THE PROVINCIAL SYNOD

A Large And Enthusiastic Meeting In Philadelphia

With the Right Rev. John Gardner Murray presiding, the Third Session of the Provincial Synod, of the Province of Washington, met in Philadelphia Nov. 19th to 22nd, the opening service being held at St. James Church, the Bishop of Maryland celebrating the Holy Communion and the Rt. Rev. Cortlandt Whitehead, D. D., of Pittsburg, preaching, taking for his text, "That they all may be one." The Province is comprised of the Dioceses of Bethlehem, Delaware, Easton, Erie, Harrisburg, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Pittsburg, Virginia, South Virginia and Washington.

At the same time that the Bishop and clergy were holding their sessions the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions was holding its sessions in the Parish House of Holy Trinity Church. At a joint meeting in Synod Hall, the church societies, which were officially represented and were: "The Brotherhood of St. Andrew," "The Woman's Auxiliary," "The Junior Mission Study," "Church Periodical Club," "The Girl's Friendly Society," "Work for Boys," "Daughters of the King," "St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses." Each society was ably represented and its aims and objects presented in connection with this great world war. The war and missions being the keynote for all. Bishop Rhinelander says: "The world was plunged into war, because the church of God was broken into fragments and the world was ripe for the work of the devil," that closer church union is coming as a result of the struggle and warned his hearers "that if the church fails to measure up to the requirements of the men of the national army, when they return from the trenches they will go elsewhere and set up a Christian Fellowship for themselves." Bishop Murray says, "We are fighting for a moral democracy and a spiritual Christianity."

"For missions, the supreme cause of the master, we must pray, work and study. We must give and learn to give gladly as never before, for the watch-word of the coming year is 'fellowship,' and for study, 'The Gospel of the Kingdom.'"

The program of this Synod was a most full and interesting one and after hearing the committees of Social Service, Religious Education, Missions and War Commission and other connecting subjects, one feels that the work of the Church is going forward and is fully alive to its responsibilities in the struggle for humanity and is living up to the motto of the Synod.

"To know the living, loving, present Christ and to make Him known through Love."

Union Revival Services.

The union revival services which have been continued in Christ M. P. Church during the week, have resulted in many conversions, and much religious interest on behalf of the entire community. Rev. Dr. Davidson, the evangelist, and his estimable wife, have labored faithfully among the people, and this community has never heard more soul-stirring sermons than have been preached every night by Dr. Davidson. There have been close to 100 conversions during the four weeks campaign, and the meetings have resulted in untold spiritual good to the town and county. The service on Thanksgiving morning was one of the most unique ever witnessed in this town, and scores of people, old and young, gave expression to their thankfulness in inspiring testimony. Other great meetings were the meeting for men only last Sunday afternoon, when nearly 500 men heard one of the most powerful sermons of the entire campaign; and the meeting for women only yesterday afternoon, when a great crowd of women heard another great sermon. Dr. and Mrs. Davidson have done a great work in this community, and they have endeared themselves to the people in such a manner as will cause them to be lovingly remembered for many years to come. Sunday will be a great day in Chestertown. There will be three union services in Christ M P. Church, at each of which Dr. Davidson will preach. These meetings may close the great campaign, and every one in the town should make it a point to be present at these services. Dr. Davidson will go from here to Kennedyville for a two weeks campaign after the close of the meetings here.

WEDDINGS

The wedding of Miss Helen Elizabeth Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison E. Cooper, to Sewell J. Lee took place Wednesday noon at the Presbyterian Church, Worton, Md. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. B. Jester, of St. James M. P. Church. The immediate families of the bride and groom and a few intimate friends were present to witness the ceremony. The bride was attired in a traveling suit of dark brown broadcloth with hat to match. They left immediately after the ceremony by automobile for Wilmington and other northern cities.

Mr. Lee lives on one of Mr. Cahpman's fine farms near Lynch, where they will be at home to their friends after December the seventeenth.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elzey, of Baltimore, spent several days the past week with Mrs. Mattie Tull. Miss Grace Tull accompanied them home to spend the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. Arthur Brice and children are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones, of Baltimore.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Nurkin have moved to Baltimore and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mann have gone to Wilmington and Mr. Rhoten Crew to Wilmington for the winter.

"THE LONE WOLF"

In the presentation of a swiftly moving, tense story of mystery and adventure, the screen is supreme in the field of entertainment, and when such a story is the work of so brilliant an author as Louis Joseph Vance and the film version is prepared by such a master hand as Herbert Brenon, the result is certainly well worth watching for. Patrons of the Lyceum Theatre will have this happy combination set before them on Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 3 and 4, when the big Selznick-Pictures production of "The Lone Wolf" will be the feature attraction.

The story centers about the deeds and adventures of a master criminal known to the police as the Lone Wolf. This criminal becomes involved with a band of crooks known as the Pack, through his efforts to rescue from them a lovely girl who, he believes, is a crook herself. The Wolf and the girl pass through many exciting adventurers, including a running fight through the streets of Paris in taxicabs and a battle in aeroplanes, in flight across the English Channel. Eventually the girl identifies herself as a secret service agent, but gives the Wolf his liberty under his promise of reformation.

Hazel Dawn and Bert Lytell are featured players in a cast that is almost entirely of stellar calibre, including as it does the following: Alfred Hickman, Edward Abeles, William E. Shay, Stephen Grattan, William Riley Hatch, Florence Ashbrooke, Juliet Brenon, Joseph Chailles, Ben Graham, Robert Fischer and Master Cornish Beck.

Naval Recruits Wanted.

Maryland has again been asked by the Bureau of Navigation to furnish a definite number of navy recruits within a prescribed time. This time the State has been asked to enlist 36 firemen, third-class, by December 15th.

The need for these men is urgent, and Lieutenant-Commander John Grady, Recruiting Inspector for the Eastern Naval Division, has instructed the recruiting authorities at Baltimore to spare no effort to put Maryland in the column of States that get their new quota.

In view of the fact that Maryland was the only State in the Eastern Naval Division that enlisted its full quota in the big drive last spring when President Wilson issued his first call for volunteers, Lieut. M. A. Leahy, Recruiting Officer for the Maryland District, believes there should be experienced little difficulty in obtaining three dozen firemen by the middle of December.

The only requirements are that applicants must be in good health, between the ages of 21 and 35 years, and citizens of the United States. Men with experience as firemen can be enlisted in the second or first class ratings.

Full particulars of navy enlistments can be obtained from the Navy Recruiting Station, Calvert and Lexington streets, Baltimore, from the postmaster nearest the prospective applicant, or from the Navy Recruiting Substations at Cumberland and Hagerstown.
