip in his touring car, a distance of between 700 and 800 miles. Mr. Stephens states that he sold this year 1,200 barrels of fine apples at $4.00 a barrel, besides a large quantity of peaches, berries and other farm products from his farm of about 300 acres. He is also engaged in the dairy business. Mr. Stephens markets all of his farm produce direct to the consumer by automobile trucks, thus saving the middle man's profit. Mr. Stephens was born on the Plummer farm near Plum Point, which adjoins Worton Manor, now owned by Mrs. Costelle.

FEED MILLS

The high price of feed makes it necessary that you make it go as far as possible. You cannot find a better way than by grinding it. NEW HOLLAND FEED MILLS have been sold here so long they only need that we mention them. They have the largest grinding capacity of any mills on the market. We have them in several sizes, and the prices are very little more than last year. They can be run with as small as 1½ horse power and up.

WOOD SAWS

We made an early purchase of Saws and they are now in. We want to give you the benefit of our early buying. These Saws have 26-inch Blades which are the standard sizes. We advise early buying as the price will be higher when present stocks are exhausted.

We can furnish you power to run these machines with. We have a large line of OIL ENGINES to run these Machines with.

Don't use your large engine to run your pump with, it is too expensive. Buy one of our

1½ H. P. ENGINES
WITH MAGNETO

They don't need any batteries. All complete $48.00. See our full line.
