Roland Park, Baltimore, will be the center of Maryland Sunday School work from Tuesday to Thursday, Oct. 21-23, when the Maryland Sunday School Association meets there in annual convention. Delegates are expected from every county. Among the speakers will be Canon Wm. L. DeVries, Ph. D., and Bishop W. F. McDowell, of Washington, Frank L. Brown of New York, Mrs. Phebe L. Curtiss, primary specialist, of Columbus, Ohio, Walter A. Snow, general secretary of the West Virginia Association, W. C. Pearce, of Chicago, and Prof. H. Augustine Smith, of Boston. The general secretary, Rev. E. Morris Fergusson, Fidelity Building, Baltimore, is arranging for the delegations and their reception at Roland Park.

Forty hours devotion were held at Sacred Heart Catholic Church this week. Large crowds attended the services.

Mr. Lemont Hackett, formerly of Still Pond, now of Baltimore, spoke in the interest of the Maryland School for the Blind in Baltimore at Chestertown M. E. Church Sunday morning. The maintenance of this great institution is one of great importance and should receive the hearty support of everyone.

A successful rectorship at St. Paul's P. E. Church, Centreville, covering a period of more than three years, will come to a close at the end of the present month. Mr. Cummins, the rector, has accepted a call to one of the finest churches in the south—Christ Church Cathedral, New Orleans, Louisiana.

Tomorrow the services in the M. E. Church will be as follows: Public preaching service at 10.30, sermon, subject: "The Man in Our Midst." Dr. Alderson, in discussing this subject, will show who the man outside the church is and how he should be sought.The Sunday school session will be held at 2.15 in the afternoon. Plans of reconstruction are being perfected for the school and these will be announced on rally day, Oct. 5. In the evening at 7 o'clock the Epworth League service will be held, topic, "Study to Become a Good American." Mr. Herbert Perkins, leader. Following this service the pastor will deliver a sermon on "A Father's Interest."

Salem Church, Fairlee, H. D. West, pastor. Sunday services: S. S. at 10 a. m. and preaching at 11 a. m.

Union M. E. Church, Worton, H. D. West, pastor. Sunday services: S. S. and also at 8 o'clock. Mrs. L. M. Woodside will speak Sunday night. Everybody welcome.

At the meeting of the Sunday School Board of the M. E. Church, Chestertown, held Sunday afternoon, the following committee was named to prepare a program for Rally Day, which will be held on Sunday, Oct. 5. Mrs. Walter Pippin, Mrs. Harry Jefferson, Miss Fannie Stuart.

Plans are being made to observe the 68th anniversary of Bond Chapel on Oct. 26 next. Some very popular and well known ministers will preach in the morning, afternoon and evening. A complete program will be published later.

The annual festival of Bond Chapel will be held on Oct. 2. Tickets will be 40 cents and 75 cents. See adv.

Regular services at Bond Chapel tomorrow: S. S., at 10 a. m.; sermon at 11 a. m. by Rev. Edwin Gardner, pastor.

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. J. L. Ward, pastor. Sunday services as follows: Morning worship, "Paul A Pattern of Prayer," 10.30 a. m.; S. S., F. G. Usilton, Supt., 2.30 p. m.; Christian Endeavor 6.45 p. m.; evening worship, "Standing Upon The Watchtower," 7.30 p. m. Prayer meeting on Thursday at 7.30 p. m. Everybody welcome.

An interesting and impressive demobilization service was held at St. James M. P. Church on Sunday, Sept. 21, during the session of the Sunday School. That part of the program was opened by the singing of America by the school. Rev. Avery Donovan gave a splendid talk for the soldiers. The flag, with the sixteen stars for the boys who represented the church in army and navy, the United States flag and the Christian flag were taken from their places and draped on the altar. Mrs. Tilghman Hudson offered the singing of the Star Spangled Banner as a solo by Mrs. Elsie Plummer. All the men represented did their work nobly. May there be no more war to call them forth again.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Miss Helen Comegys is visiting her parents at Blacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. W. Beck are spending the week in town.

Mrs. Charles Stewart is the guest of her brother, Mr. R. H. Collins.

Mr. J. Rudolph Stam and wife, of Blairville, Pa., are the guests of the former's mother on Water street.

Mr. Simon Wickes, of New York, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hynson Rogers.

Mrs. Susan Stam gave a tea on Thursday afternoon for Miss Polly Westcott, the approaching bride.

Mrs. Simon Westcott gave a kitchen shower to Miss Polly Westcott this week.

Miss Harriette Welch left on Wednesday for Roanoke, Va., where she will enter the "Virginia College."

Mr. Jack Barroll left on Wednesday for the University of Virginia, where he will become a law student.

Messrs. Owen and Vernon Selby left home a few days ago for Charlotte Hall Military Academy after spending a pleasant vacation with their parents, the former having been honorably released from active duty in the Navy a few weeks ago.

Mr. Colin Stam has accepted a position in the Commerce Department at Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Beck left yesterday for their new home in Calvert County. They leave behind them a large circle of friends and relatives, who are sorry to lose them from their midst, but who wish them success and happiness in their new home.

—While engaged in a game of golf recently in Talbot, Mark Graus, of Washington, made a beautiful drive but as his ball fell to the ground he noticed a crow fly down. The crow seized the ball and flew away with it. This came from an exchange, but sounds something like a Chester river fish story.
