CHURCH NOTES

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. J. F. Wooden, pastor. Sunday services: Sunday School at 10 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m. Evening service at 7.30.

Rev. Charles L. Atwater, of Baltimore, who has under consideration a call to the pastorate of Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, filled the pulpit of that church in a most pleasing manner Sunday and delivered an interesting and instructive sermon. He was also present at the Sunday School service. Good crowds were present at both services.

Wilmington Conference is in annual session in Wilmington and will continue in session until March 31. Bishop McDowell, of Washington, D. C., is presiding. All the pastors of that denomination in Kent county are attending.

At the annual membership meeting of Grace M. P. Church, Centreville, recently, the pastor, Rev. G. Q. Bacchus, was unanimously invited to return for another year, after serving two years.

Tomorrow, Sunday, is Palm Sunday. Tomorrow week, April 4, is Easter Sunday.

Dr. George T. Alderson, who is slated to go to Elkton, delivered two very interesting sermons in Chestertown M. E. Church last Sunday. This will likely be Dr. Alderson's last appearance in the M. E. Church pulpit, for, if he goes to Elkton, he will preach there Easter Sunday.

Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, for more than thirty years president of the Western Maryland College at Westminster, Md., and a leading figure in the Maryland Annual Conference of the M. P. Church, has tendered his resignation as head of the college, in order to be relieved of the arduous duties incident to the office of president. Dr. Lewis took this action at a recent meeting of the board of trustees of the college, but intimated that he would not vacate the presidency until his successor could be named. The board appointed a committee of Methodist Protestant ministers and laymen to take under consideration the resignation of Dr. Lewis, and the committee will make its report at the annual meeting of the board next June. Dr. Lewis is well and favorably known in Chestertown and has delivered some powerful sermons here.

The successor to Dr. George T. Alderson as pastor of Chestertown M. E. Church will not be known definitely until conference meets. As we stated last week, Rev. Omar Jones was invited to the pastorate of the church, and appears to be in favor of coming here. He had, however, prior to the above invitation, been invited to the pastorate of the Brandywine M. E. Church, Wilmington. Rev. Jones will leave it to the Bishop and to the Presiding Elder to decide what course he will take.

Last Sunday, Passion Sunday, marked the approach of Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday. In nearly all Protestant Episcopal, Catholic and a few churches of other denominations special services were held in commemoration of the passion and suffering of Christ, while the ministers urged the members to continue steadfast in the resolutions that were made at the beginning of the Lenten season.

No definite information can be secured as to the successor of Rev. J. L. Ward as pastor of Christ M. P. Church. There are numerous rumors as to who his successor will be. Among those being mentioned are Rev. Leonard B. Smith, who has returned to this conference from Seattle, Wash., and Rev. Frank Elderdice, of Crisfield. Rev. Elderdice preached here several years ago and those who were present were very much pleased with his sermon.

Public prayer services were held in several Crisfield churches Sunday, the ministers praying for "deliverance of their people" from the hardships which would be placed upon oystermen and crabbers if bills now pending in the legislature should become laws. The churches were filled with men and women who are vitally interested in the pending legislation. For a week public meetings have been held almost nightly at which speeches protesting against the bills have been made. The bills in question were prepared by the Conservation Commission and provide for increases in fees for inspection of oysters, increases in crabbers and tongers licenses and a shipment fee of five cents on each box of soft crabs and five cents on each barrel of hard crabs.

A farewell reception was tendered to Rev. W. L. White, formerly of the Chestertown M. E. Church, at the M. E. parsonage at Easton last Tuesday evening by the Ladies Aid Society. A purse of $215 in gold was presented the pastor. A large number of people were present. Rev. White has been at Easton for several years and will not return next year.

Trustees of the Methodist Church of North East have disposed of all their real estate and will invest the proceeds in Liberty Bonds. The properties were a double dwelling house, sold to Thomas Price for $2100 and a house to Robert Sipps for $500.

Rev. J. P. Stump, who is now pastor of the Southern Methodist Church at Goldsborough, and who for a number of years was pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, Easton, will retire from active ministerial work after the meeting of the annual conference of that denomination in Washington next week and will return to his country home in Virginia. This action by him was caused by his having been in poor health.

There will be no services at Chestertown M. E. Church tomorrow morning or evening, the pastor being away at Conference. Sunday School and the Epworth League will be held at the regular time.

The blessed palms will be delivered at all the Catholic Churches of Kent and throughout the world tomorrow, the day being Palm Sunday, and the regular services that are always held on that day will be held.

The Rev. Leonard B. Smith, who has for some time been pastor of the First Methodist Protestant Church of Seattle, Wash., has resigned and will rejoin the Maryland Conference of the same denomination. Mr. Smith is a graduate of Washington College and was pastor of Christ M. P. Church, Baltimore, for several years. He is well and favorably known in Kent county.

"Save Your Chicks"

A statement from Mr. Josiah Massey, of Chestertown:

In my opinion there is no remedy among all others made which will give more satisfactory results than Avalon "Farmer's Poultry Tablets."

I have no hesitancy in giving this remedy my indorsement.

I lost about $125 worth of chicks and turkeys last spring before I began using Avalon "Chicken Tablets," but did not lose one afterwards.

For white diarrhœa and cholera in chickens and blackhead in turkeys there is no better remedy. For sale at
