June 6,—td.

In the Circuit Court for Carroll County, in Equity, No. 950.

MAY TERM, 1867.

George B. Leister, vs. Elizabeth Leister } THE object of this suit is to obtain a Decree to divorce the Complainant, a vinculo matrimonii from the Defendant.

The Bill states that on or about the first day of December, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-three, the complainant intermarried with Elizabeth Gamber, the defendant, and that a certain Reverend Samuel Henry was the officiating Minister. That the complainant and defendant from the date of their said marriage resided together until the sixth day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, when the defendant abandoned the complainant.

The bill further charges that the defendant, prior to the date when she abandoned the complainant, committed the crime of Adultery. That the complainant heard of the defendant was, that she was in the Town of Erie in the State of Pennsylvania, but that she left there in company with her Paramour and that she is now living in adultery with her said Paramour beyond the limits of the State of Maryland.

The bill further states and charges that the heniousness of the crime of adultery committed and yet being committing by the defendant renders the situation of the complainant extremely unpleasant, and that a proper regard for the laws of decency and morality demand that the complainant be divorced a vinculo matrimonii from the defendant.

The bill prays that the defendant shall answer the several matters and things therein stated and charged. That a Decree shall be passed divorcing the complainant a vinculo matrimonii from the defendant. For general relief to the complainant, and for an order of publication against the defendant.

It is thereupon this first day of June, in the year 1867, ordered that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Carroll County, once a week for four successive weeks before the sixth day of July, in the year 1867, giving notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this Bill of complaint; and warn her to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor, on or before the seventh day of October, in the year 1867, to answer the premises and show cause if any she has, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.

SOMETHING NEW TO SMOKERS!

ADVANTAGES OF THE

PATENT GRANULATED

SMOKING TOBACCO.

IT has the flavor of the best Havana Cigar. It has the flavor because it is manufactured from the finest part of the leaf, and of the choicest Tobacco, previously reduced to a comminuted state.

Owing to its "Granulated" state, the ashes of this tobacco never rises up in the pipe, while the ashes of all other smoking tobacco does, often falling on, burning, or soiling the clothes.

A pipe full of the "Granulated" will last longer in smoking than any other form of tobacco.

The flavor of the last inhalation is as pure as the first; its "Granulated" condition preventing the tobacco in the bowl and the pipe from becoming impregnated by the smoke, as it is drawn through it.

The "Granulated" does not foul the pipe or stem nearly so much as any other tobacco; nor does it leave any unpleasant taste or foulness in the mouth, so usual and strongly marked, after smoking other forms of tobacco.

The above advantages of the "Granulated" are not vague and theoretical, but are simple and practical points which may be tested and proved by actual trial. Let each one verify for himself the important advantages claimed.

Intending to make a speciality of the Segar and Tobacco trade in connexion with the Watch, Clock and Jewelry business.—We invite those fond of a Good Segar to give us a call, promising them something nice in that line. Also, the Patent Granulated Smoking Tobacco, warranted to be superior to any Tobacco in market, always on hand. WM. MOORE.

In the Circuit Court for Carroll County, sitting as a Court of Equity.

Delilah Bish, vs. William Bish, } THE object of this suit is to procure a Decree divorcing the Complainant from the Defendant, a vinculo matrimonii.

The Bill charges that they were lawfully married on the 19th day of April, 1864, at Manchester, Carroll County, Maryland, by Rev. J. W. Hoffnecier, and that complainant's maiden name was Delilah Yengle. That the complainant in all things conducted and demeaned herself as a true and faithful wife, and that without any just cause or provocation the defendant abandoned complainant on the 10th day of May, in the year 1864, and resides beyond the limits of the State of Maryland in parts unknown to complainant. That the defendant has abandoned complainant, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for more than three years, is deliberate and final, and the separation is beyond any reasonable hope or expectation of reconciliation.

The Bill prays an order of publication, giving notice to the defendant of the object and substance of this bill, and warning him to appear in this Court at some certain day to be therein named.

It is therefore adjudged and ordered that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published at Westminster, Carroll County, Maryland, in each of four successive weeks before the fifteenth day of June, 1867, giving notice to the absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, and warn him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the Fifteenth day of September, next, to answer the premises and show cause if any he has, why a Decree ought not to pass as prayed.
