Tractor News

Tractors are becoming more and more popular on the Kent county farms, as labor gets scarcer and higher.

The adv. of the Cletrac tractor, being sold by Mr. George Baldwin, appears in this issue. This is a fine tractor.

Noland, Bennett & Russell are selling a good many of the Samson tractors. This is one of the most popular tractors on the market.

The Lacrosse Tractor is one of the best tractors being sold. A. S. Turner & Sons are the agents in Chestertown and their adv. appears in this issue.

Another popular tractor is the Fordson, sold by Mr. C. A. Goodwin, the Ford agent, here. His adv. also appears in The Transcript from time to time.

The H. I. Case tractor is sold by H. D. Orem & Son. This firm has sold quite a good many of these tractors and they are giving satisfaction.

To Give History Pageant

The Chestertown Elementary School is working on a local history pageant, which will be given on the college campus, free to the pubilc, the last of May. This is the biggest thing the school has ever attempted. All the work is being done by the pupils themselves, and they are, in consequence, getting valuable educational training along all lines.

The first credits were announced this week:

For the greatest number of worthwhile facts: 7th grade, 5 points, 217 facts; 6th grade, 3 points, 120 facts; 5th grade, 2 points, 116 facts.

For the best original wording of facts: 6th grade, 5 points; 2nd grade, 3 points; 3rd grade, 2 points.

Miss France is offering two prizes, and a citizen of the town, who got interested in what the children are doing, offered a third.

The pupils are now busy on the next step and interest is running high.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

The many friends of Mr. Charles Armstrong, who recently had an operation performed upon him at Johns Hopkins Hospital for kidney trouble, were glad to see him home this week. Mr. Armstrong is looking well and is on the road to health again.

Mr. Joseph Barroll and daughter, of Chicago, spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Hope H. Barroll.

—Senator Russell introduced in the Senate this week bills as follows: Authorizing the construction of a state road from Kennedyville to Still Pond; defining the duties of the Treasurer of Kent county.

There will be a joint meeting of the congregation and the vestry of Emmanuel P. E. Church, Sunday, March 28, immediately after the morning service. All are urged to attend this meeting. Rev. Mr. Atwater has accepted the call to this parish and will take charge in the near future.

—Mr. John H. Clendaniel, Jr., the Overland dealer here, has ordered $20,000 worth of Overlands. He has sold and delivered since Monday last Sedan; Mr. C. H. Jefferson, a Sedan; and a roadster; Mrs. Sophie Hurtt, a Sedan; Mr. C. H. Jefferson and Mr. and Mr. George Lee, a touring car. See Mr. Clendaniel's large adv on page 8 of this issue.

TO MY FRIENDS & THE PUBLIC

Having rented the Liberty Hotel and Restaurant at 1437-1439 North Charles Street, opposite Union Station, Baltimore, Md., I ask my friends and the public of Chestertown and vicinity, where I lived for a number of years, to make my hotel their headquarters when in Baltimore, where they will receive polite attention.

We have rooms with or without private bath and running water. Our hotel is the house of cleanliness and our cuisine is unexcelled in the city. Give me a chance to serve you.

CHRIST ALEVIZATOS,.. f15-1year Prop. and Manager.

Dr. C. W. Reed Dead

Dr. C. W. Reed, a former president of Washington College, died at Milford, Del., Friday morning. Funeral Monday at 1 p. m.

Resolutions

At a regular meeting of the Young Men's Club of Christ Methodist Protestant Church the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Whereas, Divine Providence has willed that the life of our former beloved pastor, Rev. Walter R. Graham, D. D., should come to an end, and

Whereas, during his last ministry at Christ Church, Chestertown, he was instrumental in organizing the Young Men's Club, and

Whereas, we appreciate his services beyond measure; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in his death we lost a shining light in the M. P. Church; a pulpit orator, an intellectual giant, a sweet singer and a warm friend. His work in Chestertown for over 11 years will forever stand as a monument to his indefatigable industry and love. He was the champion of every righteous cause, the friend and advocate of every movement that makes for human betterment and the wise counsellor and leader in all warfare against moral evils.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be published and a copy sent to the family of the deceased.

Respectfully yours,
FRED G. USILTON,
R. F. ELBURN,
J. L. WARD,
Committee.
