Miss Lloyd, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. Walter Strong.

Miss Mildred Collins, of Centreville, has been the guest of Miss Susan Stam.

Miss Madge Cockran, of Centreville, is the guest of Mrs. H. H. Barroll.

Mr. Ringgold Strong, who was sent to Guano, South America, by his company of Worcester, Mass., has been the guest of his parents in the county. He has returned to Worcester, where he occupies a prominent position with the company in whose employ he has been since his graduation from Pratt Institute.

Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., and son, William, are in Baltimore the guests of friends this week.

Miss Grace Greenwood, of Blacks, has entered Beacom Business College at Wilmington.

Cadet John Gibbons has been appointed corporal of the buglers.

It is very encouraging to the Cadets to know that Cadet J. E. Panis, who enlisted in the Forestry Corps, has secured the commission of first sergeant. From this it appears that the military training of W. C. is by no means a fake, but as good as can be secured at any college.

C. Lee Gill has been transferred from Camp Lee to Fort Meyer, Va., with the 37th engineers as linesman.

Mrs. L. C. Ayres received a letter from her son, Corporal Robert Ayres, of Camp McClellan, to the effect that he would not go to France shortly, as he anticipated.

AGRICULTURE AND DOMESTIC SCIENCE FOR KENT FARMERS

That Is, If They Want It—Meeting To Be Held Today In Court House

If the farmers and their wives of Kent county want a free course of lectures on agriculture and domestic science they should assemble today at 3 p. m. in the Court House in Chestertown and signify their desire for the same. It is absolutely free and is given by the International Harvester Extension Service, not for the purpose of advertising their wares, however, but for the promotion of the science of farming.

Messrs. Davis & Satterfield, of Chestertown, heard of this course and immediately set to work to get it for the Kent farmers. Consequently, Mr. H. J. Nagorsen, representing the International Harvester Extension Service, met a number of local citizens in the store of Davis & Satterfield on Tuesday evening and explained the matter to them thoroughly.

The proposed dates for this free course are Feb. 8 and 9. Local committees will be appointed to further the meeting, if our people want it, —and they should,—because it is something which will be at least interesting and doubtless very instructive.

Chestertown is fortunate in being one of the few places on the peninsula selected for holding these meetings. Some good speakers, all specialists on different lines of agricultural education, will be present. The work is strictly educational. The speakers carry with them a number of sets of lantern slides, large charts and complete demonstration material. In addition to speaking, motion pictures of improved methods of farming will be shown. These methods of presenting the subjects are new and different from anything heretofore undertaken, it is said.

Today, Saturday, at 3 p. m., is the time for the meeting, at the Court House, to decide whether or not you want this free entertainment, and as many as possible should be there.

Mr. Bayard Sutton Injured.—Mr. Bayard Sutton was run into, while getting his car from a ditch at Baker's Woods, Friday evening, during the storm, by an auto driven by a young lady of Galena. Mr. Sutton's foot and leg were badly injured, and Mr. William Durding, Mr. Sutton's father-in-law, of Rock Hall, had his head badly cut, the wound requiring 27 stitches to close. Mr. Durding's wife was in the car but escaped with but slight bruises. All of the injured ones are getting along nicely except Mr. Durding who is suffering considerably from his cuts.

...e resolution for nation...de prohibition had passed the Senate before the Delegates and Senators were elected last fall, and it was in the House of Representatives at that time. There are but few people who claim to be posted upon this question who would, for a moment, say that there was doubt any time in the past six months about the submission of this question to the Legislatures of the states. As a great newspaper of the City of Baltimore has said, if this question is not settled at this Legislature it will be the question upon which the election of all legislatures will turn for the next seven years. This certainly is true unless 36 states ratify the resolution before that time.

We submit that, inasmuch as the Legislature knows this to be true, the responsibility for continuing this fight on the submission of the nation-wide prohibition amendment rests entirely with the Legislature and the one now in session can settle this question for all time to come in Maryland and we appeal to every friend of the cause to make this known to his Senator and members of the House of Delegates.

SPECIAL N...

—OF—

Assessment on Pe... sonal Property.

The Commissioners of Kent County, under order from th... State Tax Commission of Maryland, are now sending out by mail, "Notices and Schedule for Assessment on Personal Property." You will receive two schedules, one to be filled in by the party or parties receiving it; the other to be retained by you for your own reference. You then go before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public or come before the County Commissioners and make affidavit to the Schedule. This MUST be done before the Commissioners can accept it from you. Your notice will state just what day you must make the return, which means that you must make the return on or before that date. The Commissioners will sit in session on ecch day of the week EXCEPT SATURDAY, after you receive your schedule.

It is advisable that you read over your schedule carefully before attempting to make it up. By doing this, you will have no trouble. It is important that you see that your name and address is properly listed, District, Rural Delivery, etc., if any; if colored, so state. Personal property in your possession belonging to others, must be reported. See Section No. 23, on Schedule.

By order of Board,
SAMUEL HICKS,
j19-tf. Clerk.

Averys—The Tractors That Burn ALL the Kerosene

You want a tractor that burns Kerosene. You don't need to burn high priced gasoline in Avery Tractors for they are genuine Kerosene burners.

Avery Tractors are the only make of tractors equipped with a Double Carburetor and Duplex Gasifier Fuel System, and the only make of tractors that really burn ALL the kerosene.

One Avery owner recently said, "Our engine runs as smoothly on kerosene as on gasoline. We haven't had a bit of trouble with it." Another Avery owner said, "There are eleven gas and oil tractors in our country. None of them handle kerosene as well as the Avery." Avery Tractor Owners all over the country are saying the same thing—they have proved by experience that Avery Tractors burn ALL the Kerosene.

Let us demonstrate to you how Avery Tractors do this.
