WESTMINSTER:

THE ELECTION.

In another column we give the official vote of the election of Tuesday week, the result of which, although anticipated by many, is none the less annoying and mortifying to the mass of the Republican party, when they reflect upon the causes that mainly led to so crushing a defeat. It is not our purpose now to review those causes, or even revert to the wholesale misrepresentations under which we labored, but merely to impress upon our friends the great lesson it has taught us, that we may be fully prepared to meet and overcome all such efforts in the future.

We have nothing to regret as regards the great principle we have cherished and advocated, save that we have not labored harder and more zealously in its defence; and there are two thousand three hundred and over firm and true Republicans in the County to-day that feel as we do, and deeply regret the inactivity and want of energy that formerly characterized them, and we believe will be far more active and zealous in the future. They have exhibited an earnest, generous devotion to principle, have shown a steady and unbroken front, and only energy and perseverance is now necessary to increase their numbers and render future success a certainty, for with such a nucleus, and with a knowledge of the wonderful fluctuations of political opinion which these days show we need not despair.

The Democratic party has now that excess of power in Maryland which is most dangerous to all parties. Unopposed and unchecked by a single opponent in any branch of the State Government, it will surely run into excesses, find growing dissensions and jealousies in its own ranks, and become weakened by the very burthen of its own power. No elections will take place before the Presidential canvass of 1868; between now and then many things must occur that will greatly alter the political aspect. For us here in Maryland that aspect is now at its worst. It cannot but grow better. Let us wait, and hope, and work.

Impeachment.

Ever since the result of the elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio became fully known, every Democratic paper in the land has been busy in circulating the rumor that the impeachment project is now abandoned, and that members of Congress who, at the last session, were foremost in piloting this thing through now give it up as lost. But we are at a loss to conceive how the result of the elections in those States is to effect impeachment. 'Tis true that the Democrats have gained some advantages, and those gains have been forcibly construed into an endorsement of "my policy." If Andrew Johnson is deserving of the humiliation and shame which is the natural consequence of impeachment, what matters it if every State in the Union, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, were to give Democratic majorities? If the charges brought against the Executive can be substantiated by indisputable evidence, and which we do not for one moment doubt, the talk of resistance to the decrees of justice is mere idle words and those who put confidence in it are but the deluded followers of a set of reckless political adventurers who are ever ready to manufacture capital from whatever may chance to turn up. If these things can be substantiated and the Democrats offer anything in aught of it, then do they become false to their teachings, false to the interests of their country, and false to the Constitution handed down from sire to son as the blessed heritage for which they suffered privation, toil and death. We are not of those who favored impeachment because President Johnson had proven recreant to the men who elevated him to the second highest honor in the gift of this Republic, from which position he became the accidental President by an unexpected and unforseen event. Higher considerations and motives than these have impelled us to advocate his impeachment and dismissal from office. We believe him to be guilty of crimes and misdemeanors which subject him at least to a trial before the proper tribunal. If that tribunal cannot find sufficient weight in the charges preferred against him, then will all be well. But if they adjudge him guilty let him be disgraced. Let no motives or considerations of policy deter them from exercising the privileges which the Constitution places at their disposal in cases of this kind. In the impeachment and removal from office of malfeasant and dangerous incumbents rests the stability of all republics. 'Tis true that it is something novel with us, but we have fully proven in the past that we are capable of successfully handling things new as well as old.—Our Government itself was an experiment yet for nearly a century have we guided the good old ship through the dangers that beset her on every side. It matters not if the proposed impeachment of Johnson is without precedent. Let his case be fully investigated by Congress as soon as it shall meet; and we have not the least doubt but that he will be consigned to an oblivion and disgrace equally as pungent and deserving as was Benedict Arnold's.

Righteous Decision

The Supreme Court of the District of Columbia had before it on Saturday last the case of Judge Fisher and lawyer Bradley, counsel for Surratt. Mr. Robert J. Walker made a long argument in behalf of Bradley, in reply to the ruling of the Court, at the close of which Chief Justice Carter delivered the opinion of the Court. He sustained the action of Judge Fisher in suspending Bradley, and announced that henceforth he (Bradley) should not be allowed to practice in any Court of the District. The Court was unanimous in its decision. All the Judges were on the bench except Judge Fisher, who was not present. The decision has created great excitement.

The Diabolical Spirit of Modern Democracy.

At a meeting of the Copperheads held at Hillsboro', Ohio, Mr. Vallandigham was advertised to speak, but just before that apostle commenced, the chairman, Mr. Jillson announced that he had just received a letter and he would like to read it. Mr. Vallandigham said certainly, and Mr. Jillson read as follows:

"IN HELL, ROOM NO. 71,450.

"To the Black Republicans of Ohio:

"I am here suffering torments for my crimes and usurpation while on earth. I am reminded of my great wickedness, and send these words to you that you may take warning. George Washington passed me on the other side of the great gulf but only looked at me with unutterable scorn. Take warning by my fate.

[Signed] "ABRAHAM LINCOLN."

The double-eyed, impious devil read the foregoing production with a malicious chuckle, and the great (?) Vallandigham made it the basis of appeal to his audience to avoid hell by voting with the "Democratic" party. The narration of this diabolical piece of treasonable impudence called forth a hurricane of hisses from the audience, and seemed to deepen the hatred which all respectable people must entertain for a party that can tolerate such beastly profanity.

Significant Indications.

The scheme of retrogression in the South has assumed a wider range than Andrew Johnson ever intended. Those who doubted that the rebels would ever attempt to regain their lost cause if encouraged to do so by the Northern elections, begin to admit that they were wrong. The rebels boldly look to recover everything, begining with compensation for their slaves. Wigfall and Benjamin are in London collecting evidences of the Confederate debt in British lands, so as to make a case when the South, admitted to all her rights, refuses to pay her share of the national taxes unless her war obligations are acknowledged. Herschel V. Johnson is engaged to recover damages for the cotton tax paid into the national Treasury on the ground of its unconstitutionality, and this even while he and his associates are whining for its repeal. The number of claims for damages presented by these virtuous saints is endless. They are not only besieging the departments, but the courts and the rally against the confiscation law has become almost as fashionable as that against the negroes. Every District rebel who fought against his country, and lost his property here for doing so, is back amongst us, under A. J.'s protection, demanding "indemnity for the past and security for the future."

United States Senator from Maryland.

Hon. William T. Hamilton, of Washington county, is announced as a competitor with Gov. Swann for Hon. Reverdy Johnson's seat in the United States Senate. Mr. Hamilton is an able lawyer and keen politician. He represented his District in Congress for two terms, and came within one vote of being the Democratic nominee for Governor at the late election. In all things he is Gov. Swann's superior and can be trusted with power without fear of deserting principles for personal aggrandizement.

Local Items.

Western Md. College.—In another column will be found an advertisement offering a limited number of Scholarships in this excellent Institution at a greatly reduced price. This is an offer eminently worthy of attention from all persons having children or wards to educate, and an opportunity seldom met with. See Advertisement.

Fine Turnips.—We are again under obligations to our old Radical friend from the Barrens, Col. Jas. W. Hook, for a lot of the finest turnips we have seen this season, many of them are very large, measuring from twenty-three to thirty inches in circumference, but solid and tender, The Colonel has been fortunate this season, and has raised several hundred bushels, and our friends in need of this excellent vegetable should send in their orders at once, as he is able to supply the demand.

To Lovers of Music.—Our friend A. M. Warner, of the West End, has just received a most excellent assortment of Accordeons from New York which he will sell at a very low figure.—They are fine-toned instruments of an excellent finish, and decidedly cheap. Step in and examine them, and by the way, he can also accommodate you with almost any other article you may need from a dress coat to a pipe full of tobacco, or the ladies, from a rich cashmere dress to a shoe-string; his establishment being in the way of variety a perfect "Noah's Ark."

Elias A. Gorsuch,

It is thought that the session will be a short one, probably adjourning until January, or such time as the incoming Judges may designate. It is certain, however, that no cases of special importance will be tried at this term.

The way it Goes.

A month ago the Democrats carried California, through Republican divisions by about ten thousand. They claimed to have made immense gains—the beginning of the "reaction" about which so much has been said. A State election for Judge has just taken place, and the Democratic candidate is barely elected. If in one month the party looses 10,000, what do they consider is their prospect for carrying the State against Grant?

☞General Grant has directed that no leaves of absence for army officers shall be granted, or even considered, unless applied for through the regular channels, and that the applications of outside parties will not be heeded. This is designed to put an end to that abuse of political influence by which certain officers are permitted to stay away from their commands and others are denied the leaves they ought to have.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 4, '67.

"CONSERVATIVES."

Who are the 'Conservatives' of Maryland, and what are their future intentions? These are questions more easily asked than answered, not only by opposite political parties, but by themselves. They are simply a pack of hybrid curs, yelping at the heels of the Democratic Rebels, and snarling at the Republicans. They are opposed to the destructive radical Democracy, and will not vote with the Republicans for fear that some day in the course of human events, they 'will be forced to wed a negro.' Poor, deluded, ignorant fools—they know not they nothing know.

"NEGRO EQUALITY!"

a Democratic yell to frighten the timid illiterate men. 'Negro Equality,' indeed! Who ever saw or heard of 'negro equality' in this country or any other? We are not sure that there is even white equality indulged in by those who seem to be most frightened by the Democratic war-cry of 'negro equality!' Mark well, readers, the cry of 'negro equality,' and ask your Democratic friends if they did not in days gone by, preach and gain respect and power in the North by advocating the equality of civil and political rights for ALL MEN, throughout the nation? Did you ever hear of 'negro equality' when the Democracy advocated emancipation? Did you hear of 'negro equality' when they advocated the enfranchisement of all men everywhere? Did you hear of 'negro equality' when the Democrats in Rhode Island sued for negro voters? Certainly not; but the Democratic war-cry of 'negro equality' is raised to-day in order to frighten the timid Republican, and force him to remain at home on election days, as they well know he cannot and will not vote for their destructive policy. It is a pity we have such hybrids as 'Conservatives' around us, for if it were otherwise, Democracy would be only 'kicking against the pricks' to howl at 'negro equality.'—Have the Democratic leaders ever practiced social equality among the whites? By no means! They will call upon the German, the Irishman and the Italian to vote with and for them, but the simple duty of voting does not place them on a level of social equality, or at least they have never shown it. Where is the Democratic leader that can be found in a low groggery on Low Street, at any time, engaged in a social debauch with that class of their supporters who yell the loudest against 'negro equality?' Show me the Democratic candidate who will be willing to invite one of that 'lowly class' into his parlors, or entertain him at his table, either before or after the election, and I will show you a true representative of white equality, and then only can he be found. The only equality the Republican party desires is that of equality for all men before the law, in Courts of justice, and in securing safety for property and life and limb, in this should be enlightened realm. What means 'Conservatism'? Do they not see that impartial suffrage is already established in the Southern States, and cannot be removed without revolution? Do they not know that these States will be admitted into the Union as reconstructed States supported by that suffrage alone? Be not misled—there are but two political parties, the Democratic and Republican, and you must eventually cleave to the one or the other, with or without political equality for all men before the laws. Surely it is worth while for 'Conservatives' to consider well this thing and determine now what is to be their course in the future, with the destructive radical policy of the Democrats, or the liberal and lasting policy of the Republican Unionists who saved the land from ruin in a rebellion inaugurated and relentlessly waged against its liberties and its laws by these very bad men—the Democrats who now howl in their ears the fear of 'negro equality.'

THOMAS SWANN

Still wishes to go to the Senate, and is stumping the State in favor of the Democratic party. He had better hide his head, and forever hold his peace, after acting the part of double traitor in his role of selling the loyalists of Maryland to the returned Rebel Soldiers of the late 'Confederacy.'

VIRGINIA,

East and West—are Loyal now for all time. The late elections have given large gains in West Virginia for the Republicans, and Eastern Virginia is ours by forty-five thousand majority. We leave nearly fifteen thousand white votes, while the majority of whites registered over the blacks show but thirteen thousand. Thus in a full vote of Rebels and Loyalists together, the latter would have a majority of nearly two thousand votes. The F. F. V's., had better accept the situation—they cannot better it—and may make it worse for themselves.

CITY TRADE

Is very dull—not since the dark days of 1861, have we experienced such dull times. The Merchants and Bankers complain very much, and compute the stagnation to the state of the political times. The Fancy Stores are already thinking of Christmas, and are preparing accordingly. The boys and girls are being delighted with the prospect of something new, and already have the first numbers of Oliver Optic's new works—from Lee & Shepard, Publishers of Boston, entitled—'Breaking Away; or The Fortunes of a Student'—and 'Young America in Iceland and Scotland,' both of which will be succeeded by others of the series, for our young folks exclusively. I like the style of the little Stories myself, and have no doubt they will be eagerly sought for by all our young folks, for the edification of whom they are written and published.

More anon, H. J. H.

Freedmen's Bureau.

The Freedmen's Bureau will expire next July, by limitation. It is understood that Gen. Howard will not recommend its continuance beyond that time, in case the reconstruction of the South should be accomplished by that period, which is regarded now as highly probable. The Bureau has been of incalculable service in re-organizing the industry of the South; and has done much towards harmonizing the relations of the employers and the employed. It has been worth all it has cost. But the restoration of these States and the inauguration of civil rule in the South will of course render the further continuance of their machinery unnecessary.

☞The terms of twenty-one United States Senators will expire on the 4th of March, 1869, of whom fourteen are Republican and seven Democratic; but it is scarcely possible for the Democracy to break the two-thirds power of the Republicans in that body, during the existence of the 41st Congress. One of these Democrats is Patterson of Tennessee, whom Brownlow has been chosen to succeed.—Dewitt Clinton, Republican Speaker of the Senate of Tennessee, will succeed Brownlow as Governor on his becoming Senator in March, 1869.

☞The Copperhead Editors figure up a gain for their party of 11,000 votes in thirty-five counties in Indiana, but say nothing of the remaining counties of the State in which the Cops lost more than twice as much. The net gains of the Republicans in the whole State is about 10,000. An Indiana paper says:

"The Republican majority in the whole State is between 22,000 and 23,000, larger by nearly 3,000 than our heavy majority in 1864, and by nearly 10,000 than our majority in 1866. The Republicans elected their county tickets in two-thirds of the counties, and ten of the eleven Congressional districts gave Republican majorities, the Second and Fourth being gains."

IRON IN THE BLOOD

The necessity of a due proportion of iron is well known to all medical men; when it becomes reduced from any cause whatever, the whole system suffers, the weakest part being first attacked, and a feeling of languor, lassitude, and "all goneness" pervades the system. Stimulants only afford temporary relief, and have the same effect as giving a tired horse the whip instead of oats. The true remedy is to supply the blood with the necessary quantity of iron. This can be done by using the a protected solution of the protoxide of Iron, which is so prepared that it assimilates at once with the blood, giving strength, vigor and new life to the whole system.

To take medicine to cure diseases occasioned by a deficiency of IRON IN THE BLOOD, without restoring it to the system, is like trying to repair a building when the foundation is gone.

An eminent divine says: "I have been using the PERUVIAN SYRUP for some time past; it gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle."

Pamphlets containing certificates of cures, and recommendations from some of the most eminent physicians, clergymen and others, will be sent free to any address.

The genuine has "PERUVIAN SYRUP" blown in the glass.

Consumption Curable by Dr. Schenck's Medicines.

TO CURE CONSUMPTION, the system must be prepared so that the lungs will heal. To accomplish this, the liver and stomach must first be cleansed and an appetite created for good wholesome food, which, by these medicines will be digested properly, and good healthy blood made; thus building up the constitution. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS cleanse the stomach of all bilious or mucous accumulations, and, by using the Sea Weed Tonic in connection, the appetite is restored.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP is nutricious as well as medicinal, and by using the three remedies all impurities are expelled from the system, and good, wholesome blood made, which will repel all disease. If patients will take these medicines according to directions, Consumption very frequently in its last stages yields readily in their action.—Take the pills frequently, to cleanse the liver and stomach. It does not follow that because the bowels are not costive they are not required, for sometimes in diarrhœa they are necessary. The stomach must be kept healthy, and an appetite created to allow the Pulmonic Syrup to act on the respiratory organs properly and allay any irritation. Then all that is required to perform a permanent cure is, to prevent taking cold. Exercise about the rooms as much as possible, eat all the richest food—fat meat, game, and, in fact, anything the appetite craves; but be particular and masticate well
