CHURCH NOTES

The Sunday School room of the Chestertown M. E. Church was the scene of an enjoyable occasion on last Friday evening when a reception was given Dr. George T. Alderson and family. The room was filled with a big crowd of Methodists and people of other denominations who were there to give the new pastor and his family a cordial welcome. Dr. L. E. Barrett, a former pastor of the M. E. Church, Dr. J. L. Ward, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, Dr. George T. Alderson, the new pastor, and Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., all made speeches appropriate to the occasion. Miss Bessie Duyer gave a recitation which was appropriate and well rendered, while later refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to all. The Men's Club of the Church had charge of the affair.

Easter was fittingly observed in all of the Kent county churches. The churches were all beautifully decorated. while appropriate music and sermons were given. The ideal weather brought out large crowds to all the churches of the county.

Miss Alphonsa Alderson, daughter of the new pastor of the M. E. Church, presided at the organ of the Chestertown M. E. Church Sunday in a very efficient manner, during the absence of the organist, Miss Mabel Toulson, who has been quite sick.

The Pomona Choral Club was organized at its first meeting at the parsonage last Tuesday evening. The following officers were elected: Director, Rev. Edwin Gardner; President, R. C. Leaverton; Vice-President, Elmer M. Starr; Secretary, Wm. J. Maslin; Asst. Secretary, J. Arbray Faucett; Treas., Charles Slagle; Pianist, Miriam Gardner; Assistant, Lida Leaverton; Entertainment Committee, Mrs. John A. Jacquette, Mrs. W. T. Edwards, Mrs. Edwin Gardner, The club will continue to hold its meetings at the parsonage every Tuesday evening until further notice. About thirty-five were present.

Dr. L. E. Barrett delivered a very eloquent sermon at Fairlee M. E. Church last Sunday evening. Easter services were held there the same evening.

Easter services were held at Bond Chapel last Sunday. An interested audience heard Rev. Edwin Gardner in his sermon, "The Gospel of the Immortal Hope." Appropriate music was rendered by the choir. Miss Miriam Gardner sang "Alone" as a solo.

Services next Sunday at Bond Chapel as follows: S. S. at 10 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m. by Rev. Edwin Gardner. Everybody welcome.

Christ M. P. Church was the scene of appropriate missionary anniversary and Easter exercises Sunday evening. The total collection for the evening was $211.62, with the primary class the banner class; the three highest classes for the evening were: primary $44.00, Miss Clara Usilton's class, $37.16; Bible class $20.36.

The Easter services at both I. U. and Shrewsbury Churches were well attended. The chapels in each parish sent large delegations to worship with their parent congregation. The offering at I. U. was over $100 and Shrewsbury over $50, to be devoted to the obligations of the parishes to the church at large. The usual Easter meetings of the vestries were held, I. U. Monday morning and Shrewsbury Tuesday morning. The vestries in each parish stand unchanged, with the exception of Mr. P. A. M. Brooks being made registrar of I. U. in the place of Mr. A. H. Stavely, deceased. The finances of both parishes were found to be in a most encouraging condition, with no debts and church property in good repair. I. U. has a handsome fund in bank for building a permanent fence around its cemetery, which will be an accomplished fact in the near future.

On Sunday, May 4, immediately after morning service at I. U., a tree (which has been planted) will be dedicated to the memory of the late A. H. Stavely. At Betterton, immediately after the 4 p. m. service, a similar ceremony will be held around a tree planted in memory of the late Walter Luike. Both these young men were in the army and lost their lives during the epidemic of influenza. Their friends are invited to be present at these ceremonies.

Services at Shrewsbury Sunday, Apr. 27 at 11 a. m., and Galena at 4 p. m.

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. J. L. Ward, pastor. Sunday services: Morning worship, "The Church and the New Day," 10.30 a. m.; S. S., F. G. Usilton, Supt., 2.30 p. m.; Christian Endeavor, Mrs. Ella P. Robinson, leader, 6.45 p. m.; evening sermon, Rev Avery Donavan, 7.30 p. m.; quarterly conference Tuesday, 8.00 p. m. Junior Endeavor Thursday 4.00 p. m.; prayer meeting, Thursday, 8.00 p. m.; Intermediates, Friday 7.00 p. m.

Kennedyville M. P. Church. S. S. at 10 a. m.; "April prophecy: Showers will only make our attendance grow faster. Let no obstacles keep our school from growing. Bring in your share of captives to our bible class." Preaching 11 a. m.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Dr. T. J. Alderson, pastor. Sunday services: 10.30 a. m., "Partnership With God"; 7.30 p. m., "The Divine Call."

Dr. G. T. Alderson received word this week that his son, who had been in the service in Italy during the war, had arrived home and was at Camp Dix from which he would be soon discharged.

BETTERTON ITEMS

A Welcome Home reception to the returned soldiers and Red Cross nurses of Betterton was given at the school house on Tuesday evening by the Epworth League of the Betterton M. E. Church. About two hundred and fifty people were present. The room was decorated with American, French and English flags, the Service, Red Cross and Liberty Loan banners, cut flowers and plants. Seats were reserved for the families of all of the boys in the service and for men in uniform. Seated on the platform were the guests of honor: Messrs. Scott Stokes, Carvel Warram, Howard Brice and William Owens and Miss Carrie Karas. The following program was rendered: instrumental music, Mrs. Charles Brice; Star Spangled Banner; prayer, Rev. A. W. Goodhand; solo and chorus, Mrs. Shallcross; address, Mrs. Harvey Moore, president of Epworth League; chorus, "Home Again"; address, Rev. A. W. Goodhand; song, Red, White and Blue; address, Dr. S. S. Hepburn; duet, Misses Myrtle Pinder and Alta Price; remarks by soldiers and nurse; song, Maryland, My Maryland; address, Mr. Reese Young; song, America. A special tribute was paid to the gold stars in the service flag. After the program ice cream and cake were served to all present.

—The woods of Kent county are alive these spring days with the notes of the song birds. the young squirrels and young rabbits have begun to hop about, while the blooming wild flowers and growing herbs fill the air with perfume.
