The Federated Char[illegible] Chestertown is a union of al[illegible] charitable organizations in this [illegible]munity. It is backed by the members of the Methodist Episcopal, Methodist Protestant, Protestant, Episcopal and Catholic Churches and has the hearty support of all the lodges, and, we hope, of each adult in this town.

Its object is, primarily, to relieve physical distress, irrespective of church affiliation.

Morals are left to the individual conscience, to God, and the civil law. The success of this organization depends upon the practical support given it, not to resolutions, or words of cheer.

Every adult in Chestertown, if not from supernatural motives, at least from civic pride, should become a member by paying the minimum amount of one dollar every year.

However, individual bequests are not limited to this minimum amount. Show your practical application of the second command of the New Dispensation, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself," for it means giving in proportion to your means.

The members of the Federated Charities have pledged themselves to limit their solicitations to one campaign a year. Do you realize what this means? It means peace of mind, freedom from continual nagging for help to relieve poverty and stricken families.

Is not this worth the one dollar or the one hundred dollars you may give?

Once you are enrolled you may conscientiously dismiss from your mind any further appeals for help. The Federated Charities is big enough to take care of all appeals in this community.

A campaign has taken place, but it is a most ignominious failure. We expected the citizens of this community to subscribe at least one thousand dollars. The receipts up to date have been a beggarly $313.67.

But, Mr. Citizen, bear this in mind. If you are a member you will be troubled no more. Success or failure of the Federated Charities depends upon your decision.

Many members of the lodges in Chestertown are enrolled as members. It may be that in the course of time, they will see fit to heed individual appeals for help. If these appeals come from those who are not entitled to the protection of the lodge, we respectfully suggest that the money so collected be turned over to the Federated Charities in order that an intelligent use may be made of it.

In conclusion, I ask, if there is not at least one man in this community with heart enough for humanity, and faith enough in God to match the rather modest amount that the people as a whole have subscribed.

It is not enough. Put us on our feet. Help those at home with the same reckless prodigality that characterized your generous conduct during the war.

Take to yourself the words of the Psalmist, "Today, if you shall hear His voice, harden not your hearts." Ps. XCIV:8.

REV. J. F. EARNER.

Men's Church Club Organized At Centreville

The Men's Club of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church in Centreville organized last Tuesday night at St. Paul's Parish House with an enrollment of twenty members.

The purpose of the club is the promotion among men of religious, philanthropic, educational and social matters. In addition to the members already enrolled there is quite a list of men in the community who have signified their intention to join in the near future and a large membership is anticipated.

A constitution and by-laws were adopted, and it was decided to hold regular meetings the second Monday evening of each month at 8 o'clock at the Parish House.

It is expected at each of the meetings some form of social enjoyment will be provided and along that line an evening with the "Bentztown Bard" met with considerable favor when suggested.

An enrollment fee of 50 cents, with 10 cents monthly dues, is provided for in the by-laws.

Men 17 years of age and over and of good moral character are entitled to membership.

Officers were elected to serve until the October meeting, when their successors will be elected for a year, it being intended that the club year will run from October to October of each year.

The officers are: Pres., J. F. Rolph; 1st V. P., H. B. W. Mitchell; 2nd V. P., W. J. Price, Jr.; Sec., E. H. Brown, Jr.; Treas., R. E. C. Lowe.

The following were present and enrolled as members: Rev. W. C. Marshall, J. F. Rolph, C. H. Burgess, Spencer Wright, G. D. Neavitt, Raymond C. Bryan, Graham Watson, Z. R. Collins, Hiram G. Dudley, Jr., R. T. Earle, C. S. Thomas, H. Z. Bevins, H. B. W. Mitchell, E. M. Forman, J. F. Stevens, W. R. Horney, R. E. C. Lowe, T. J. Keating, Clapton Wright and E. H. Brown, Jr.

Resolutions Of Sympathy

In accordance with His divine will our Heavenly Father having called to his eternal rest our late brother and fellow patron, Wm. T. Baxter, and

Whereas, we are thankful for having been associated with him in the daily pursuits of life and found him a noble and kind-hearted man, always ready to lend a helping hand for the good of his fellow-man and the community.

Resolved, that as Bro. Baxter was, when in health, an active, loyal and earnest Granger, and as a former master of this Grange, zealous in the performance of his duties, that this Grange No. 244, Patrons of Husbandry, desire to express to his family the heartfelt sympathy of its members in their sorrow.

Resolved, that these resolutions be placed upon our minutes, published in our county papers, and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.
