Hadaway.

MONDAY

The first case that came before the court was State vs. Joseph Cassell, Jr., appeal from Justice Moffett. Verdict not guilty. H. W. Vickers for state; S. S. Beck for Cassell.

Appeals of Harry Kingsland vs. State were finally discharged.

Edward Geyser vs. Dr. W. O. Selby. Appeal from Justice Moffett. Verdict for Dr. Selby for sum of $42.00. R. Groome Parks for former, J. D. Urie for latter.

The court ordered that the practice requiring criminals' appeals from justices of the peace to be filed in the court on or before the Saturday next preceding the first Monday of a term, in order to be tried, by oral order of court, is set aside and abolished. Hereafter all criminal appeals sent up after the beginning of a trial term will be tried during such term if the business of the court permits.

The Grand Jury at this time brought in the following presentments: Andrew Ruley with assault; Andrew Ruley with carrying concealed weapons; Isiah Phillips with poisoning horse; Percy Jones, larceny; James Gleaves, with attempt to defraud; Calvin Barrett, illegal use of horse; George Bentley, obtaining money under false pretenses.

TUESDAY

I. U. Parish.—The Mission of I. U. Parish has been the recipient of a valuable communion service and a Credence from a parish in Virginia. The following will speak for itself: "A slight tribute of appreciation of the work of the Rev. S. S. Hepburn from St. John's Church, Langley Parish, Va. The result of his earnest work began fifty years ago to St. John's-by-the-Bay, Betterton, Md., the fruit of his latest endeavor. 1867-1917.

Changes Among Lankford Farmers.—Mr. George D. Lambert will tenant Mr. Charles R. Jester's Oakland farm, near Tolchester, next year. Mr. J. LeRoy Jacquette, who has tenanted the H. L. Boyd farm for several years, will move to the John E. Smith farm next year and Mr. Howard Stoops will discontinue the mercantile business at Georgetown and engage in farming and will tenant the Boyd farm. Mr. Herbert Walbert, now residing on the Pote farm near Kennedyville, will tenant the T. E. W. Crew farm.

Notice To Registrants.—"Please cause the broadest and most extensive and continuous possible publicity to be given through the Adjutant General, Local and District Boards, the newspapers and by all other possible means of warning to all registrants who may have changed their places of abode and postoffice address to communicate immediately with their Local Boards where they are registered and furnish their present addresses so that Questionnaires which will begin to be mailed December 15 will reach such registrants without delay. Registrants are bound by law to keep themselves advised of all proceedings in respect to them and failure to do so may result in their losing right to claim exemption or discharge. Please request newspapers to give this warning broad and continuous publication from this time until the process of mailing Questionnaires has been accomplished."—By direction of the Governor, Henry M. Warfield, The Adjutant General.

CLIFFS ITEMS

Mrs. Charlie Switzer, of Baltimore, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Robertson. Mrs. Robertson accompanied her home to spend the winter in Baltimore on account of her poor health.

Mr. J. C. Jerome, who is in the Marine Hospital, is improving slowly, we are glad to state.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hadaway, of the Cliffs, have moved to Eastern Neck Island.

Mrs. R. L. Kirby is very much improved from a recent illness.

Mrs. Lester Crouch and Mrs. W. E. Dickerson had the misfortune to break off needles in their fingers while sewing at their homes a short time ago.

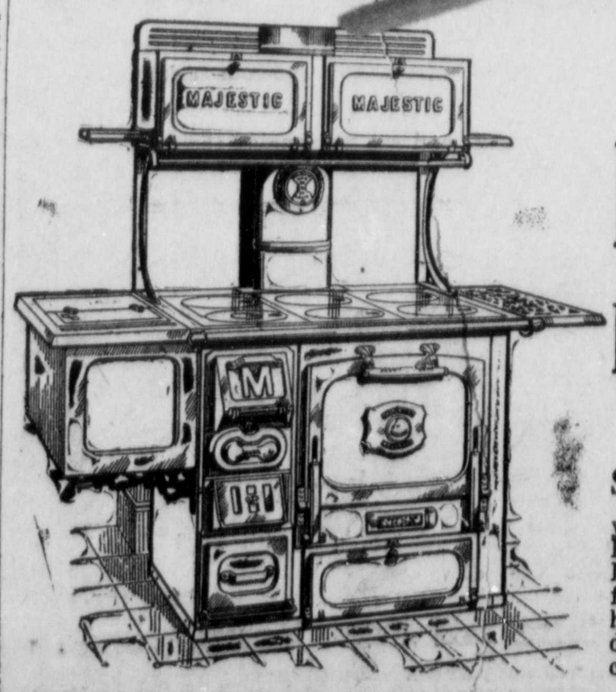
Miss Mary Houston, who has been visiting Mrs. J. E. Aaronson for some time, returned to Baltimore on Monday last.

Miss Estella Dickerson, of Cliffs, is visiting Miss Edith Raisin in Worton.

Services at Mowbray as usual. Sunday, Dec. 9, Sunday School 2.30 p. m., E. Crouch, supt.; preaching services 7 p. m., followed by revival. Rev. Edwin Gardener, pastor. All invited to these meetings.

"Not Qualified."—"Not qualified" are two words we do not want written against our coming generations, therefore begin by educating the children. On Dec. 7th began the sale of the Red Cross Christmas Seals throughout the schools of the county, which is a health crusade, with our County Nurse as League Master. The National Association is anxious that each county take up its individual interest, and as we worked last year with such zeal and secured our [illegible] last strengthen our efforts [illegible] the good work as a part of [illegible] Kent Co. Chapter of the Red Cross, for our home interests must not lag and out of our sales Kent gets 75 per cent. The National Association gets 10 per cent, while the State Association 15 per cent. Help the cause by buying the Seals. Those buying Seals will place a Seal on door knob or place an acknowledgement card in the window and they will not be solicited again.

The Great Majestic RANGE



Demonstration and Sale

AT OUR STORE ONE WEEK ONLY,

December 10 to December 17, 1917

COME!

SEE the GREAT MAJESTIC—The Range with a Reputation—in its new dress. Let the factory representative show you why the MAJASTIC Bakes Better, Looks Better, Lasts Longer, Heats More Water Quicker and Hotter and Uses Less Fuel than any other range. We want to prove these facts to you---want you to know why the MAJESTIC is so highly recommended by your neighbor---why it is the Standard by which all ranges are judged---why it is known in every county in every state as the Range with a Reputation.

FREE! SET OF MARBILIZED AND COPPER WARE.

As a special inducement during this week only, we have arranged with the factory to present each purchaser of a Majestic Range with a handsome and useful set of cooking ware as illustrated. This is your opportunity to get something really worth while for nothing. Ranges will be sold at the regular prices.
