Improved Nitrous Oxide Apparatus
DR. GEO. S. FOUKE,
DENTIST.
Having furnished his office, in Westminster, Md., with one of Dr. Bean's Patent Improved Apparatus for the manufacture of perfectly pure

DR. FOUKE would invite the attention of the public to his lately Improved ATMOSPHERIC PRESSURE PLATES FOR ARTIFICIAL TEETH. By means of an improved Air-Chamber, the pressure of the atmosphere for holding teeth firmly and securely in the mouth, is more certainly and effectually attained than by any style or form of plate hitherto used by the profession.
The value and excellence of a set of Artificial Teeth are much enhanced by this new and truly philosophical arrangement.
Dr F continues the Practice of Dentistry in all its Branches, and being a Passed Worker in Hard Rubber for Dental purposes, he is thoroughly experienced in the manufacture of teeth upon the Vulcanite base, and is prepared to supply this style of work at very moderate rates.

The Great Destroyer has come!
Appearance of the Asiatic Cholera in the United States!
THE ZINGARI BITTERS
The Only Sure Antidote for Disease!
As a Preventative it is Infallible!
As a Cure it is Certain!
The appearance of the Asiatic Cholera in the United States has given rise to the just apprehensions of all classes. The National Congress has appointed a special committee to ascertain what means are necessary to insure the proper quarantine at all the ports on the Atlantic coast, while the authorities in the great commercial cities on the sea-board are actively engaged in enforcing such sanitary measures as will secure the cleanliness and promote the healthfulness of the communities in their charge. These precautions are all laudable. Cleanliness and temperance are the first great essentials necessary to safely guard against attacks from the Cholera, but greater than all these efforts of Congress, more potent than the proceedings of municipal bodies, and infallible beyond all doubt is the Great Zingari Bitters,
as a sure preventative of Cholera. The discoverer of the component part of this Bitters, an eminent Egyptian physician, had much experience in Egypt, where the Cholera rages with tremendous virulence. He had long seen and felt the want of some remedy which would strike at the root of the disease and so prevent much of the suffering which the human family has been compelled to endure from this scourge. The result of his thoughts and labors at length presented themselves in the production of the wonderful
ZINGARI BITTERS.
It was not long before this Bitters was recognized and accepted in all parts along the Mediterranean coast, in the south of Europe, among the semi-civilized tribes of Africa, and by the most practitioners of the old world, as the only sure and certain preventative or cure for the Cholera. The ZINGARI BITTERS acts on the organs of excretion and secretion, keeping up a perfect balance between them. It is composed entirely of roots and herbs, so nicely concocted that every organ is acted upon and put in tone. Its taste is pleasant and its effects prompt and lasting.
For travelers who are subject to all the changes of climate and water, the ZINGARI BITTERS is a companion that should never be left behind. It is for sale by all the druggists in the United States.

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL.
BALTIMORE, MD.
ESTABLISHED AS A REFUGE FROM QUACKERY.
The Only Place Where a Cure Can be Obtained.
DR. JOHNSTON HAS DISCOVERED THE most Certain, Speedy, and only Effectual Remedy in the World for Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys and Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Diseases of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach, or Bowels—those Terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of [illegible]—SECRET and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible,
YOUNG MEN
Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most excellent talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call upon me with full confidence.
MARRIAGE.
Married Persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, being aware of Physical weakness, organic debility, deformities, &c., speedily cured
He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a Physician.
ORGANIC WEAKNESS
Immediately Cured and Full Vigor Restored.
This Dreadful Disease—which renders Life miserable and Marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise.—The system becomes Deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, a Wasting of the Frame, Coughs, Consumption, &c.
Office, 7 South Frederick Street, left-hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe name and number.
☞ No letters received unless postpaid and containing a stamp to be used on the reply. Persons writing should state age, and send portion of advertisement describing symptoms.
The Doctor's DIPLOMA hangs in his office
DR. JOHNSTON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with a derangement of mind, were cured immediately.
TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE!
Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgences and solitary habits which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.
These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsy, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption.
MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.
THOUSANDS of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated; having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.
R. D JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS.
By this great and important remedy, Weakness of the Organs is speedily cured, and full vigor restored.
Thousands of the most nervous and debilitated, who had lost all hope, have been immediately relieved. All impediments to Marriage, Physical or Mental Disqualification, Nervous Irritability, Trembling, Weakness or Exhaustion of the most fearful kind, speedily cured by Dr Johnston.
YOUNG MEN
Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.
What a pity that a young man the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons MUST, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisition to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholly reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.
DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE
When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability can alone befriend him. He falls into the hands of ignorant and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing, filch his pecuniary substance, keep him trifling month after month, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him with ruined health to sigh over his galling disappointment; or, by the use of that deadly poison, Mercury, hasten the constitutional symptoms of this terrible disease, such as affection of the Head, Throat, Nose, Skin, etc., progressing with frightful rapidity till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending him to that undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveller returns.
ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS
The many thousands cured at this institution with in the last eighteen years, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston, witnessed by the reporters of the "Sun" and many other papers, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.
Skin Diseases Speedily Cured.
Persons writing should send that portion of the Advertisement which describes Symptoms; also, be particular to enclose a Postage Stamp to be used on the reply and direct in the following manner Dr. J. M. JOHNSTON, of the Baltimore Lock Hospital, Baltimore, Maryland

POETRY.

From the Atlantic for September.

THE BLUE AND THE GRAY.

BY F. M. FINCH,

"The women of Columbus, Mississippi, animated by nobler sentiments than are many of their sisters, have shown themselves impartial in their offerings made to the memory of the dead. They strewed flowers alike on the graves of the Confederate and of the National soldiers."—N. Y. Tribune.

By the flow of the inland river
Whence the fleets of iron have fled,
Where the blades of the grave-grass quiver,
Asleep are the ranks of the dead:—
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;—
Under the one, the Blue;
Under the other, the Gray.

These in the robings of glory,
Those in the gloom of defeat,
All with the battle-blood gory,
In the dusk of eternity meet;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the laurel, the Blue;
Under the willow, the Gray.

From the silence of sorrowful hours
The desolate mourners go,
Lovingly laden with flowers
Alike for the friend and the foe;—
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;—
Under the roses, the Blue;
Under the lillies, the Gray.

So with an equal splendor
The morning sun-rays fall,
With a touch, impartially tender,
On the blossoms blooming for all;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;—
Broidered with gold, the Blue:
Mellowed with gold, the Gray.

So when the Summer calleth,
On forest and field of grain
With an equal murmer falleth
The cooling drip of the rain;—
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;—
Wet with the rain, the Blue;
Wet with the rain, the Gray.

Sadly, but not with upbraiding,
The generous deed was done;
In the storm of the years that are fading
No braver battle was won:
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;—
Under the blossoms, the Blue,
Under the garlands, the Gray.

No more shall the war-cry sever,
Or the winding rivers be red;
They banish our anger forever
When they laurel the graves of our dead:
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Love and tears for the Blue,
Tears and love for the Gray.

From the Soldiers' Friend.

"THE BLUE AND THE GRAY."

[By referring to our October number our readers will find a very beautifully conceived poem, copied from the Atlantic Monthly, entitled "The Blue and the Gray," suggested by the strewing of flowers on the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers at one of the Southern cemeteries. One of our "Boys in Blue" has sent us the following spirited poem in reply, which will doubtless find a warm response in every loyal heart.—Ed. Soldiers' Friend.]

THE BLUE AND THE GRAY.

I

You may sing of the Blue and the Gray,
And mingle their lines in your rhyme,
But the blue that we wore in the fray
Is covered with glory sublime,
So no more let us hear of the Gray,
The symbol of treason and shame—
We pierced it with bullets—away!
Or we'll pierce it with bullets again.
Then up with the Blue and down with the Gray,
And hurrah for the Blue that won us the day!

II

Of the rebels who sleep in the Gray,
Our silence is fitting alone,
But we cannot afford them a bay,
A sorrow, a tear, or a moan.
Let oblivion seal up their graves
Of treason, disgrace, and defeat;
Had they triumphed, the Blue had been slaves,
And Union been lost in retreat.
Then up with the Blue, and down with the Gray,
And hurrah for the Blue that won us the day!

III

Of the rebels whom mercy still spares
To boast of the traitorous fray,
No boy in the Blue thinks or cares,
For the struggle is ended to day.
Let them come as they promised to come,
Under Union and Liberty too:
And we'll hail them with fife and with drum,
And forget that they fired on the Blue.
Then up with the Blue and down with the Gray,
And hurrah for the Blue that won us the day!

IV

As they carried your flag through the fray,
Ye Northern, ye promised the Blue
That ye'd never disgrace with the Gray
The color so gallant and true.
Will ye trace on the leaves of your scrolls
The Blue and the Gray is one line.
And mingled their hues on the scrolls
Which glorify Victory's shrine.
And cheer for the false, and hiss at the true,
And up with the Gray, and down with the Blue?

V

Let the traitors all go if you may,
(Your heroes would punish the Head.)
But never confound with the Gray
The Blue, whether living or dead.
Oh! remember the price that was paid
The blood of the brave and the true
And you never can suffer to fade
The laurels that cover the Blue.
Then up with the Blue, and down with the Gray,
And hurrah for the Blue that won us the day!

THE AFRICAN JUDGE.

Alexander, of Macedonia, came one day to a distant province of Asia, rich in gold. The inhabitants went to meet him, carrying baskets full of gold and fruit.

'Do you eat these fruits?' said Alexander; 'I am not come to view your riches, but to learn your customs.'

So they led him to the market, where their chief judge held his court. Just then a citizen stepped forth and said:

'O, Judge! I bought of this man a sack full of chaff, and have found in it a considerable treasure. The chaff is mine, but not the gold; and this man will not take it back. Speak to him, O Judge, for it is his.'

His adversary, also a citizen of the place, answered, 'Thou art afraid lest thou should'st retain something wrong, and I not fear to take it from thee. I sold thee this sack, including all that it contains. Keep thine own. Speak to him to this effect, O Judge!'

The Judge asked the first if he had a son. He answered 'Yes.' He asked the other if he had a daughter, and he also answered 'Yes.' 'Friends' said the Judge, 'you are both honest people; unite your children to each other, and give them the newly-found treasure for a marriage dower. This is my decision.'

Alexander was astonished when he heard this sentence.

'Have I judged unrighteously,' said the Judge of the distant land, 'that thou art thus astonished?'

'By no means,' answered Alexander; 'but in our country it would have been otherwise."

'And how?' inquired the African Judge.

'The disputants,' replied Alexander, 'would have lost their heads, and the treasure would have come into the hands of the King.'

The Judge smote his hands together and said, 'Does the sun shine with you, and does Heaven drop rain upon you?'

Alexander answered, 'Yes.'

'Then must it be,' he pursued 'on account of the innocent animals that dwell in your land; for over such men ought no sun to shine, no heaven to rain.'
