Don't fail to attend the Epworth League service Sunday evening, subject, "Am I Doing Anything I would Condemn in Another?"

Mrs. Laura Birch, who has been quite sick, we are glad to say is improving at this writing.

BETTERTON ITEMS

The monthly business meeting of the Ladies Aid Society was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Brice. A "drive" for members was started at the beginning of the month and as a result 28 new ones were received into the society. This band of women is a great help to the M. E. Church. During the past three years they have paid nearly two thousand dollars on the church building fund, aside from the interest money on the entire church debt.

The boys and girls have been having fine sport this week coasting on the Chesapeake Hill. They start the sleds at Mr. Walter Crew's home and stop at Crew's Ice Cream Saloon.

There is a great deal of sickness at Betterton the present time. Hardly a home has escaped having at least one patient.

The young folks of the town are rehearsing a play, "The New Minister," which will be given in the near future and promises to be very good. The proceeds will be for the M. E. Church.

Miss Helen Rasin, who has recently graduated from the Howard Hospital, Philadelphia, is at home for a few days.

Mrs. W. H. Crew and Mrs. George Brice are visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Owens entertained a few friends at their home on Monday evening.

ROCK HALL

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Warner is suffering with a bad spell of the grip.

Mr. Bernard Willson is making the most of a furlough from Camp Meade.

Etta, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. Marion Coleman is improving from pneumonia, which developed after she had recovered from chicken pox and measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Joyner visited Wilmington to help Miss Norma Sappington to celebrate her twelfth birthday.

Rev. Prettyman is suffering with grip. Mr. Charles Davis conducted the Sunday School and Mrs. Hague had charge of the evening service at the M. E. Church.

Mr. Walter Scoon has purchased the home of Mr. Jos. Galaski, the latter having bought the house belonging to his father, who moved to Baltimore some time ago.

The Grange had another lively meeting last Friday evening. A debating contest took place and another is scheduled for the next meeting.

Mrs. Wm. P. Middleton offers votes of thanks to all friends and neighbors who were so good and kind in her bereavement.

GALENA ITEMS

Miss Grace Anderson spent the week end with friends in Easton.

Mr. Charles Stradley and Lester McCauley, of Camp Meade, visited their parents two or three days this week.

Miss Annie Hayes was confined to her home a few days but is able to be in her store again.

Mr. Harry Todd, who has been confined to his home for several weeks with a broken ankle, is able to walk out again.

Mrs. Thomas Caldwell slipped on the ice and sprained her back, but is now able to be down stairs.

The busses have not been running for over a week on account of such heavy snow blocking the roads.

The funeral of Mrs. Edwin Chrisfield was held at the M. E. Church on Tuesday, Feb. 5, at 2 p. m., and was conducted by Rev. A. P. Prettyman and Rev. Frank White. Mr. John Coppage, funeral director.

Mrs. Trinks, who has been very sick, is able to be about her home duties again.
